

MARINE TRAFFIC JAM — This was the view from Sausalito yesterday as hundreds of bass fishermen converged on Richardson Bay for the opening of the annual herring run. The herring, which spawn in the bay until early February, are chased by the bass which, in turn, are chased by the fishermen. Many fishermen, waiting in the long line to launch their boats at the Turney Street ramp, reportedly got into fist fights as traffic grew heavy and tempers short. Police were on duty all day at the single public launching ramp which is designed to handle two boats at a time. See story in columns 6 and 7 below.

More White Pupils Return To School

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Seventeen white pupils returned to classes at William Frantz integrated school today, an apparent signal that a segregation-boycott is breaking.

This was seven more than showed up Friday.

The boycott—supported by women pickets—held firm at the city's other integrated elementary school, McDonogh No. 19. Only the three Negro first grade girls went in for classes. One Negro girl attended William Frantz.

Most of the returnees at William Frantz evaded the heckling from demonstrators by going in a side door while police held the crowd on private property.

While the boycott at William Frantz continued to slip from its low point of only two white pupils, a three-judge federal court knocked down the legislature's latest attempt to oust the New Orleans School Board.

The federal court's restraint order came at the request of M. Hepburn Many, U.S. attorney for Eastern Louisiana.

Judge Richard Rives, J. Skelly Wright and Herbert Christenberry issued a temporary restraining order prohibiting the legislature from putting into effect its plan to replace the five-member board. The legislature passed the enabling act Saturday.

LEGISLATIVE PLAN

Under the legislature's plan, the new board would control finances of the city's public schools and take over other board functions.

The court ruled that the legislation "would further prevent the board from operating schools in compliance with the orders of this court."

Jeers and taunts from women demonstrators greeted the white children and the Negro girl met a chorus of boos when she arrived.

MINISTER JEERED

A Methodist minister who has ignored screaming, cursing white women to accompany his daughter, Pamela, 6, and other white children to the Frantz School, was jeered again yesterday by a small group as he conducted services at two churches.

Four women walked out of services conducted by Rev. Lloyd A. Foreman at the Church of the Redeemer.

The minister conducted services later in the morning at St. Mark's Methodist Church. A man standing outside the building was led away by companions after he shouted, "I'll challenge that louse, the rat."

U.N. BOYCOTT

French Shun Debate On Algeria Issue

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —France boycotted a U.N. debate on the French-Algerian conflict today as supporters of the Algerian rebels pressed demands for a U.N.-supervised referendum on the territory's political future.

A threatened move to postpone the Political Committee's debate failed to materialize.

Sir Claude Corea of Ceylon, chairman of the 99-nation committee, called attention to communications from two members of the 11-nation French community—Chad and Congo Brazzaville—requesting a delay. But there was no immediate move to push the request.

Would End Separate Force Secretaries

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A special study committee told President-elect John F. Kennedy today that the Army, Navy and Air Force secretaries should be abolished as part of a sweeping defense shakeup which could save eight billion dollars a year.

The group said the proposals, which would vest strong new authority in the defense secretary, were dictated by "the unprecedented strategic value of time—the ability to react instantly against aggression in this nuclear-space age."

It said the nation had 18 months to mobilize in World Wars I and II but that it "would be fortunate to have 18 minutes" in any new conflict.

The blueprint would retain the separate military services. But the present departmental structure of the Army, Navy and Air Force would be eliminated and more than 20 top jobs, including the service secretaries, would be wiped out.

The committee also proposed replacing the Joint Chiefs of Staff with a combined planning staff whose members would have a minimum stake in the individual services. The chairman of the new group would deal directly with the defense secretary, who in turn would report to the president.

Kennedy received the report at Palm Beach, Fla., from Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), former Air Force secretary in the Truman administration, who headed the study group. Afterward, the president-elect returned to Washington for a meeting tomorrow with President Eisenhower.

After discussing transition problems with Eisenhower, Kennedy will go to New York Wednesday where he will announce his third cabinet appointment. The president-elect will meet in New York with United Nations Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold and others.

The Symington Committee said its recommendations were designed to wipe out the "arbitrary and ridiculous division between land, sea and air" forces, and reduce inter-service rivalry.

Quick-Thinking Boy Saves 2 In HAFB Fire

Quick-thinking by the 16-year-old son of a Hamilton Air Force Base sergeant probably saved the lives of two base residents yesterday.

Bill E. Rubinsak, delivering newspapers on the base, noticed smoke coming from the home of Capt. and Mrs. Loyd A. Poague at 316 Kelly Drive.

The youth promptly called the fire department, the air police and an ambulance. Air police forced their way into the smoking house, where the occupants were still asleep.

The fire, confined to the front room, was extinguished by the base fire department after doing damage estimated at $3,500. It was attributed to a smouldering cigarette.

Young Rubinsak is a son of M/Sgt. Gilbert W. Rubinsak of Quarters 55-B, San Jose Drive.

Four Youths Set Off For Latin Adventure

By DOROTHY SIMPERS

Four adventurous young Marin men—out to "see some of the world while we can"—set off for South America today in a 1947 panel truck they bought for $40.

The travelers are Douglas Simmonds, 20, and Larry Kiewert, 20, both of 130 Edison Avenue, Corte Madera; Frank Cotton, 19, of 24 Evergreen Drive, Kentfield, and Robert Buchholz, 19, of 4750 Antoinette Drive, Belvedere. Larry, Douglas and Robert attended Tamalpais High School and Frank went to Drake and Redwood.

Their trip will take them through Mexico and down the Pan-American Highway through Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica to the Panama Canal.

In Panama they plan to put their truck aboard a fruit boat and sail to a coastal town in Columbia.

The boys will take at least three months for their trip, and maybe longer. They have enough money to last four months, they estimate, and hope to earn some along the way. They figure their expenses at $7 a day each.

"It's our last big splurge before we settle down," says Doug Simmonds, spokesman for the group. "We want to see something different."

They don't plan to spend too much time in Mexico, although they will stop in Mexico City. South America is their main goal.

The problems and hazards of the trip don't faze them. It will rough going in spots, they admit, but they are confident they can drive all the way to Panama. The hazards will "give us something to think about till we get there," they say.

Their truck is well equipped for the long journey. All mechanically inclined, the boys rebuilt the engine, made

High Court Strikes At Eatery Bias

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court by a 7 to 2 vote today ruled out racial discrimination in bus terminal restaurant facilities if they are an "integral part" of an interstate line's service to customers.

Justice Hugo L. Black declared in a majority opinion that such discrimination violates the Interstate Commerce Act. Justices Charles E. Wittaker and Tom C. Clark dissented. The case was brought to the high court by Bruce Boynton, a student at Howard University here.

During a Christmas holiday bus trip in 1958, Boynton was arrested and fined $10 in Richmond, Va., when he insisted on being served in a restaurant in a Trailways bus terminal which was privately operated. The high court ruling sets aside his conviction.

In other action today, the court let stand a state court decision which struck down a Maryland law regulating the sale and display of comic books.

Anglers Pack Sausalito; Traffic Jams, Fists Fly

Fist fights and traffic jams—on land as well as on the water—highlighted the day in Sausalito yesterday as more anglers than fish converged on the town for the annual herring run.

A single public boat launching ramp on Turney Street required police supervision throughout the day with as many as 25 boats and trailers backed up at one point waiting to join the bass fishermen already afloat.

"It was just too much traffic for the ramp," said Richard Urbias of the Sausalito Boat and Tackle Shop. "At best it can handle only two boats at a time."

The traffic jam was even worse in Richardson Bay, according to witnesses.

"It was stupendous," said one fisherman who said there were as many as 500 small craft both yesterday and Saturday.

Most of the fishing was done by trolling, adding to the confusion and collisions. "There wasn't 100 square feet of water that didn't have a boat on it," Urbais said. "They stretched all the way from Kappas' Harbor to Yellow Bluff near the sewage plant."

The herring customarily stay around until early in February. They are a favorite food of the bass, hence the droves of fishermen. "Sometimes their spawning even takes them onto Sausalito's beaches where people get them with nets," Urbais said.

Despite the traffic, fishing was reported good in spots but "scratchy" in the middle of the day. Old timers said there were simply too many boats out.

Tony Caruso of Caruso's Bait, Tackle and Supplies, said this morning "it's still hot." Four boats, he said, came in with limits and that boats were still coming out of the water as late as 9 o'clock last night.

Churchmen Favor Proposal For U.S. Protestant Union

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Leading churchmen today registered a somewhat bedazzled but firmly favorable reaction to a proposal for a wide reunion among American Protestants.

The plan, said Methodist Bishop John Wesley Lord of Boston, "is as shocking as it is Christian."

"It overcomes with stark simplicity many of the problems that have perplexed the separate communions over the years."

The plan, at the outset, would embrace the Episcopal, United Presbyterian, Methodist and United Church of Christ with other denominations subsequently invited to join.

The provocative formula was offered yesterday by a top-ranking Presbterian, Dr. Eugene Carson Blake of Philadelphia, shortly before the start of the triennial General Assembly of the National Council of Churches.

More than 3,000 representatives of 33 Protestant and Orthodox denominations with 40 million members joined last night in the opening services.

"It is the opening of a very significant move," said Rt. Rev. Arthur C. Lichtenberger of of New York, presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church.

"Out of this might come a plan that would be acceptable to all the people involved," he added. "It is a good approach. I hope it will lead to a reunion of the church."

He, like others, however, emphasized it will take time, and careful examination.

Dr. Blake, in a sermon at Grace Episcopal Cathedarl, detailed steps for combining creedal, liturgical churces with the more informal, non-ritualistic churches into a body "both reformed and catholic."

Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike of California called the plan the "most sound and inspiring" ever offered in this country.

The plan is patterned on the precedent-shattering establishment of the United Church of South India in 1947, uniting Presbyterians, Methodists, Episcopalians and Congregationalists.

Dr. Blake proposed specifically a merger of these four groups in the United States. He included the United Church of Christ, a currently evolving union of Congregationalists and the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Although, the combined body would have more than 20 million members. Other churches accepting the principle, Dr. Blake said, would also be invited to join, with the ultimate aim of reuniting "the whole of Christ's church."

Dr. James E. Wagner of Philadelphia and Dr. Fred Hoskins of New York, co-presidents of the new created United Church of Christ, voiced "great interest and appreciation" for the plan.

They said they felt sure that if the Episcopal and United Presbyterian conventions next year issue calls for such a uion, a proposed by Dr. Blake, it will receive "careful and thoughtful consideration."

However, they expressed hope that the plan would not be limited to the four bodies named even at the start, since their own merger already was planning unity negotiations with the Disciples of Christ Church.

The proposed reunion would include a joint consecreational service, in which ail clergy took part, so as to bring them into the apostolic succession—a heritage valued by the Episcopal and other catholic-rooted churches.

The plan also would provide for "truly democratic government," with congregations free to name their own pastors, and "a wide diversity of theological formulations of the faith and a wide diversity of worship and liturgy."

Other measures would incorporate distinctive features of both Catholic and reformed tpes of Protestant churches, Dr. Blake said. He said he used the word "catholic" as it applied to age-old Christian concepts and practices.

"The reunited church," he said, "must have visible and historical continuity with the chu:rches of all ages before and after the Reformation."

He estimated it would take at least 10 years to affect the initial union, if the designated denominations act on it favorably. He suggested as a possible name "the Reformed and Catholic Church in the United States of America."

Survey Finds 10,000 Drug Addicts In State

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The first comprehensive report on narcotics arrests ever made in California shows that:

1. There are approximately 10,000 addicts or near addicts in the state.

2. Few juveniles are arrested, although nearly all suspects are young.

3. The public may be wrong in believing that narcotics generally start persons on a life of crime.

Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk released the report yesterday and said it was the first such extensive study to be made in the United States. He added that California faced a narcotics problem of major proportions "but it is not out of control."

Prepared by the Bureau of Criminal Statistics, the report counted 17,630 narcotics arrests during the period from July, 1959, to June, 1960. Of the total, 30.7 per cent were repeaters.

The report found "at least 5,812 users or potential users" of heroin and opiate derivatives —the habit-forming drugs. It concluded that the figure 10,000 "might serve as a rough estimate of the total" because the criminal statistics bureau believes, like many police officers, that such a user is bound to be arrested at least once every two years.

Arrests connected with marijuana and the so-called dangerous drugs like barbituates, which are not habit-forming, comprised 43.8 per cent of the total.

Concerning juveniles, the report counted 1,132 arrests of persons under 18, mostly on marijuana charges. Looking at all arrests, the bureau found that 70 per cent were persons under 30.

The bureau found 106 arrests for supplying drugs to a minor, less than 1 per cent of the total. It said the number was small because there "aren't too many such offenses or else it is very difficult to effect the arrest of the offender."

Only 13 per cent of all persons arrested had no prior criminal record, indicating that "the narcotic offender is certainly not a stranger to crime."

Marin Drug Arrests Total 23 In Year

Twenty-three arrests for narcotic offenses were made in Marin County from July, 1959 through June, 1960, it was reported today by the California Department of Justice.

During the same period, there were 17,630 arrests made throughout the state for narcotics charges. They included both state and federal narcotic law violators.

Records show that 78 per cent of those arrested were men, 14 per cent women, 7 percent boys under 18 years old, and 1 per cent girls under 18. Of the total arrests in the state, 3,241 were additional arrests of persons already having been arrested during the period covered.

The number of those arrested for violations of state narcotiv laws totaled 12,064. Of these, 3,214 involved marijana, and 1,532 were for possession, sale or transportation of heroin. Those arrested as addicts or users totaled 4,567.

Dictatorship Clamped On Stanleyville

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP)—Henchmen of Patrice Lumumba clamped a Communist-style dictatorship on the city of Stanleyville today.

Angered at the capture of the deposed premier they let loose their fury on whites trapped in his northeastern stronghold as a reprisal. Whites were barred from entering or leaving Oriental Province.

WHITES MISTREATED

United Nations reports said numerous white residents of Stanleyville were being mistreated by the military police under control of the local government headed by Antoine Gizenga, vice premier in Lumumba's defunct cabinet and a strong leftist.

Diplomats in Leopoldville were convinced that if Lumumba had succeeded in reaching Stanleyville he would have split the Congo in such a way that a Korea-type war would have followed with the Communists on Lumumba's side.

Lumumba, dismissed by President Joseph Kasavubu Sept. 5, escaped from his guarded residence in Leopoldville a week ago and headed for Stanleyville.

WILL FACE TRIAL

Caught 500 miles east of Leopoldville by Congolese army commander Col. Joseph Mobutu's troops, he has been brought back to face trial on charges of inciting the army to mutiny during the chaotic days after independence.

Western diplomats said they had definite information that the Soviet bloc and several Asian-African nations were planning to recognize a Lumum administration in Stanleyville as the Congo's rightful government had he got away out of reach of Mobutu's troops.

The diplomats think civil war would have followed, with many of the troops in Stanleyville supporting Lumumba and the Soviet Union supplying them.

CHURCH RETREATING

Bishop Pike Declares Christianity In Slump

NEW YORK (UPI)—Rt. Rev. James A. Pike has suggested Christians might "considerably subdue" the celebration of Christmas this year because a celebration presumes victory and "Christianity is in retreat."

Rt. Rev. Pike, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California, said in an article in Look magazine today that Christianity outwardly apepars to be growing with "superficial indications of a religious upsurge."

"But," said Bishop Pike, "an evaluation of all the evidence would demonstrate, not only that a decline has set in, but that the upsurge itself was without substanse."

Bishop Pike, one of Protestantism's leading spokesmen, said the Christian retreat was evident in this country when:

1. "Our government tells elaborate lies, as it did after the U-2 flight."

2. "We give to others on the express basis that we can get back from them—an alliance, an air base, a concession."

3. The United States keeps in storage "billions of dollars worth of grain while millions of people starve."

4. "The church finds itself in the ludicrous position of preaching brotherhood and practicing intolerance."

He said it was evident abroad in the advance of communism, in non-Communist countries where new nationalism "has cast Christianity into disfavor," and in "a revitalized Hinduism and a more aggressive Islam."

He said the statistics actualy show the church is losing ground although church membership in the last 15 years has tripled that of the previous 15, and church building, religious publishing and radio and TV programs on religious subjects have increased. He gave as an example of this the failure of Protestant church membership to increase at the rate of population increase in this country.

"If General Motors over the years were to trebel its sales but not improve its cars," he said, "its customers would properly consider the achievement a hollow one. The logic is no less applicable to the Christian church."

Scout Rocket Fails, Plunges Into Atlantic

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP)—A 72-foot Scout rocket and the inflatable satellite it was to have put into orbit lay under deep water 80 miles off the Virginia shore today after the failure of the first major space attempted from this test center.

Although the vehicle cost more than $750,000, there will be no attempt to recover any part of it.

Officials said it would be almost impossible to locate.

The 36-600-pound, four-stage research vehicle roared aloft at 4:14 p.m. yesterday and climbed beautifully for the 44 seconds of firsts tage burning. But the second stage failed to ignite and the rocket plunged into the ocean.

All four stages of the Scout rocket use solid propellants, and this was the first attempt to launch a satellite with such a vehicle. No date has been set for a follow-up effort.

HONOLULU (UPI)—Three turbulent weeks at sea ended last night for the sloop Endymion and its five-man crew. The Coast Guard cutter Ironwood towed the 76-foot sailing vessel into port. The Endymion had been at sea 12 days on a cruise to California when the engine went out.

Fires Fatal To 85

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Children have been chief victims of numerous deadly fires that have swept the nation since Thursday.

At least 85 persons, including 51 children, have died in fires, a United Press International count showed early today. Most of the deaths were blamed on faulty heating systems, taxed beyond limits by the season's first cold snap, and on careless use of matches.

Ship's Crew Safe

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. (UPI) Fourteen crewmen who spent seven days on their grounded freighter in storm-tossed Lake Michigan today awaited action by immigration authorities to enable them to set foot on land.

The rescued seamen were taken off the Liberian-registered Francisco Morazon yesterday shortly after gale warnings were posted. A Coast Guard lighter picked up the sailors and two representatives of the ship owners and took them to the ice-breaker Mackinaw.

Ghana, Belgium Split

Belgian Ambassador Gerard Walravens was ordered to get out of the country within 48 hours.

Air Force Pilot Killed

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Air Force Capt. Lawrence R. Reeves, 29, of Sterling, Colo., was killed yesterday when he ejected from his disabled F-102 jet fighter 100 feet from the ground—too low for his parachute to open. His plane crashed and burned.

Italy Highway Snarl

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—More than 20,000 motorists tested the new 51-mile superhighway between Bologna and Florence yesterday. Police said there were so many collisions no one counted them; dozens of injured motorists were treated at hospitals in three cities, and more than 100 cars ran out of gas or overheated.

State GOP Backs Nixon

LOS ANGELES (AP)—California's Republican State Central Committee has pledged complete support to Vice President Richard M. Nixon as head of the Republican party.

The committee sent Nixon a telegram yesterday, congratulating the defeated GOP presidential candidate on his majority in California. State Chairman John Krehbiel said Nixon's victory in his home state showed a clear repudiation of Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown's administration.

Escapes Hospital

WACO, Tex. (AP)—The pilot who led U.S. atomic bombers to Hiroshima and Nagasaki has escaped from the Waco Veterans Administration hospital, where he was a mental patient.

Hospital officials said Claude R. Eatherly, 44, a former major, escaped from the institution Nov. 22. Eatherly was acquitted of burglarizing two Texas post offices after pleading innocent by reason of insanity, and he was committed to the V.A. hospital here last year.

Surrenders in Siege

UNION, S.C. (AP)—A former mental patient wounded a young girl, then shot three policemen superficially during a 13-hour farmhouse siege before surrendering meekly yesterday on the plea of his father.

James Freeman Gregory, 39, came out of the bullet-riddled frame house into which officers had fired 1,000 rounds of buckshot and dozens of tear gas cartridges.

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT:
Better Health Through Knowledge
Girdles
• Late Walking
• Tea In Hospitals
• Milk And Eczema
Q. I know several women who won't wear a girdle because, they say, it weakens the abdominal muscles. Is this true?
A. All voluntary muscles respond to normal activity and use by developing tone or "firmness" even when the muscle is relaxed. When continued support is provided to muscle, there is less work done, and, as a result, the muscle becomes weaker. It is doubtful, however, that the modern garments now available to women give enough support to weaken the abdominal muscles.
Q. My two-year-old hasn't yet tried to walk. Could something be wrong?
A. Late walking is sometimes a family failing, and this calls for no concern. However, before this optimistic view can be taken, late walkers should have a medical checkup.
Q. My husband says that tea is as hard on the system as coffee. If so, why do they serve tea in preference to coffee in hospitals? Does tea contain caffeine?
A. Tea contains caffeine, tannin and aromatic substances. So does coffee. Both are mild stimulants and mild diuretics (increase kidney action). Tea is said to promote stomach emptying and does not upset stomach secretions. However, since tea and coffee are not too different chemically, the supposed advantages of tea over coffee may be due to psychological factors associated with the tea-drinking ritual.
Q. Is goat's milk helpful in treatment of eczema in babies?
A. Eczema in children is generally considered an allergic condition. If a baby or young child is allergic to cow's milk, the replacement of cow's milk by goat's milk would probably help.

Storms Pound North Europe

LONDON (AP)—Northern Europe today began cleaning up after a violent weekend of raging storms and floods which spread death and destruction.

Britain bore the brunt of the storm, which sent rivers crashing out of their banks and flooded dozens of villages and miles of farmland. Property damage was heavy in London. At least two deaths were reported.

Four deaths were counted in Holland. France, Germany, Denmark and Belgium also were badly hit.

More rain is expected and many areas, especially in Britain, still face serious flood threats.

Some rivers in Britain's West Country and Midlands were expected to crest today.

The storm, climaxing the wettest autumn for Britain in more than 100 years, punched at the island with 80 m.p.h. winds.

Forty counties were flooded and Wales virtually was cut off from England.

Hundreds of marooned men, women and children were taken to safety by volunteers who toiled into the early morning

In eastern Hollard, three flooded towns were evacuated. The area covered by lakes in Friesland was almost doubled. In Amsterdam, windows were blown in and trees uprooted.

In Belgium, many roads were under water. The storm lashed furiously at the French coast. High seas disrupted ferry service between Denmark's scattered islands.

2 Teen Girls Unhurt As Vehicle Rolls

Two teen-age girls escaped injury Saturday when their small foreign car went out of control and rolled over twice on San Pedro Road near Loch Lommond in San Rafael.

The driver, Loloma R. Schultz, 16, of 4 Chestnut Avenue, Ross, said she was eastbound at about 40 miles an hour and had to cross the white line to make a sharp left turn near Paganini Point about 5 p.m.

Loloma and her passenger, Sharon Lou Tuttle, 14, of 40 Rollingwood Drive, Glenwood, were shaken, but unhurt.

CONCERTS GIVE EVIDENCE

Chamber Music Gains In Marin Appreciation

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Two concerts yesterday provided further evidence that Marin is becoming appreciative of chamber music, a fortunate development considering that it has no adequate hall for large symphonic and choral productions.

In the evening the San Rafael Recreation Department launched, to the acclaim of some 650 persons, the first of a series of baroque orchestra recitals under direction of Hugo Rinaldi at Dominican College's Angelico Hall.

Presented in association with the Symphony Guild of Marin and the music department of Dominican, this concert also featured the San Rafael Recreation Chorale with Byron Jones as director as well as soloist.

Acoustics added diamond brilliance to the skillfully produced tone of the 20-piece orchestra composed of strings and piano, and the music chosen was perfect for the well-trained and rehearsed ensemble.

Their numbers were the Concerto grosso OP. 6 No. 8 by Corelli, and Vivaldi's concerto in D minor and concerto grosso in F Major for three violins and strings. High point of the latter was the trio of violins played by Tom Reynolds, Dan Shelasky and Michael Gerling.

Particularly in the Corelli concerto grosso, so coordinated was the response of the players to Rinaldi's direction and manipulation of dynamics that he almost seemed to be playing on a single instrument.

Byron Jones's powerful and resonant baritone was heard with smooth control of crescendos in the arioso from "Israel in Egypten" and also in Biblische lieder No. 4 by Dvorak. He sang as an encore the amusing Welsh folk song, "Counting the Goats."

Considering that members of the San Rafael Recreation Chorale of about 36 voices, including some without training, had been singing together only a month, they turned in a creditable performance. Surprisingly, they sang the difficult "Hallelujah" chorus better than their first three numbers—"Thee With Tender Care" by J. S. Bach, "Carillon" by Robert Sheehan and "Carol of the Drum" by Kenneth Davis. This was possibly due to the bolstering of their confidence by the orchestral accompaniment.

On the whole, the program might have been improved by keeping all of the music within the baroque period.

The other concert in the afternoon was a violoncello recital presented by Jean Mattos Maguire in Mill Valley's Outdoor Art Clubhouse with assistance of pianist Robaline Meacham.

Both well known Mill Valley musicians, they performed well together, seeming to possess an instinctive unity in their conception of the music played.

Climax of their joint performance, both in beauty of tone and technical facility, was the Brahms sonata No. 1 in E minor, with the cello's lowest tones noteworthy. Also good was their rendition of the lighter Sonata No. 5 in C minor by Boccherini.

Mrs. Maguire's playing throughout was characterized by the mellow tone and effortless execution of trills, wide interval jumps and flawless cadenzas one has learned to expect from her.

Nicely chosen to contrast in style with the duo works were Mrs. Meacham's group of Debussy numbers, "Les Collines d'Anacapri," "La Serenade Interrompue" and "Jeux d'Artifice." She seemed thoroughly at home in the impressionistic idiom. Her performance on the Kreisler-Rachmaninoff "Liebeslied" was pleasing.

Although the pure cello sonority was heard in Mrs. Maguire's unaccompanied Bach Sonato No. 2 in D minor based on old dance forms, it seemed pedantic and was not so ingratiating as the other selections.

The concert, Mrs. Maguire's contribution to the building fund of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, was warmly applauded by the audience that almost filled the clubhouse.

Corte Madera To Consider Zoning Change

A request for amendment of the Corte Madera zoning ordinance in connection with development of a 20.3-acre parcel of property at the Corte Madera interchange will come before the town council tonight. The meeting begins at 7:30 o'clock.

Scarco, Inc. will ask for an amendment to permit the property to be a "planned unit development" and to be legally subdivided. Planned uniti development, according to the present ordinance, is the development, as a whole, of 25 or more acres and does not permit subdividing.

'QUARRY SITE'

The property is known as the "Quarry Site" and is in the southwest quadrant of the interchange. It is owned by Carey Brothers.

Scarco, Inc., was the developer of the Terra Linda Shopping Center.

Two public hearings are scheduled tonight. The first, at 7:30, will be on an appeal from a planning commission decision granting a variance at 359 Chapman Drive. The second, at 8 p.m., will be on a proposed rezoning of the Carolands tract near the Marin County Day School from low density residential to multiple residential.

DOG LEASH LAW

The council's health and welfare committee will report on its study of a proposed leash law for control of dogs in the town.

The council also will review the status of the town gardener and hear a report on the Lucky drive property exchange, which involves the town, Redwood High School and Schultz Development Co.

The town manager and police chief will recommend an ordinance prohibiting parking on both north and southbound lanes of Madera Boulevard, between Tamalpais and Mohawk Avenue.

Organizational Meet On Tam Bonds Slated

An organizational meeting for the Tamalpais Union High School District bond campaign will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday at Redwood High School.

The meeting was called by Roger F. Morse of Corte Madera, who is serving as temporary chairman until the campaign committees are organized.

The campaign is for a second attempt at a three-million-dollar bond issue to add facilities to Tamalpais High School in Mill Valley, Sir Francis Drake High in San Anselmo and Redwood High in Larkspur, and for acquisition of land on which to build an additional school.

The election will be held April 18, date of statewide school trustee elections. The bond proposal is identical to that on the ballot last Oct. 11, when only 60 per cent approval was received. A two-thirds majority is necessary on bond issues.

Bulk of the proposal is for the second stage of expansion at Redwood, including classrooms, library, canteen, parking area and site development. Construction and remodeling at Tamalpais high would include a new science building, making classrooms in the old building, remodeling unused cafeteria space into offices and using present office space for classrooms, a canteen and partial outdoor physical education facilities.

At Drake high, plans call for a teacher workroom, an electrical shop and a locker room which would also serve as a covered area for eating in inclement weather, Morse said.

For purchase of land, the three-million-dollar proposal includes $604,100. The site has not yet been determined. The Tiburon Peninsula area and the Lagunitas area are those most prominently mentioned.

A report from the Stanford School Planning Laboratory due this month or next May indicate definitely where the new school should be, according to district officials.

Parents' Group Plans Yule Party

An international Christmas party and potluck supper will be held by the Foster Parents Organization on Dec. 5 at 7 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Aldrich, 64 Alta Vista, Mill Valley.

Foods from Cuba, Israel, Mexico, Italy, Holland, and Scotland will be featured. The story of Hanukkah, the Festival of the Lights, will be told and Christmas stories from Italy and Mexico will be related.

Reservations may be made through Mrs. Aldrich.

U. S. Chamber Sees Mild Business Slump

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. Chamber of Commerce has forecast a mild business slump in the first six months of 1961, with higher unemployment becoming a "troublesome" factor during the year.

Emerson P. Schmidt, chief economist for the business organization, said yesterday that the downturn would be "only 1 or 2 per cent" in total output of goods and services.

Spendable income of individuals will "decline even less," he predicted. But he said "unemployment is likely to average higher than in 1960 and be troublesome."

The session also heard other experts forecast an increase in steel prices next year and a slight drop in automobile sales.

Schmidt was optimistic but cautious about the second half of 1961. He said the national production rate might hit 515 billion to 520 billion dollars by the end of the year if business firms completed their inventory cutbacks by summer.

Pinching the economy, Schmidt said, were inventory retrenchment, a shift in the federal budget from a 1959 deficit to a 1960 surplus, loss of gold and dollars to foreign countries and lack of growth in the money supply.

"In the face of these obstacles, the strength and level of the economy are surprising," Schmidt said.

GOP Says 11,000-Vote Shift Would Have Won

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The first Republican autopsy on the presidential election asserts that a shift of some 11,000 votes in four states could have put Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the White House.

The states are Illinois, with its 27 electoral votes; Missouri with 13; New Mexico with four and Nevada with three. Nixon would have carried all four states if he had received a vote in each precinct from just one person who voted for Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Each of these states is among those in which GOP national headquarters has pressed for recounts or investigations of alleged voting irregularities.

Nixon won 223 electoral votes in the Nov. 8 election. If he had carried Illinois, Missouri, New Mexico and Nevada, his electoral vote would have been 270, one more than the necessary majority.

Final and official results show Kennedy carried Missouri by 9,878 votes, Navada by 2,493 and New Mexico by 2,294. His margin was less than 9,000 in the unofficial count in Illinois, where the GOP is still battling to reverse the result.

A preliminary study by the research division of the GOP National Committee emphasized major shifts away from the Republicans in the big cities and their suburbs and among Catholic voters.

The improved Democratic showing in the big cities and suburban areas was most conspicuous in the east. In New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Maryland and New Jersey, the Kennedy majority in the major city in each state was more than enough to offset Nixon majorities in the rest of the state.

In cities with a population of more than 300,000, Nixon's share of the presidential vote ranged from 28.6 points in New Orleans down to 3.2 points in Dallas, Tex., below President Eisenhower's 1956 percentage.

Of 15,000 different kinds of mammals in the world, 3,800 are native of North America.

RAZING SAN RAFAEL LANDMARK

Watching workmen hack down historic cypress tree beside the San Rafael Public Library today are Mrs. Claude Arroyo of 1712 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, and her daughter, Valerie, 3. The old tree, which was on the site when the library was built 52 years ago, was dying. Library trustees, afraid that limbs would fall on passersby, authorized Vaning Tree Service of San Rafael to cut it down for $200. Building in the background is First Presbyterian Church. TRIP

special preparations for expected rough driving., They installed guards to protect the radiator and an extra gasoline tank ad special rack on top for storage space.

They are taking as many spare tires as possible with them, and almost a complete engine in spare parts.

To get funds for the trip all the boys sold their own cars and "about everything else we own." They bought a couple of older cars, junked them to get the extra parts.

Their "hotels" will be sleeping bags and a lean-to attached to the truck, and they'll do their own cooking on a camp stove.

They are tking dungarees, boots, first aid kits machetes, camera, fishing poles—and a suit each, in case they want to dress up for some South American senoritas.

The four friends have been planning tis trip for four or five months. "We're not going to hurry," says Doug. "We'll spend a day or two in each town, and maybe a week if we find a place we like."

When they reach Colombia, the youths plan to drive down the west coast of South America to Santiago, Chile. From there they hope to cut across the continent and see Buenos Aires, Rio de Janeiro and Brasila, the new capital city of Brazil. They don't know how far up the coast they will be able to drive; so much of the continent is jungle. So their plans are indefinite from there on.

They plan to stop and see an acquaintance who owns a coffee plantation in El Salvador, and think they might get a job for a time there. They've also been given the names of other persons to look up, and in Chile they hope to see Martina Jimenez, who attended Redwood High in 1958-59 as an exchange student and lived with Larry's family.

Two of the young men speak "high school Spanish" and feel they will get along all right in the language.

All the young travelers either quit their jobs or took a leave of absence to make the trip. Doug is a glazier, Frank a service station attendant, Larry a mailman, and Robert a salesman in his father's store, B and B Auto Parts in Corte Madera.

Convict Hangs Self In Cell

Stephen Eksala, 20, hanged himself with his shirt last night in an isolation cell of San Quentin Prison where he was placed for the Nov. 15 stabbing of Duane Hall, convicted Mount Tamalpais murderer.

Prison authorities said Eksala was under a suicide guard but managed to loop his shirt over a ventilator. He was found about 9 p.m. by a guard.

Eksala stabbed Hall with a table knife stolen from the mess hall. Hall has recovered and is working in the library, where he has worked for about six and one-half years.

Hall was convicted in Marin, in 1953, along with Raymond C. Hodge, for the murder of Salinas cement finisher Roy Kapphahn. The body was found on the slopes of Mount Tamalpais on June 14, 1953, by picnickers.

Eksala was sentenced to one year to life and six months to 10 years for second degree robbery and assault in Contra Costa County.

Thief Walks In Door Left Open For Dog

When Levy and his wife returned home at 10:30 p.m. they found someone had walked in the back door and stolen $50 in cash and a diamond ring worth $50 from a bedroom dresser.

Planners Study Church Sites, Delay Decision

Two hours of heated discussion of church sites in Marinwood finally led only to decision today by the Marin County Planning Commission to postpone final decision on proposed master plan amendment to Dec. 19 in hope that first-hand inspection of the land will bring more light.

Bishop James A. Pike of the Episcopal Diocese of California had sent one of many communications backing the desire of the Church of the Nativity, which has been operating in a home in Marinwood for three years, to have four acres at the end of Ellen Drive, off Las Gallinas Avenue, designated as a church site in place of one of four sites now on the master plan.

The bishop declared that "no less than two and one-half acres is needed." This view was upheld by the vicar, Rev. Llewellyn White, as well as members of the congregation.

White insisted, against opposition from attorney Julius Selinger, representing developer Gerald G. Hoytt, that only one of the sites had been made available for purchase. Selinger said this was incredible since Hoytt must sell all the sites for church uses if any.

Nearby residents objected to a church into an area where one had not been contemplated. There was much argument over the suitability of the proposed site, to which access is over a street with 14 per cent grade.

Commissioner Felix M. Warburg declared, "We're dealing largely with a real estate problem and I don't think a master plan should be changed on that basis alone."

In agreeing to a continuance moved by Commissioner Neils Schultz Jr., chairman William Upton said "we'd better take a look and seek a more objective opinion."

"an interesting and constructive study which I am sure will be carefully analyzed by the Congress and the incoming administration." Action by Congress would be required to put many of the reforms into effect, which probably would mean a battle.

The committee said the system of three separate service secretaries only encourages the secretaries to subordinate the national interest to the interests of the individual services.

The committee also called for abolishing the posts of under-secretaries and assistant secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force. The defense secretary would administer the affairs of the three services.

The civilian command of the defense department would confor administration and an undersecretary for weapons systems.

Three directorates for research and engineering, procurement and production and installations of all armed services would be set up under the undersecretary for weapons systems.

A new post of assistant to the defense secretary for arms control would be created. He would represent the Defense Department in disarmament planning with other departments, chiefly the State Department.

Revision of the joint chiefs would involve appointment of a chairman who would preside over a new military advisory council. It would be composed of senior officers taken out of their services or retired men who would promise never to return to their individual services.

The Symington group said its plan would relieve members of the joint staff from any "control" by their respective services so their consciences could be the deciding factor in judging issues involving national security.

The committee plans envisioned three unified miliary commands — strategic, tactical and defense.

The strategic command would be an offensive branch that would react in case of general or nuclear war. The tactical command would react in the event of a limited war, while the defense command would be responsible for the defense of the United States.

Symington also envisioned what would amount to a fourth command. It would be responsible for the National Guard, the military reserves and civil defense.

Pony Express Unit Seeking Way To Expend Fund

Waddell F. Smith of San Rafael, president of the National Pony Express Centennial Assn., has been appointed to a committee to study the way to spend $50,000 to $75,000 in excess association funds, announced Clarence A. Reeder, Jr., executive secretary.

Most of the money in the fund came from the sale of letters carried in the Pony Express re-run last July in honor of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the pony express, Reeder said.

One project being considered is the construction of permanent markers commemorating the 1,966-mile pony express route between Sacramento and St. Joseph, Mo.

The Pony Express went out of business 18 months after its founding when transcontinental telegraph lines were installed.

Nerves Produce Variety Of Ills

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Too many of us have been told, your trouble is nerves, just nerves.

Nervousness is not unusual. But it should not be dismissed lightly. More and more doctors are coming to the conclusion that nervous tension is the result of a chemical imbalance in the body.

Nerves can cause an upset stomach, pains in the chest, legs and other parts of the body. What causes these pains and the chemical imbalance in the body?

Your spine consists of 24 bone segments. These bones sit on top of each other. They have a hole in the center and through this hole passes your spinal cord and the nerves to all parts of your body.

A fall, a sudden twist or even poor posture may move one of these spinal segments or vertebrae slightly out of line. Nerves become pinched when this happens and a chemical imbalance can result. You begin to feel irritable and have pains and evenutally break down in health.

Chiropractors use X-ray and other scientific instruments to determine whether your nervous tension is caused by a misaligned spine. They are well-trained to correct such defects and help restore you to health.

CHP Nabs 3 Climbing On Bridge

Now they're using the Golden Gate Bridge for a trapeze, or something.

This was news to California Highway Patrolmen Vincent C. Weimer and J. F. Allison when at 3:17 a.m. today they received a call that three teen-agers were performing acrobatics somewhere on the span.

At 4:50 a.m. the patrolmen spied two boys and a girl walking north on the sidewalk, one of the youths with a long rope over his shoulder.

The three disappeared before the patrolmen could swing their southbound car around, but were caught a few minutes later in an auto that entered the bridge from the Fort Point road.

All three had daubs of the bridge's orange paint on their hands, faces and garments. A rope was coiled in the car.

The three said they belong to a mountain climbing organization and were "getting some practice" on the bridge. Patrol officers felt there should be some charge against the three, but were puzzled over what section of state code would cover climbing on a bridge.

Tests are being made by the Army Corps of Engineers at its Sausalito Bay model to try to determine what would happen should radioactive poison enter San Francisco Bay if there were a ship collision in which a nuclear-powered craft was involved.

two agencies, the Maritime Administration and the Public Health Service, Col. John A. Morrison, district engineer, said today.

The Savannah, a commercial ship run by atomic power, is operated by the administration and, according to bay model chief engineer Edward A. Schultz, may visit San Francisco next year.

The Public Health Service asked for studies of pollution caused by industrial wastes and municipal sewage.

Tests are being made in five spots in the bay model: Two in the vicinity of Mare Island Strait, from which atomic-powered submarines are operated, one at a passenger pier at the embarcadero in San Francisco, one at the Golden Gate and one in the Oakland inner harbor.

Radioactive material is simulated by Rhodamine B dye, a fluorescent dye, in the bay model. It circulates around the bay with the water movement until diluted. An attempt is made to see where it goes, how quickly, and the density of it.

Release of the dye is detected by an instrument called a fluoremeter which can detect the dye in parts as small as one part in one billion.

For the Maritime Administration, the model is run for 40 cycles, each 15 minutes or the equivalent of one day on the bay. Ten hours is equivalent to 40 days. There will be about 2,400 samples in the complete 40 cycle test.

Model tests are expected to be finished this week, Colonel Morrison said, and evaluated data is to be turned over to the Maritime Administration in March, at which time it is expected to be made available to the public.

Algiers Revolt Leader Skips French Trial

PARIS (UPI)—Algerian settlers' revolt leader Pierre Lagaillarde was reported today to have fled to Spain along with four defendants under trial for their roles in the Algiers barricades rebellion of January, 1960.

Lagaillarde and the other four men failed to show up today when the military trial resumed after a four-day recess. His defense lawyer told newsmen: "I think he has gone to Spain."

Less than two hours after the red-bearded Lagaillardes's flight was reported, President Charles de Gaulle called in Premier Michel Debre for an extraordinary 40-minute meeting. No details of the discussion were announced.

The escape of the 29-year-old deputy and former paratrooper created fears that rightwing Algerian settlers hostile to de Gaulle's Algerian policy may be planning to set up an independent government in the war-torn African territory.

FLIRT INSTEAD OF SMOKING, MEDIC ADVISES

LONDON (UPI)—A British doctor today advised jaded business men to pack up their troubles by reaching for a blonde or brunette instead of a cigarette.

Dr. Alistair Mackinnon, 45, the father of five grown children, put forth his "don't smoke—flirt" theory in the medical magazine, the Practioner.

His opinion is that a light romance is the ideal way to make a man forget routine troubles.

"I would not suggest flirtation as an alternative to smoking for younger men," he hastened to add. "That could be dangerous."

S.F. Youth Hurt In Minor Crash

Alex H. Holidoff, 18, of San Francisco, was treated for multiple cuts of the forehead and right ear at San Rafael General Hospital yesterday afternoon after being shaken up in a minor car collision at the Lincoln Avenue entrance to Highway 101 in San Rafael.

Holidoff was a passenger in a car driven by Grover Charles Wise, 19, of San Bruno. Wise was driving directly behind a car operated by Oscar Lawrence Leak of 1602 Vallejo Avenue, Novato, and both vehicles had halted before entering the freeway. Leak started but slowed and Wise rammed his car from behind, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Big Three Recess Atom Test Talks

GENEVA (UPI)—The United States, Britain and Russia today agreed to recess the 2-year-old nuclear test ban conference for a prolonged Christmas vacation with a decisive showdown in the offing when it resumes.

U. S. delegate Charles C. Stelle told today's 30-minute meeting "no one could predict the future of the conference, but it would seem to me that its next session will be decisive."

The recess is scheduled to last until Feb. 7 to premit the incoming Kennedy administration to take stock of outstanding problems, Western conference sources said.

It is the third Christmas vacation since the talks began in October, 1958.

Steele said, "the experience of recent weeks does not offer the promise of immediate progress."

He told Soviet delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin, "I would commend some careful Soviet soul-searching" on outstanding problems.

Branson Plans New Dining Hall, Kitchen

Katharine Branson School of Ross hopes to have a new $166,000 kitchen and dining hall ready for use by fall of next year.

John M. Fuller, president of the board of trustees, announced that groundbreaking ceremonies for the kitchen and dining hall will be held at 12:30 p.m. Dec. 13. The new hall will have a 225-seating capacity. A study hall and one residence hall have already been completed in the overall improvement and building project planned by the trustees. A science building is also planned.

Groundbreaking ceremonies will be held in conjunction with a Founder's Day Luncheon. A regular board meeting will be held at 11:30 a.m. the same day.

Miss Katharine Branson, retired headmistress from whom the school takes its name, will be present for the ceremonies. She now resides in Carmel.

Also present will be four of the school's founders: R. W. Harrison, Mrs. Harrison Dibblee Sr. and Mrs. Harry Moore of San Francisco and W. E. J. Ord of San Rafael, and three former trustees, Woodbridge Bingham of Berkeley, Mrs. Lawrence Ford and Mrs. William Kent Jr. of San Francisco, as well as present trustees headed by John M. Fuller of Hillsborough, president of the board.

Committee co-chairmen for the program are Mrs. Howard Van Orden of Ross, alumnae president, and Mrs. J. Patrick Mahoney of San Francisco, alumnae publicity chairman.

Marin Salad Dressing Firm Sold, Will Leave

San Rafael lost one of its most successful small businesses today with the sale of Girard's, Inc., to the Westgate-California Corp. of San Diego.

The Girard's plant, located at 502 Irwin Street for almost 10 years, manufactured Girard's Original French Dressing and Girard's Wine Vinegar French Dressing.

Rufus Rhoades, president of the firm since he organized it in 1939, said he regretted that the company had to be moved out of Marin.

"The increasing competition in the industry has made it extremely difficult for a small business to continue to grow," he said. "Westgate has the money and the know-how to make products national. I wish them wonderful success."

Rhoades said he did not know the plans of the new owners in regard to the 10 employees now with the San Rafael plant. "It is possible some of them, if not all, will be asked to move with the job to San Diego," he said.

The plant, he said, would remain in San Rafael until next spring.

The company recently developed two new oil dressings, one flavored with fresh garlic and the other with paprika. The new formulas go with the sale of the corporation, Rhoades said.

The original recipes for Girard's dressings came from the historic Girard's French Restaurant which was located in San Francisco on Maiden Lane before the turn of the century. The recipes are basically the same as the originals, Rhoades said.

The new owners manufacture Breast O' Chicken tuna and Purr Cat Food.

Until now, Girard's outlets to chain stores and wholesalers have been restricted to the west coast, Arizona, Texas and the Carolinas, Rhoades said.

C. Arnholt Smith, president of Westgate-California Corp., was expected to arrive in San Rafael today to take over the plant. Terms of the sale were not announced.

Crew Digging For Water Strikes Gas

North Marin Water District workmen hit gas when they dug into the street at the intersection of Grant and Machin Streets in Novato today.

They nicked a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. line with the rydraulic digger being used to excavate for replacement of an old water line with a new one.

Gas pressure dropped in the area, a PG&E spokesman said, but apparently hadn't affected householders too much as no complaint calls had come in about two hours after the line was punctured.

It was expected to be repaired by this afternoon.

At the time of his retirement Case was chief of the training division of the G3 (plans and training) section of headquarters at the San Francisco Presidio.

Trial Set For Marin Slayer In Coors Death

Trial of Joseph Corbett Jr., Marin County slayer, for the kidnap-murder of millionaire brewer Adolph Coors III was set today for March 13 in Golden, Colo.

Judge Christian Stoner of district court there set the trial date and appointed attorneys H. Malcolm Mackay and William E. Erickson to represent Corbett after the California prison escapee told the court he nor his family had enough money to hire a lawyer, United Press International reported.

Mackay originally was hired to represent Corbett by the accused man's father but asked to withdraw today because there was no money to pay him. By being court appointed, he and Erickson will be paid by Jefferson County.

Corbett was accused of killing Coors after the wealthy man was kidnaped near his home last Feb. 9.

After being on the Federal Bureau of Investigation's list of 10 most wanted men for about seven months, Corbett was arrested in Vancouver, B.C., on Oct. 29, and returned to Colorado on a murder warrant. He pleaded innocent at his arraignment.

Corbett was convicted of the murder of Air Force Sgt. Allen Lee Read, who was shot twice in the head and whose body was dumped from a car in Larkspur on Dec. 22, 1950. He drew a life sentence, but escaped from Chino State Prison in 1955.

Holland's Santa Claus Sails Into Sausalito

Sinterklass, Holland's version of Santa Claus, sailed into Sausalito's yacht harbor from Spain Saturday afternoon.

Arriving on the yacht Jimax III, Saint Nicholas was officially welcomed by Otto I. M. Porton, president of the Holland-American Society of California, sponsor of the visit.

Also on hand to greet the saint were a throng of children, Sausalito Mayor Phillip S. Erlich and H. E. Van Ravenstein, consul general of The Netherlands.

The colorful arrival was patterned after the traditional Dutch ceremony in which Sinterklass is welcomed in Amsterdam by the mayor and city fathers.

In Holland, the old man arrives carrying a large, golden-lettered book in which the names of all the good (and bad) are written. St. Nicholas then has a word of praise for the good children and a few stern remarks for those who have been bad.

Legend has it that the bad children are punished by taking them back to Spain, where they must spend the year wrapping gifts for the next Christmas.

Unlike our Santa Claus, Sinterklass hands out his gifts on the eve of Dec. 5, his birthday. In Holland Christmas Day is observed only as a religious holiday.

The Dutch celebration is reenacted each year by members of the Holland-American Society as part of their effort to pass on the tradition to their children. The society has a number of members in Marin County, including directors Gerrit Muelenkamp and Carel F. Stahl of San Rafael and G. L. van der Hoven of Corte Madera.

The role of St. Nicholas was played by Hubert J. Penn.

Administrators Of Schools Meeting

LONG BEACH (UPI)—A week-long convention of the California Assn. of School Administrators began today at Municipal Auditorium.

Theme of the convention, which drew educational leaders from throughout California, was "Developing Responsible Citizenship."

Dr. Roy E. Simpson, state superintendent of public instruction, was scheduled to speak tonight on "Days for Decisions." Such topics as federal aid, school financing, programs for the gifted student and teacher credentials were expected to be covered during the convention.

AF Probing Cause Of Big Missile Blast

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—The Air Force today studied the shattered ruins of a Titan intercontinental ballistic missile, trying to learn why it exploded shortly after fueling.

Damage from the blast Saturday night was estimated at between four million and six million dollars, and Air Force spokesman said. The missile is destined for a major role as an ocean-spanning nuclear weapon.

The Air Force was unable to estimate how long the Titan program will be delayed by the explosion.

This was the first explosion of a Titan at this base, 170 miles northwest of Los Angeles. Similar explosions have occurred at Cape Canaveral, Fla.

The Air Force said the 97-foot long Titan was being lowered into its underground concrete silo with a roar that shook windows 25 miles away.

There were no injuries—crews were in an underground building several hundred yards away.

A Minnesota Bar Assn. survey revealed that lawyers in cities with 10,000 to 20,000 population make more money on the average than those in major cities.

Red China's President Endorses Soviet Policy

MOSCOW (AP) — Communist China's president today put a stamp of approval on the peaceful co-existence policy of the Soviet Union as it apparently has been ratified by the Communist summit conference.

In a goodby speech at Leningrad, before continuing his tour of the Soviet Union, President Liu Shao-chi made a confession of faith in Soviet leadership.

"The great Soviet Union," he said, "has always been and is today a powerful bastion of world peace. The initiative of the Soviet government and its proposals aimed at easing international disarmament and peaceful co-existence between countries with differing social systems have the sympathy and support of all peace-loving nations and peoples."

He said further that the recent summit conference, "resulted in a still further strengthening of the cohesion of the entire Communist movement and in a still further strengthening of the solidarity between the Communist party of China and the Communist party of the Soviet Union, between the People's Republic of China and the Soviet Union."

Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, published a long editorial a week ago in which it stated that peaceful co-existence as interpreted by Premier Nikita Khrushchev is the correct interpretation.

Coming as it did near the end of the conference, after more than two weeks of debate, it sounded as if the Soviets had laid down the law as they saw it.

The speech by Liu Shao-chi was his way of saying that the man who pays the piper calls the tune. In his speech, he made it abundantly clear by pointing out that China's industrial and technical advances were heavily dependent on Soviet production.

"You manufacture for our country a great amount of intricate equipment," he said, "make available to us a great amount of designing documentation, send us skilled specialists, train for our country a great number of technical specialists."

Green Bay Worries 49ers, Hickey Admits

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

"Our shotgun offense is solid," Red Hickey said today as he savored the sweetness of yesterday's 23-7 win over the Rams in Los Angeles that catapulted his 49ers into a triple tie with the Colts and Packers for the NFL Western Division lead.

"I just hope they keep thinking it's a rinky dink formation," said Hickey.

The rinky dink tag was put on the new double-wing spread formation by the Colts a week ago when the 49ers upset the defending champions with it.

"Regardless of what they put up in the way of defense there is going to be some small weakness—and that's all we want, a small percentage," said Hickey. "We think we have a pretty good audible supplement by our quarterback to take advantage of any edge."

Hickey declared it was "mighty nice" to have the help of the Detroit Lions and Green Bay Packers whose respective victories over the Colts and Chicago Bears yesterday made the triple tie possible.

"But now," he said, "we can't expect anyone else to do it for us. We must do it on our own."

Hickey referred, of course, to a possible 49er division championship which only three weeks ago looked hopeless before he introduced his shotgun offense.

The Packers come into Kezar Stadium this Saturday and the following week the Colts are on tap for the season finale.

"My only immediate worry is the Packers who beat us good early in the season," said Hickey.

With a four-man rush and over-shifted linebackers, the Rams contained 49er right-sided sweeps and threatened passes until midway in the second quarter. Then quarterback John Brodie began working audible signals that sent C. R. Roberts to the left on reverses. When the Rams shifted back to stop C.R., Brodie sent J. D. Smith reversing in the other direction and opened up with the same kind of right-side passes that beat the Colts.

The shotgun offense still needed additional support—and it got it from another sparkling contribution from the 49er defensive team, particularly Dave Baker who picked off four Ram passes. Baker's four interceptions set a one game 49er record by a 49er player. The previous theft record in one game was three, jointly held by Lowell Wagner and Dick Moegle.

In the last three games, Baker has a total of nine thefts which equals Wagner's record season high set a number of years ago.

Roberts, turned loose as a reject a year ago by both the New York Giants and Pittsburgh Steelers, scored the opening touchdown against the Rams with three minutes to go in the first half. He did it on a 10-yard reverse to the left side after Brodie moved his teammates 70 yards in eight plays, the biggest one being a 17-yard romp by Honest John himself to the Ram 10.

Tommy Davis, who later was to kick three field goals—two from inside the 10-yard line, the other from 27 yards—then added the PAT as he also did following a spectacular 65-yard TD pass from Brodie to Clyde Conner.

Baker, having stopped one Ram scoring bid in the opening quarter with his first interception, latched onto his second in midfield a minute after Roberts went over for for the first TD. Baker brought it back to the Ram 26 and with 11 seconds left in the half Davis booted his first goal from the nine.

EAGLES 'IN,' BUT . . .

Terrific Logjam In Western Race

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Football League championship game will match Philadelphia's streaking Eagles against Baltimore or Green Bay or San Francisco or Chicago or Detroit.

That was the situation today, with only two weeks left in the regular season. The Eagles clinched their first Eastern Conference title since 1949 by whipping the St. Louis Cardinals 20-6 yesterday for their ninth consecutive triumph.

The Baltimore Colts, seeking to gain a playoff berth for an unprecedented third consecutive time, were beaten by the Detroit Lions 20-15 when Earl Morral connected with Jim Gibbons for a 65-yard touchdown pass on the last play of the game.

The loss dropped Baltimore into a three-way tie for first place in the Western Division with Green Bay and San Francisco, all with 6-4 records, while Chicago (5-4-1) and Detroit (5-5) remained solidly in contention.

The Packers, getting a 23-point performance from Paul Hornung that gave him 152 for the campaign and broke Don Hutson's 18-year-old one-season scoring record, walloped the Bears 41-13. The 49ers moved into position by blasting Los Angeles 23-7 before a crowd of 77,254.

The Cleveland Browns grabbed the runner-up spot in the East with a 27-16 victory over Washington while winless Dallas tied the New York Giants 31-31.

Norm Van Brocklin, a 34-year-old veteran who was a rookie with Los Angeles when Philadelphia last captured the Eastern championship, passed for two touchdowns and Bobby Walston kicked a pair of field goals for the Eagles (9-1). Van Brocklin hit Pete Retzlaff with a 22-yarder, then pitched a 25-yarder to Tom McDonald after the Cards (5-5-1) had scored on Mal Mammack's two-yard plunge in the third period.

LIONS STRIKE

The Colts scored what appeared to be the winning touchdown with 14 seconds left when Johnny Unitas, who had previously unleashed an 80-yard TD heave to Lenny Moore, fired a 34-yard scoring aerial to the fleet halfback for a 15-13 lead. But Morrall, on the bench for the first three periods, completed a 17-point fourth-quarter surge for Detroit by whipping the clincher to Gibbons following the kickoff.

Hornung carried the Packers to their overwhelming triumph against the Bears by scoring twice on a 10-yard run and a 17-yard pass from Bart Starr, kicking two field goals and five conversions while eclipsing the NFL scoring record set by Green Bay's Hutson in 1942. Chicago's touchdowns came on a 10-yard Ed Brown to Willie Dewveall pass and a 20-yard toss from Zeke Bratkowski to Jim Dooley.

49ERS CHEERED BY HOME FANS

When the San Francisco 49ers left home three weeks ago, only their relatives saw them off at the airport.

They had just been beaten 24-0 by the Detroit Lions and had a 3-4 record.

More than 1,000 cheering fans greeted the 49ers last night when they arrived home after beating the Rams 23-7 in Los Angeles.

With three straight victories on the road trip, the 49ers now have a 6-4 record and share the National Football League's Western Division lead with Baltimore and Green Bay.

McKeevers Go Separate Ways After Wedding

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The McKeever twins, perennial disciples of football togetherness, were split up today for the first time in several years—on their honeymoons.

Marlin went north to a beach resort," said a friend "and Mike went south to a beach."

As late as last Saturday, All-America end Marlin and All-Coast guard Mike were still a pair. They were married in a double ceremony at St. Vincent's Catholic church near the USC campus.

Raiders' Housewarming Ruined By L.A., 41-17

Candlestick Park could prove popular as a football stadium. The Oakland Raiders drew more fans there yesterday—12,061—than they have in any game at Kezar Stadium.

Although the field was soft from rain during the week, the game proved that football can be played in Candlestick, home of the San Francisco Giants.

But Los Angeles ruined the housewarming as far as Bay Area fans were concerned. The Chargers came from behind to score 27 points in the final period and grab a 41-17 victory.

That left the Chargers guaranteed of no worse than a tie for the Western Division title in the new American Football League. With two games to go, they have an 8-4 record with second place Dallas at 6-6. Yesterday's loss put Oakland out of the running with 5-7.

Quarterback Jack Kemp, the big gun for Los Angeles, passed for three touchdowns and ran for two more. The only one in which he didn't figure was the finale—a 48-yard run by defensive lineman Rommie Loudd after picking up a Babe Parilli fumble.

Kemp connected on a 49-yard pass play to halfback Paul Lowe for the go-ahead touchdown in the final period and then scored on quarterback keepers of six and nine yards.

In the 14-14 first half, he threw a three-yard scoring pass to Royce Womble and one for 21 yards to Don Norton.

Los Angeles can sew up the divisional title Saturday when they host the Denver Broncos. Oakland is at Candlestick again Sunday to face the New York Titans.

Oakland's touchdowns came on a two-yard plunge by fullback Billy Lott and an 11-yard pass from quarterback Tom Flores to end Charlie Hardy.

Larry Barnes, who missed three times earlier, put the Raiders into a 17-14 third quarter lead with a 25-yard field goal.

The switch to Candlestick came because of scheduling problems for the Raiders' final two games. It could give the AFL club a needed box office boost since Oakland fans find it more accessible than Kezar.

Bakersfield Romps To 50-28 Bowl Victory

BAKERSFIELD (AP)—Quarterback Dean Newby raced the opening kickoff back 84 yards for a touchdown Saturday to pave the way for a 50-28 football triumph by Bakersfield over Cerritos College in the annual Potato Bowl. A crowd of 18,430 saw the Renegades roll up 34 points in the first half.

49ers Play Cinderella Role In Wackiest Of All Football Scripts

CONNOLLY

The fella who writes the scripts for the Western Conference of the National Professional Football League would get laughed out of Hollywood if he tried to sell 'em this year's story.

Two weeks to go in the regular schedule, and FIVE teams have a crack at the title!

Don't look now, but the San Francisco Cinderellas are tied for first place with the mighty Baltimore Colts and Green Bay Packers, with the Chicago Bears and the upstart Detroit Lions breathing on their necks.

The first guy who says "I told you so" is gonna get another hole in his head. I still don't believe it and neither do you!

Yesterday's 23 to 7 win over the Los Angeles Rams was mighty satisfying in many respects, but you came away feeling that the 49ers didn't beat much of a team. Are the Rams that bad or are the 49ers that good?

ON THE credit side, it is a pleasure to see the 49ers with an offense that can go outside, inside and up the middle again. Call it the single wing, double wing or "shotgun formation," the 49er backs are finally getting the blocking they have needed these many months.

On the debit side is the uneasy feeling that the Colts and the Packers may come up with the key that locks up the new 49er offense. The Rams messed it up pretty good on occasion. The answer lies in the head of quarterback John Brodie.

If Brodie can keep the defense off balance with clever and imaginative play calling he can keep this gang moving against any club in the league. That and the other indispensable: Luck. Good luck that is.

THE PAST is past and all eyes turn to next Saturday's headon-er with the Green Bay Packers at Kezar. The team that wins that one has one foot in the door.

In the first meeting of these teams at Milwaukee on Oct. —, the 49ers really smelled out the joint, losing 41 to 14. They can't be that bad again, and will be out to redeem themselves for that poor showing. Remember, too, that this is a different team the Packers will be facing.

You can bet the Packers coaches, Vince Lombardi, Phil Bengtson and company are pouring over 49er films of the past three weeks looking for the answer. Coach Red Hickey rang in some new patterns against the Rams and I hope he has a few more new tricks saved for the Packers. Surprise is the keynote.

ACTUALLY the Colts have the best bulge in the schedule as they play the Rams this Sunday after they know the outcome of the Kezar game on Saturday, and then have another week to plan for the season ender against the 49ers.

On the other hand, the Colts have always had trouble in the L.A. Coliseum and the season has already proved that anything, but anything can happen. And usually does.

If somebody can stop the clock before midnight, this Cinderella team of ours may put the wackiest ending to the wackiest season yet.

BIG TRADE

Kuenn Will Be In Lineup, But Where?

Now that the San Francisco Giants have sharp hitting Harvey Kuenn, the big question is where will he play?

The Giants got Kuenn from the Cleveland Indians Saturday in a trade for southpaw John Antonelli and outfielder Willie Kirkland.

Kuenn, 30, is a versatile, right handed hitter. He came up to the major leagues as a shortstop with Detroit, but in recent years he's also played third, first and the outfield.

The decision rests on Jim Davenport's future. If Davenport, one of the finest fielding third basemen in baseball, comes back strong after his ulcer and leg ailments, he'll keep his job. If Davenport can't regain his old form, Kuenn will be the third baseman.

But Al Dark, the Giants' new manager, will play Kuenn somewhere in the lineup. The rugged Kuenn led the American League in hitting on 1959 with a .358 mark and rapped .308 last year.

MIXED EMOTIONS

The departure of Antonelli and Kirkland brought mixed emotions from San Franciscans.

Antonelli, a talented pitcher, was hooted by the fans after he declared he didn't like pitching in windy Candlestick Park. He did some good work last season as a spot relief pitcher, but wound up with a 6-7 record, sub-par for him. The Indians said Antonelli will get a chance as a starting pitcher again.

Kirkland, a slugger who will be 27 when the 1961 season opens, had a lot of fans here but proved a disappointment in the second half of last season. After a great start, he slumped badly for more than a month and wound up with a .252 average. But he clouted 21 home runs. The Indians said they hoped to make a center fielder out of him.

The Giants are still in the market for a catcher and another starting pitcher — but they're running short of trading bait.

N.Y.U. will have eight lettermen playing basketball this season. the team compiled a 22-5 record last season.

RAY MAY RETIRE

Fullmer Vs. Moore Slated Next April

LOS ANGELES (AP)—NBA middleweight champion Gene Fullmer set his sights on 'Ol Archie Moore's version of the light-heavyweight title after turning back Sugar Ray Robinson's gallant bid to recapture the 160-pound crown for the sixth time. Robinson, described by his manager as heartbroken over Saturday night's draw with Fullmer, was considering hanging up his gloves.

"I've always wanted to try Moore on for size and now it looks as if I'll get my chance," said Fullmer.

Moore said, "After all, Fullmer should like to fight me. He'd be getting a shot at a REALLY old man."

Matchmaker George Parnassus, who staged the Fullmer-Robinson rubber match, left today for San Diego to finalize the deal with Moore, who insists on the champion's share of the gate.

Parnassus said he hopes to stage the Fullmer-Moore battle, if plans work out, in April outdoors in Memorial Coliseum.

For their savage war Saturday, Fullmer took 40 per cent and Robinson 20 per cent of the gross gate of $122,584 plus $100,000 for television.

BULL RUSHES

Fullmer, relying on bull-like rushes to wear down Robinson, guarded his jaw with his gloves as if he had a jowlful of jewels. Robinson tried to steal the jewels with some nifty combinations. Several times he shook the charging champion and in the savage 11th round he popped Fullmer with two right hand leads that would have knocked the head off a marble statue. But Fullmer merely blinked and flurried back.

The referee scored the fight for Robinson (11 to 4) under California's scoring system that gives the winner of a round one or more points up to five and the loser none. However, one judge voted for Fullmer 9-5 and the other judge called it a draw, 8-8.

yards in the 49er end zone to the midfield stripe. Ed Meador, the Rams' best defensive man, stopped Woodson from going all the way. But Abe's effort still was good for another field goal by Davis, this one the 27-yarder.

Then came the Brodie-Conner beauty, the sure-handed 49er end making the catch on the Ram 34 and taking it in from there despite a desperate shoestring tackle try by Vernon Valdez on the five yard line.

Baker made his third interception as the fourth quarter opened. It stopped a Ram drive on the 49er 30 and set the stage for Smith and Roberts to do their best reversing of the afternoon. In seven plays they took the ball to the Ram one, but that was as far as they could get so Davis booted his third field goal from the seven.

Then the Rams, with the game out of reach, went 80 yards in 12 plays of rtheir only tally which Frank Ryan, Bill Wade's quarterback substitute, bootlegged from the two.

R. C. Owens, the Alley-Oop kid whose shoulder was injured in the Colt game, made only two brief appearances before the L. A. Coliseum crowd of 77,254.

Owens' thrilling Alley-Oop leaps were not needed against the Rams who now have lost four straight games to the 49ers,—two this year, two last season—making Hickey, once a Ram coach, 4-0 against his old teammates.

SIXTO FAVORED OVER BRITON IN S.F. FIGHT

California State Light-heavyweight Champion Sixto Rodriguez of San Anselmo pits his youth against experience tonight when he tangles with Britain's Johnny Sullivan in a 10-round feature at San Francisco's Kezar Pavilion. Sixto is the 8 to 5 favorite.

Sullivan, one-time holder of the British middleweight title, has battled some of the best. He made three television appearances, and fought such stars as Joey Giambra, Rocky Castellani, Yolande Pompey, Willie Troy and Eduardo Lausse.

Rodriguez, a growing boy managed by Karl Ashley of San Anselmo, hopes to make a bid for the world light heavyweight crown by mid-1961. He has scored six knockouts in running up a record of 24 wins, four defeats and two draws.

Sullivan, on the come-back trail, has a record of 68-22-3, including 36 knockouts. He has shown a good body attack during workouts here.

First bout on the card starts at 8:30 o'clock.

Cal Driver Sets Record At Nassau

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—Dan Gurney of Riverside, Calif., added to his reputation in world road racing circles with a record-smashing victory in the Nassau Trophy sports car race.

The young daredevil gunned his Lotus to the front on the 40th lap yesterday and finished a minute ahead at an average speed of 89.544 miles an hour.

Pedro Rodriguez of Mexico finished second and third was Gaston Andrey of Switzerland in a Maserati. Fourth came Joakim Bonnier of Sweden in a Porsche.

The race was thrown wide open on the first lap when Stirling Moss of England, the favorite, had to drop out. The hood flew off Moss' green Lotus Monte Carlo.

Marin Cagers Find Victory Quite Elusive

Marin County's Athletic League's schoolboy basketballers are having a mighty tough time finding a victory.

Through the first nine games of the young season only San Rafael and Tamalpais have found the victory column—the former's in an overtime game at Sonoma and the latter's against an alumni team.

The Marin schools' losing record picked up two more victims Saturday as the Tam Indians were soundly thrashed by Sacred Heart 48-25 in San Francisco and the Novato Hornets suffered a 43-25 licking from Healdsburg High, their second setback.

Other schools' records show Redwood loser of two and Drake and Marin Catholic loser of one each for the not-so-grand total of seven losses and two wins.

Fortunately the league's tournament starts tomorrow (see above) so at least two Marin teams HAVE to get a victory.

Someone must have put a lid on the basket for Tam shooters couldn't find the range. They hit only 8 of 28 field goal attempts and only 9 of 27 foul shots.

This cold shooting saw them fall behind a 2-14 deficit in the first quarter, 24-10 at half and 38-14 at the end of the third stanza. Warren Domino's eight points were high for Tam, whose B team also lost, 29-14.

Tam plays at Jefferson in Daly City Wednesday afternoon.

Bill Tuel clicked for 10 points for Novato, but the Hornets were no match for Healdsburg of the North Bay League.

They were married in St. Paul's Methodist Church. Cepeda is 23.

IMAGINATIVE table arrangements for the holidays will be among the articles available at the Christmas Greens sale. Mrs. Terry E. Van Gorder, a member of the Decorations Guild, was photographed with this arrangement of holly combined with brightly colored Christmas ornaments, on a table set with china, silver, and crystal. Decorations Guild Readies For Sale

Fingers are quickening in the making of Christmas wreaths, eucalyptus Yule logs and gay holiday decorations for the annual Greens Sale to be held Dec. 16, 17, 18 at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross.

Sponsored by the Decorations Guild, the sale was started 13 years ago to raise money for the newly-formed Art and Garden Center. Its purpose is the same today, with the added aim of stimulating the creation of objects of beauty.

A record-breaking advance sale has and is taking place, according to Mrs. Marion F. Ludlow of San Rafael, chairman of this year's sale.

Full of drive, energy and ideas, members of the Guild have been working every day for months preparing the beautiful items.

A public preview party, with music and free hot punch, open to the public is scheduled for Friday, Dec. 16 from 6 to 10 p.m. Hours on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 17 and 18 will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

New Trims Make Holiday Right, Bright

NEW YORK (UPI)—The bees won't tell you, but what's new in honeycomb this Christmas is really honey for the housewife preparing for a party.

Honeycomb is the name for the paper process used in making those old red Christmas bells, which nearly everyone remembers from childhood. Its outstanding characteristic—elasticity — allows it to be pulled back and forth much in the manner of an accordion—and makes it ideal for party decorations.

Whether you're decorating for friends dropping in for eggnog, or a bridge club meeting shortly before Christmas, a handy helper for the Yuletide is a snowman party ensemble complete with invitations, a table centerpiece, plates, cups, place mats, napkins and similar items.

A snowy-white honeycomb snowman with red trimmings sets the mood for the ensemble and the design is carried out in the matching items. Jolly old St. Nicholas also is designed as a centerpiece, from red honeycomb, while a holly designs theme is carried out in an ensemble of snack plates, napkins, table cover, dinner plates, paper cups, aprons and even guest towels.

Honeycomb's versatility makes it easy to style in a variety of designs, many of them circular. There is, for example, a pair of gold-haloed angels styled from white honeycomb that lends a high-fashion air to festive Yule home decorations. Also white is a semi-circular Christmas tree adorned with golden doves and sequins.

The new decorations serve to give an added touch of festive glow to the table, to the door, or to the mantel.

'Country Christmas' Theme For Fashions With A View

"Make Mine a Country Christmas
Red and Green and Gay
Merry and bright from morn til night
An old fashioned holiday"

This gay greeting will set the mood for Thursday's delightful holiday luncheon amid the elegance and intimacy of the famed Ondine in Sausalito.

Fashions With a View, the tremendously popular new weekly series, will eye the town and country looks of Barbara McClure's select Belvedere shop with carols and candles to add to the holiday mood.

At the season of peace on earth and good will, the special "quests-with-a-viewpoint" will further spark this feeling saying "Make ours a Country Christmas"—but not saying which country.

Welcomed will be Mr. and Mrs. George Wheelwright of Marin dedicated supporters of the Experiment in International Living which promotes the cause of good will to men not just at Christmas time but all year round.

In 1961 the Experiment will send more than 1200 young Americans abroad to live as a member of a family in some 31 countries. And during the year about the same number of Experimenters from abroad will visit the United States.

Even the Thursday models will echo the sentiments of the Experiment as they say here's to a country Christmas. Guests will meet Shirley McClure, who lived with an Austrian family this past summer as an Experimenter and Mrs. William Byron Wallace complete with Pinata reminding her of the Mexican Christmas spent south of the border working for the Experiment.

Joining them will be Mrs. William Brantman and Mrs. Milton Romey whose world travels have taken them to many of the 31 Experiment countries.

Colorful fashions to "go over the river and through the wood" or to a gala Christmas party will be in the festive showing including suggestions for Santa to solve gift giving problems, with Christmas accents from Experiment countries to add an international flavor.

Reservations to enjoy Fashions With a View may be made by calling the Ondine in Sausalito.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. Members are asked to bring a saran-wrapped gift for donation to the Salvage Shop.

Lady Of Loretto Guild Will Meet

Our Lady of Loretto Mothers' Guild will meet tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the Parish Hall in Novato.

Refreshments will be served by fifth grade mothers.

Proper Etiquette On Christmas Presents

By VIVIAN BROWN

"Should I give him a gift if he gives one to me?"

"If my friend gives me a more expensive gift than I give her, what should I do?"

These are troublesome questions for young people at Christmas. Here are some guideposts.

Girls are never obligated to give a gift to a boy, but she can present him a small gift if she desires.

Boys should not give a girl anything so costly that it embarrasses her.

Solution to the girl-to-girl gift problem is to give something you enjoy giving and can afford. If in turn you receive something more expensive than you gave, don't worry about it.

Many girls agree to exchange homemade gifts only. Scarves and socks are ideal items to knit for girls or boys. Long scarves in school colors are popular any year.

Many girls are giving school friends who expect early engagements gifts for their hope chests. Tiny homemade tea towels, dish towels, demitasse cup and saucer sets can be just right for those future honeymoon cottages.

Is there anyone who doesn't know that boys like to eat? Three, asked whether they would like a fruit cake for the holidays, chorused, "Who wouldn't?" Cookies, jams and jellies are particular hits with boys away at school.

A good quality handkerchief embroidered with the boy's name is another easy-to-make, inexpensive gift. Write his first name in pencil and embroider over it with plain white thread. Wash and iron before gift wrapping.

Odd-ball gifts, those that show more imagination than money, are popular. Decorate a mousetrap with sequins so that it can be used as a witty paper clip. Decorate a flyswatter, personalize it with the name in yarn, so that it can be used as a wall decoration. These gifts can be made for a few cents.

The new wobble board that makes a sound like water going down a drain is an off-beat idea for the Christmas sack. The 2x3 foot curved board makes its gloop-gloop sounds when you wobble it with your feet.

If best friends exchange presents, personality pins are fun. These are animal and insect motifs you can match up . . . give a butterfly to a social butterfly, a kitten to the cute-kitten type, a poodle for the sophisticated, a wise owl for the egghead, etc.

Good standbys are books. A new "Teen-age Treasury of Good Humor," edited by Seon Manley, contains a wonderful collection of stories by Don Marquis, James Thurber, Clarence Day, Will Cuppy and others.

Guild's Hostesses Announced For House Tour On Dec. 9

Hostesses for the five homes on the San Anselmo First Presbyterian Church Women's Guild house tour on Dec. 9 from 2 to 5 p.m. have been announced.

Various holiday themes will be carried out in the homes selected at different locations in the county. The general chairman is Mrs. Bradford Muse with Mrs. William Davis the tea chairman.

The glow of red candles and ribbon mixed with holly and Christmas greenery will enhance the charm of the English Country House, at the hillside residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Reid in San Anselmo. To assist Mrs. Reid in hostess duties will be Mrs. Charles Alfsnes, Mrs. Warren Landon and Mrs. Jack McVey.

A most interesting and informative theme will be carried out at the home of the associate pastor, Rev. and Mrs. Weaver Hess, namely that of an International Christmas. This is also a hillside home in San Anselmo at 281 Crescent Road. Each room will be decorated according to a chosen country, among them being a Mexican kitchen, a Japanese bedroom and a Swedish bedroom. Mrs. John Holm, Mrs. James Cole and Mrs. Clifford Coy will be hostesses.

The spacious home in Ross of Mrs. Hannah Mordecai will be the setting of a real American Christmas. To assist Mrs. Mordecai will be Mrs. Ruby Krelle, Mrs. Louis Cummings and Mrs. Vaughn Terry.

On the Belvedere lagoon, the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ongaro will have all the charm and fantasy of a very modern Christmas. Assisting with hostess duties will be Mrs. Frank Boyer, Mrs. H. D. Seiletstad, Mrs. M. S. Imes, Mrs. J. Fulton Morgan, Mrs. C. Hillers and Mrs. John Ongaro Jr.

A traditional Christmas tea will be served all afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gregory on Corte Soreno in Greenbrae. Those pouring tea will be Mrs. H. F. Girvin, Mrs. Hans E. Fischel, Mrs. William MacKay, Mrs. Howard Dunlap, Mrs. Robert C. Clapham, and Mrs. Allan J. Meadowcroft.

Transportation will be provided under the chairmanship of Mrs. Carl Benson. A special station wagon service will shuttle from the church to the two San Anselmo hillside homes. A baby sitter will also be on hand at the church.

The tickets are available through circle leaders, the church office and from Mrs. Hans Fischel, the ticket chairman. The public is invited to join in the holiday tour.

Christmas Play

A Christmas play will be presented by students of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades at the next meeting of the membership of the Bel Aire Unit of the Reed District Parent-Teacher Club. The unit will meet on Wednesday, Dec. 14 at 7:45 p.m. in the school's multipurpose room according to Mrs. Robert Hamilton, president.

The following day a program of Christmas Carols will be presented by the primary grades at 1:15 at the school.

Novato School Children To Aid In 'World Clothing Week' Drive

Beginning today Novato school children will be bringing bundles of used clothing to school to aid needy children and adults in the United States and overseas.

The clothing drive, called "World Clothing Week," will continue through Dec. 11, and is part of a nationwide campaign sponsored by World Clothing Fund, Inc., a non-sectarian charitable organization which assists orphans and other needy children and adults.

Mrs. Charles Ridgeway, president of the North Marin P-TA Council, who have undertaken to sponsor this project, has this to say in announcing the drive: "We expect 'World Clothing Week' to be one of the finest service projects ever conducted in our schools."

All types of used clothing are needed: clothing for babies, children, teen-agers and adults, as well as shoes, caps, mittens and bedding. Clothing contributions should be deposited in the boxes and barrels which will be placed in all the Novato schools for that purpose.

Under the direction of co-chairmen Mrs. George Pelmear and Mrs. Philip Rosenberg, members from each P-TA unit, as well as the high school will help to distribute posters and literature, and pickup clothing and pack it in bags for shipping to World Clothing Fund, Inc. St. Louis' warehouse.

Working on this undertaking will be: Mrs. Louis Graxiola, Mrs. Walter Haught, and Mrs. Gene Williams (Lu Sutton); Mrs. R. L. Walsh, Mrs. R. J. Otis, Mrs. LeRoy Mason, Mrs. Charles Coniglio, and Mrs. W. J. Groves (Hill); Mrs. Robert Money and Mrs. Howard Schoof (Marion); Mrs. Charles Royce and Mrs. George Vierra (Novato High); Mrs. H. J. Marsh, Mrs. S. S. Thomas and Mrs. Stephan Shoemaker (Olive); Mrs. Jack Weatherholtz, Mrs. Fritz Lieberg, Mrs. Blaine Murray and Mrs. James Studley (West Novato).

Heard in the program of solos and duets were songs by Schubert, Lehmann, Leoncavallo, Strauss and operatic arias by Bizet, Charpentier and Massenet.

Preceding the recital, a discussion of theory in the music lesson was led by Mrs. Sybil Schneller of Mill Valley.

Also in attendance were: Mrs. Charles Meacham, president, Mrs. Dennis Cormack, Mrs. Lucretia Hansen, Mrs. O. F. Liebeskind, Miss Barbara McKenzie, Mme. Bella Resek, David KortKamp, Charles Meacham and Eugene Ramey.

A Christmas Letter To The Grandparents

Dear Grandma and Grandpa,

I have hesitated about writing this letter, but the holiday season is upon us and with my "Things to do" list growing endlessly, I feel an immediate need.

Remember the complicated, charming, imported (and I'm sure very expensive) soldier set you sent little Larry last Christmas? Well, believe me, we did love it. In fact, I remember the Daddies at our Christmas party sitting and watching those tiny soldiers parading while the music box played a march most of the afternoon.

I wish they hadn't tried to see what made it work, because I'm sure that's how the key got lost, but luckily a friend who's good at languages was there. He wrote the manufacturer and by April we could play it again.

This time I tied the key to it, but I didn't foresee the children would try to see what makes it work too or that the soldiers came part so easily or I would have had a lock made for it.

What I'm driving at is that although it has been a lovely decoration in Larry's room, alongside the armadillo who blows bubbles, he really hasn't played with them more than two or three times.

Then this afternoon while I was making the hors d' oeuvres for our dinner party he decided to watch the soldiers. I spent 45 minutes searching for the minute peg that makes the thing go, and then 10 minutes later I was taken aback by a wooden soldier standing directly in the center of a cheese puff.

I followed a trail of soldiers, pegs and tiny gears into the living room—Larry was outside by then—and I spent a good deal of time picking up those little pieces and cooling off.

Do you suppose you could send this year what I call a "creative toy?" I mean something made for more than looking at and that you can do all kinds of things with, like building blocks, a felt board, or some climbing equipment. The Johnsons have a climber the kids play on for hours, pretending it's a space ship or tropical jungle.

For my own peace of mind and tender back, I draw the line at paints that won't wash off and building sets that have hundreds of teeny pieces.

And one last plea—this year don't say to the saleslady, "He's only four, but he's got the mind of a seven-year-old. We know you're proud of your grandson, but he does love toys made for four-year-olds.

You know the very nicest gift we could have from you would be a visit at Christmas time. Try to plan a trip soon.

Your loving but tired daughter,

Emile
(Mrs. Jerome Jacobson)

Kappa Alums Yule Party Set Dec. 10

Plans are under way for a gala holiday cocktail party to be given by the Marin Kappa alumnae for their husbands on Dec. 10 at the William Layton home in Kent Woodlands.

Highlighting the Christmas decor will be a tree cut by the Laytons on their Tahoe property and brought back for the holiday season. Christmas bells will sparkle on the buffet table and throughout the house, along with novel decorations created by Mrs. Layton including a miniature aluminum honeycomb tree, whose interior candle reflects on the myriad tiny ornaments.

Helping pass cocktails and canapes from 5 to 8 p.m. will be co-hostess Mrs. Paul Hartman Jr., assisted by Mrs. William L. Hildeburn Jr. New Kappas in the area are urged particularly to attend this annual get-acquainted party. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Hartman.

Cranberry Syrup

Cranberry table syrup is making its debut in Massachusetts. The states 4-H boys and girls will sell the syrup in their spare time for the State 4-H Club Foundation. If the new product succeeds in Massachusetts, consumers can expect it elsewhere in the future. The syrup is not too tart and not too sweet. It's for pancakes or waffles, grapefruit or other fruit, ice cream, cake or other dessert.

Stanley Brooks, Boys' Choir To Give Yule Program

Mrs. Earle Marsh, program chairman, has planned for the Outdoor Art Club's home day Christmas program Thursday a reading of selections from Dickens "Christmas Carol" to be given by Stanley Brooks.

These will be followed by a musical program to be presented by the Boys' Choir of the Mill Valley Episcopal Church of Our Saviour under the direction of Barry Mineah.

With the young choristers in mind, yuletide decor will include a Christmas cookie tree of artfully decorated and freshly baked cookies. On this project Mrs. William Perdue, decorations chairman, is being assisted by Mesdames R. L. Perry and J. L. Richardson.

Adding to the festive appearance of the clubhouse will be a display of paintings by pupils of Helen Gapen Oehler, whose popular outdoor art classes are sponsored by the club. Though many of her pupils have been painting for some years, others have had lessons for only a month or so.

Among the students who plan to exhibit are Mesdames Earle Bartholomew, William Fleming, Gordon Harrington, John C. Burnham, W. G. MacDonald, Henry Soderling, Nils Bjerke, Richard Tomczak, H. S. Hitchcock, Willard Pennell, John F. McCarthy, Charles Beck and Leland Spragle.

Community services chairman Mrs. Gerhard Becker reminds members to bring to the meeting gifts for two longtime club Christmas projects. Suggested are knitted shawls, stoles, candy, tobacco for the men and women at the Lucas Valley County Farm and games, books, clothing and sweets for the children at Sunny Hills.

The program is scheduled to start at 2 p.m. will be followed by tea.

Mary Jane Stickney Weds K. M. Jones

Mary Jane Stickney of Mill Valley became the bride of Kenneth M. Jones Friday evening, Dec. 2, in a 7 o'clock ceremony at the Corte Madera home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Jones.

Only members of the immediate families were present when the bride was given in marriage by her father, E. W. Letson of Mill Valley, in the double ring rites performed by Rev. George O. Loftness of the Lutheran Church in Corte Madera.

An arrangement of white flowers was placed on either side of the fireplace in front of which the couple stood for the ceremony.

The maid of honor, her only sister, Ann Letson, wore a purple wool suit. Mrs. Letson was attired in a brown suit and the mother of the bridegroom chose a blue print dress for the occasion. Each had a corsage of white roses.

Best man was Ronald Bradley of San Rafael.

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served. After a brief honeymoon at Carmel the newlyweds will live at 598 Corona Avenue, Petaluma.

The new Mrs. Jones was graduated from Tamalpais High School and was employed at the First National Bank in Kentfield until she resigned to get married.

Her husband is a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School and is employed as an assistant operations officer with the Bank of America in Sonoma County. He has one brother, Joseph Jones, who is serving with the U.S. Air Force in North Dakota, and a sister, Joyce Thomas of Corte Madera.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, Dec. 5, the 340th day of the year with 26 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Mercury and Mars.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1776, Phi Beta Kappa . . . the first scholastic fraternity in America . . . was organized.

In 1782, Martin Van Buren was born. He was the first U.S. president to be born a citizen.

In 1848, President Polk confirmed the discovery of gold in California, and the gold rush of '48 and '49 became inevitable.

In 1933, prohibition came to an end with Utah's ratification of the 21st amendment. This repealed the 18th, or prohibition, amendment.

In 1934, 66 persons were executed in Russia as a follow-up to "purge" trials. All of them were charged with "plotting" against the Stalin regime.

Thought for today: The American poet . . . Ralph Waldo Emerson said . . . "Nothing can bring you peace but yourself."

Basic Goal Of Gate Bridge Should Be Toll-Free Span

When directors of the Golden Gate Bridge District hired a $12,000-a-year public relations man, they certainly turned the publicity spot-light on themselves.

The situation has been the subject of a good many highly critical columns and editorials in Bay Area newspapers. Critics of the bridge have had a field day.

And a lot of plain ordinary people probably winced when they realized that it takes 48,000 people paying 25-cent tolls to pay the publicity man's $12,000 salary.

But it seems to us that there is a larger question not yet dealt with conclusively: What ought to be the guiding aims of the Golden Gate Bridge board?

A San Francisco paper the other day mentioned economy, opposition to petty empire building and dedication to the proposition that the bridge should be turned over to state management at the earliest possible date.

In our opinion those suggestions, good as they may be, do not strike at the heart of the matter.

It seems plain to us that the ultimate goal should be a debt-free toll-free bridge.

This means that when the debt is finally retired and tolls can be eliminated, the bridge must pass to state highway (or other public agency) for maintenance out of gas tax revenues.

We never held much with the idea that the tolls might be used, after debt retirement, for harbor development or airport development.

If the tolls from one debt-free Marin bridge are needed to aid in financing a necessary second crossing, that might be different.

In any event, we will stand on the idea that the ultimate goal ought to be a debt-free, toll-free Golden Gate Bridge.

Meanwhile, the bridge must be operated as efficiently as possible and maintained adequately with possible improvement where necessity dictates.

Since the people of the bridge district have nothing directly to say in the matter of choosing bridge directors, to whom do we look for leadership in establishing and persuing these goals?

In Marin County we must look to our Board of Supervisors who appoint the bridge directors and, when selecting men for appointment, have the opportunity of choosing those who are dedicated to achieving these ideal goals.

It ought to be obvious to all that the supervisors haven't done their jobs very effectively in this respect up to now. Let us hope this will be remedied in the days to come.

Buy, Use TB Seals

There were 45 newly reported cases of tuberculosis in Marin County last year, says the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Association.

As of now, there are 169 known TB cases in the county, 34 of them in Ross Terrace Hospital.

So you can see that although great strides have been made in the control of this disease, it still has a long ways to go before it is licked.

The Marin association, now 39 years old, operates the free chest X-ray service at Marin General Hospital, conducts school health programs, aids medical research projects, provides services to TB patients in the county, backs healthful legislation, and takes part in education services for doctors and nurses.

These services and others it performs are worthy of your support.

You can help by purchasing and using TB seals on all of your Christmas mailing. You probably already have received your seals in the mail. If you haven't mailed the envelope back with your contribution in it, do it now, will you?

DO MORE, TALK LESS

Hiring men over 65 years of age is something practically everyone recommends. But too few take the trouble to put into practice what they preach.

One group doing something about it, however, is the New Jersey Highway Authority. It has started to employ men over 65 as part-time toll collectors on the Garden State Parkway.

The older workers are engaged to help during rush-hour traffic. They are guaranteed a minimum number of hours' work each month.

Make it a point to reduce noble principles to practical application. Avoid the all too common tendency to be long on talk and short on action regarding the problems that confront your community, country or world.

The smallest Christlike effort to get a job for an unemployed person, young or old; to raise the standards of government and education; or to encourage good literature is far more effective than any amount of fault-finding. Put your ideals to work.

"My mother and my brethren are they who hear the word of God, and act upon it." (Luke 8:21)

Help me, O Lord, to do more and to talk less.

Actress Grateful For Long Illness It Cured Her Of Success Fetish

Actress Joan Fontaine is. She thinks a long illness is the best way to cure anyone with a success fetish—and teach him true values.

"My illness led me to grow up at last," she said. "It was my diploma to life."

Looking as lovely as a primrose, the blonde film star radiated health and a hazel-eyed vitality as we lunched in the old-fashioned elegance of the Edwardian Room at the Plaza.

"I hate to talk like a pollyana about a thing that can be as devastating as illness," said Joan, "but it's the way I really feel.

"Everyone should be so lucky—to have a pause in your life for an appraisal, and to see clearly for the first time what life really has to offer.

"It's a great, great thing. All the minor worries people fret about, the problems that haunt most of us—success, financial security, personal popularity, growing older — all become so terribly unimportant.

"I wish my illness could have happened to me when I was 12. I wasted so much of my life.

"I accomplished a lot, but I didn't enjoy it."

Miss Fontaine has made 45 films, and thrice was nominated for academy awards. She won an Oscar in 1941 for her performance in "Suspicion." She had three husbands.

But she feels now that, like many stars, she let herself be trapped on the treadmill of Hollywood success, a treadmill of many lost values.

SHE ACTS as hostess on the CBS-TV monthly show, "The Breck Family Classics," and is looking for a Broadway role.

"I am in a fortunate position," she remarked. "I have saved my pennies. I am not afraid of the bill collector, or the wolf at the door.

"IT IS LOVELY to accomplish something in life. It is a delicious feeling.

"But the trick is not to keep wanting more. If you do, you are never satisfied."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Foundation Of Business Is Profit

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

It appears that an indictment of the philosophy of profit, rather than concern with any possibility of price fixing, is the real purpose of the drug investigations held in San Francisco. This aim also characterizes the activities of the Kefauver committee, and of the press in its oblique reporting of those events.

The key accusation to which pharmacy in general is subjected is that it makes a profit.

Because of the great popularity of socialistic philosophy in this country, frequently nurtured by the press, as witnessed in your kudos at the appointment of California's ridiculous "consumer counsel" last year, it is supposed to be embarrassing to admit that one seeks a profit in any endeavor. It is fashionable to pretend there is no such motive in business any more. This is particularly true of one associated with health or medicine, but it has been known to have been applied even to such tender areas as milline rates.

As a nation, we have embraced the distorted reasoning that because some profits have been known to result from immoral activity, all profits are evil.

This morbid thinking has affected, if not infected, even the business community to the extent that it is one of the most serious hazards to economic health. Management's own reluctance to admit a desire or need for profit is as serious an obstacle in the road to business success as are high taxes, wages, government restrictions and a host of other more familiar laments.

At best, our attitude about profits is apologetic. It is distressing and pitiful to find businessmen taking a defensive attitude about their profits.

The very foundation of a business is its profit-seeking goal. Eliminate that, and you will remove the basic fabric of our American free enterprise system. Shouldn't a businessman constantly remind himself that he must make a profit, and isn't he foolish to make any effort to hide this goal from a customer?

Profits are just as essential to the consumer's interests as they are to business. Business should demonstrate open pride, not embarrassment, that it is a profit-seeking, self-supporting, tax-paying, free enterprise.

There is no question that pharmacists, physicians, and many others, have serious obligations to society and humanity, but the notion that these conflict in any way with their efforts to achieve economic success is ridiculous.

Certainly, collusive price fixing, restraint of trade and customer gouging are undesirable practices and must be controlled, but they are the exception, rather than the rule among commercial and professional practices. To confuse them with making good healthy profits is dangerous.

Anyone who thinks a business will run without good profits is lacking in economic education. Any consumer who believes his interest will best be served by a non-profit institution is sadly mistaken. Any citizen who sees something evil in profits is an enemy of free enterprise.

GOP Mourning Bench Crowded

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The "Republican Mourning Bench" has really been overcrowded since the election and one hears only anguished cries and moans of "unfair," "fraud," "robbed," etc. The Democrats did not act in this manner when the Republicans won the election of 1952 and 1956.

Now come on, aren't you Republicans just a little bit ashamed of yourselves????? Who is letting down the good old U.S.A. now by their accusations of cheating levelled at every precinct in every state in the United States that was won by the Democrats.

The communist countries, that have been handled with such genteel methods in recent years, can only assume that we are indeed not united Look how you Republicans distrust we Democrats.

California's absentee ballots put Nixon in the lap of the Republicans, the final tally did not come as a result of a recount.

Friends Republicans, you have to admit you had all the newspapers and most of the money behind you in your recent campaign. You had a better chance, if this is any help, than we did; but too bad for you we won.

When I step into the voting booth and mark my ballot I believe my vote will be handled honestly and the results are the same all over the country.

Cheer up! Try again in 1964. Maybe in the meantime you can arrange it so nobody but Republicans can count ballots and handle the voting machines, etc., and then you won't harbor such unpleasant thoughts and call out such childish accusations if you lose that election too.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Editors and columnists around town were intrigued recently by a communication from a perfume company which said—in part, "The old-fashioned method of applying perfume just here and there is not the way to get the most out of the product. Perfume should be applied the way a general deploys his troops: in all strategic areas. Suggested spots: temples, wrists, crooks of knees. Applying fragrance to the legs is most important, since fragrance rises. If it's applied to the throat and temples, it doesn't have far to go—except to the ceiling—and who can smell it up there? Apply perfume always to the legs, and you'll find that you enjoy it as much as everyone else AND . . ."

The editor who showed me this revolutionary document added, "The first secretary who shows up in THIS office with perfumed legs is going to get it GOOD!"

"Children nowadays," observes Shirley MacLaine, "are practically at high school age before they discover that 'damn' and 'commercial' are two separate words!"

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRUCE COLEMAN

It's A Bus Of Wonder Across The Mountain Four Times Daily

A lot of wonderful little people go back and forth over The Mountain on a bus five days a week between Mill Valley and Muir Beach.

Here is how they look: they have bright eyes, wear yellow raincoats, funny hats, boots and some have fight scratches on their faces.

Here is how they talk: "Hey, Vic, Randy's poking me with a pencil." Or, "My name is Robert Tree Walker . . . but my real name's Charlie Walker. That's my brother, George." Or, "One time we almost ran over a deer!"

Tiburon's Vic Avilla takes his bus, the Mill Valley School District yellow vehicle No. 2, on four round trips per day. The trip averages one hour and 15 minutes. He's been driving the kids 18 years, worn out two buses.

WE BOARDED No. 2 at 2:05 p.m. after trying to get the late run at 3:15 p.m., but being told that would make the bus overloaded.

The bus went from Park School to Homestead School and picked up more youngsters, who got in quickly, some of them leaving their lunch pails and raincoats piled up on the floor beside the gearshift. There was a hum of noise. All passengers appeared friendly.

We climbed Edgewood Avenue. At Edgewood and Sequoia Valley Drive, Vic turned on the red flashing lights, stopped the bus and took Charlie and George Walker across the street to safety.

BY THE TIME we had reached Mountain Home and dropped Tiffany Vincent, we knew the bus was not ordinary. It was a floating bus. Swinging wide off Panoramic Highway down the Muir Beach turnoff, we knew the ride down the mountain would be long. Wisps of fog made us more uneasy.

Despite this, there were some people in the back seats we hadn't met, so we moved back. It was bumpy over the back wheels and ship-like, but we were soon caught up in the singing.

First it was a loud and bouncy "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town." Concluded, someone said, "Which one now?" Answer: "Sing it over!". Counter-answer: "No."

Then we went into "Silent Night," which was softer but scratchy.

Then "Jingle Bells." On this, one little guy laughed too many times at the words "laughing all the way—ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha."

"Ever get seasick on this bus?" we asked him. "No," he said, "ha, ha, ha, ha."

IN THE MIDST of the songfest, bumps and weaves, we got up strength to look over the back seat. A two-pigtailed little girl was painstakingly drawing lines from number to number in a book, forming a girl. This amazing girl, oblivious to bus rumblings, was Maria Theresa Tella of Frank. Waria Theresa Tella of Frank's Valley.

The three Lessigs—Richard, Jimmie and Georgette — got off at the Joe Santos Ranch road and it started to rain. Their sister, 5-year-old Anne Marie, a kindergartener, would come home on the late run from Alto.

Jamie Norton put on his sweater, raincoat and two stocking caps (one was his brother's) and got off at the last stop, Muir Beach Road at Shoreline Highway, with 10 colleagues, among these George and Bobbie Mendoca.

VIC SAID, "I've taken some of these kids' parents to school, Mrs. Mendoca for one. You've got to like kids in order to hang on so long."

Back through Green Gulch, over the mountain to Edna Maguire. It was pouring rain and the last load of the day was waiting and, for us, good old wet, solid land.

Here we met David Kiepe, Alto sixth grader of Muir Beach. When we mentioned the "weavey" trip, David admitted he used to take pills for the ride when he was in fifth grade. Now, in sixth, "I don't take them any more," he said.

We Need New Federal Laws To Deal With Crime Syndicates

WASHINGTON — Those 20 individuals, whose names are best known to the gangland elite and who, on a rainy day in November, 1957, were by some accidental magnet all simultaneously drawn from many parts of the United States, Cuba, and Italy, to visit the baronial mansion of a sick friend in Apalachin, N. Y.—are today busy about their work free from their recent and only mildly cumbersome entanglements with the law.

The law tried, but it failed. The underworld won.

These "delegates" to the sick bed of their colleague, one Joseph Barbara, never were convicted for any of the crimes they may have committed. They were convicted for conspiracy, that is, as the government prosecutors contended, to agree to lie about the purpose of their conference to which they so spontaneously arrived from so many distant points.

NOW, THE UNITED States Court of Appeals has raised a stern and impartiai hand and has unanimously ruled no —no convictions, no crime proved, no proper case made against these gentlemen who have been set free to go back to their "businesses" and, on top of it all, the Justice Department is reprimanded for initiating the proceedings.

All right, let's say that the Court of Appeals is wise and right and truly faithful to the Constitutional guarantees which must be impartially administered in order to protect the innocent.

But let's not lose sight of what this reversal of these convictions really means. It means that the government of the United States is finding itself powerfless to deal with the kind of organized crime —the crime syndicate—which is now flourishing with such power and evil in the big cities of the nation.

THIS RIGHT and necessary decision of the Court of Appeals must be looked upon as not the depressing end of a hopeless and helpless effort by the Justice Department.

It must be taken as the climactic proof that the government of the United States must strengthen its legal powers, better its investigating and prosecuting organization to deal with new techniques of crime.

I offer no quick package of changes in the law, but I do suggest one basic proposition: the instrument of government dealing with the crime syndicate must be greater in power and resources than the crime syndicate itself.

IT IS BEING grimly demonstrated that today the crime syndicate is more powerful and more resourceful than the state and local governments which have almost exclusive jurisdiction over such crime.

I am not especially fond of more and more federal government. But it is better to have more federal authority to check crime when crime is too big and far-reaching for the states to cope with.

This, it seems to me, is the meaning of the freed Apalachin "delegates" and that the next step is up to the new attorney general and Congress.

Treat 'Peter Pan' Children With Kindliness, And They'll Like You

About 7,000 of them are born in our country each year. They are endearing, lovable, tragic youngsters.

Usually the first thing you notice is their eyes. They seem to be farther apart than they should be and slanted, like the eyes of people in Mongolia. Their heads may have a slightly different shape than other children's. Their arms and legs may be a little shorter. Their minds don't develop normally; their I.Q.'s are low, and remain that way.

They are sweet and depend on their parents. They enjoy being with other children and aren't quarrelsome. To know them is to love them.

No one can tell what causes their condition. A recent theory is that their germ cells lack one of the chromosomes normal babies' germ cells contain. Whatever it is, the condition starts early in their prenatal life.

Peter Pan children can be born to any family. Mothers who are past 35 are a bit more apt to have them than women who are younger.

They don't resist disease as well as other children. Many of them die while they are young; only a few survive to adulthood. Some of them thrive when placed in state hospitals. Much depends on the homes they have come from. Much depends on the hospitals, too.

You should treat a Peter Pan child in your neighborhood just as you would any other little one who isn't quite able to be independent. Be friendly, helpful and happy.

You'll like him, and he'll like you.

READER'S FORUM

(Q) "Can Mongoloid children be cured by special diets and medicines?"

(A) They cannot. Science has not been able to find the answers to the riddles they present. Much research has been done but much more is needed.

Film On City Hall Riot To Be Shown By Legion Post

"Operation Abolition," a film on the San Francisco City Hall demonstrations last spring during hearings of the House Un-American Activities Committee, will be shown by American Legion Wilkins Post No 37, San Rafael, tomorrow night.

Granite Marker Believed Taken From A Grave

The granite grave marker which was found alongside the road in Strawberry Thursday, had apparently been removed from a grave, an investigation revealed today.

Sheriff's deputies and the Marin County coroner said the marker had been "recently cemented to another object" and that there was crushed grass on the bottom, indicating it had been taken out of the ground.

The stone was turned over to the Marin Monument Co. in hopes the owner might be identified.

Kappa Feud Due Another Board Airing

George Kappa's long feud with Marin County and its Richardson Bay Master Plan is due for another airing at tomorrow's afternoon session of the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Decision is scheduled on the question of whether there should be county complaint to the U.S. Army Engineers against Kappas application for three years extension of his time to complete dredging and filling on the south side of Richardson Bay.

A Nov. 29 letter from public works director Marvin W. Brigham to the board said he had received public notice from the engineers of a Kappas application, apparently "in violation of the interim ordinance recently adopted by the board and also contrary to the master plan for Richardson Bay which was adopted by the board."

Brigham pointed out that objection, if any, must be made within 30 days after the Nov. 17 date of the notice and he called it to the board's attention "for such action as you deem appropriate."

Decision was postponed due to illness of Supervisor Vera Schultz of Mill Valley so this is one of several continued matters coming up.

Another, which the supervisors candidly hope will have settled itself, involves a question of whether members of a flying club may be expelled from the county airport near Novato because of their wish to conduct training operations in their own plane, an action deemed contrary to his contract rights by airport operator H. O. Tollefson. Last week the supervisors heard agreement was near so they continued without further effort to settle anything.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Some Action Now May Save Money

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

We have to live with taxes every day of our lives and if we want to pay only our share we must keep accurate records of our finances and so shape our daily lives to produce the lowest tax result.

Peter J. Wikel

Judge Learned Hand expressed it so well when he said, "Over and over again courts have said there is nothing sinister in so arranging one's affairs as to keep taxes as low as possible. Everyone does so, rich or poor; and all do right, for nobody owes any public duty to pay more than the law demands: taxes are enforced exactions, not voluntary contributions. To demand more in the name of morals is mere cant."

There may be some things that you should do now, before the end of 1960, that could make a big difference in the tax you will have to pay, or the refund that you will receive, in 1961. For instance, medical expenses present great opportunities for switching expense from one year to another.

Medical expenses are deductible to the extent they exceed 3 per cent of your adjusted gross income, but not more than $2,500 per personal exemption and not more than $5,000 on a separate return or more than $10,000 on a joint or head of household return. Exemptions for old age and blindness do not count.

If you or your spouse are over 65 years old the 3 per cent provision does not apply to you and if you or your spouse are over 65 years old and disabled, the maximum deduction is increased to $15,000 and if you are both over 65 years old and both disabled the maximum deduction is increased to $30,000 but not more than $15,000 per individual.

Now suppose that you have large unpaid medical expenses this year and will have even more in 1961. Do not pay any of these this year. Wait until 1961 and pay them all in that year. This way you will have the advantage of the full deduction instead of losing 3 per cent of your income this year as well as 3 per cent of your income for 1961. This works the other way too.

Suppose you have paid medical expense of over 3 per cent of your adjusted gross income and will have a deduction for 1960 and you still owe medical bills which you plan to pay in 1961. If you pay those bills before the end of the year they will be a deduction this year. You won't have to use them to make up 3 per cent of your adjusted gross income for 1961 before you can start deducting again. If you do not have funds readily available it might be wise to borrow the money.

Let's see how that would work. Suppose you borrow $1,000 from a bank and repay in 12 monthly installments. Your cost for such a loan would be about $70. Now suppose you take this $1,000 and pay deductible bills with it. If you are paying taxes at the lowest rate, you will save $200. Your net profit on the transaction will be about $130.

Remember, too, that any interest paid on borrowed money will become a deduction next year.

These columns are intended to help you in a general way, to give you the answers to the most often asked questions about income and deductions and to point out the tax saving possibilities that may be open to you. If you have a specific problem you should consult the accountant of your choice as early as possible.

Admission Tests Still Available

Applications for secondary school admission tests may still be filed with the Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, N.J., it was announced today by Dominican Convent in San Rafael.

The test is required for admission to the Dominican Convent's ninth grade in September, 1961. Although the deadline for filing applications and fee was set on Nov. 26, a telegram to the testing service stating that the application is en route will enable prospective students to take the test.

Testing will be at the Convent on Dec. 10. Applications may be picked up at the school and must reach Princeton N. J. by next Wednesday.

VFW Auxiliary Slates Blood Bank For Novato

A mobile blood bank will be at Trevitt Hall, Novato Presbyterian Church, on Dec. 14 from 2 to 7 p.m. to accept blood donations.

The Donald V. Westlund Veteran of Foreign Wars Auxiliary No. 7816 of Novato is sponsoring the Irwin Memorial Bloodmobile.

Letters were sent to 81 organizations in Novato asking them to help procure blood donors, Mrs. Grover C. Owen, publicity chairman, said.

Mrs. Owen pointed out there are several blood bank funds in Novato, as well as the Marin County Civil Defense Fund. Donations may be assigned to any bank or individuals which the donors choose, and they will be given credit on their own card for the blood which may be used by their family at a later date.

Auto Sales Ahead Of Last Year; Compact Impact May Be Answer

MOTORCRAFT: Sales by most auto manufacturers producing both compacts and larger cars are held to be ahead of last year. However, no breakdown has been received showing which class is responsible for their over-all gain. . . . General appraisal of sales trends finds compacts now capturing 33 per cent of the U.S. market as against approximately 27 per cent last year, so this may be the answer. . . . Discontinuance of the De Soto line after 32 years has had one immediate close-out effect locally—Rossi Garage has sold what cars it had on hand, expects no more deliveries, will change its signs and settle down to pushing Plymouths and Valiants for Chrysler—and Larks for Studebaker.

SAN RAFAEL ARCHITECT Robert W. F. Severin bought the first 1961 Lincoln Continental off the floor from E. Bugna, Inc., a honey-beige four-door sedan and somewhat of a "honey" in price and other appurtenances. This is Severin's second Lincoln—Mrs. S. is hanging on to the last one—a 1948 convertible with almost 300,000 miles — for her own use, but wait until she sits behind the wheel of the new one. The wheels may be rotated.

TWO MARIN RESIDENTS, principals in the San Francisco insurance brokerage firm of Larke, Blue and Co., have merged their business with that of another San Francisco firm—Hyams and Mayers, Inc.

Thomas Larke Jr., currently serving as a volunteer first aid instructor for the Red Cross, San Rafael chapter, resides at 60 Scenic Road, Fairfax. Elliott C. Blue lives with his wife and two children at 103 Espalda Court, San Rafael.

The new organization maintains a Los Angeles office and is believed to be the largest insurance brokerage firm offering complete insurance service outside of the downtown area of San Francisco.

KELLOGG EXPRESS and Draying Co., which is owned by Associated Freight Lines, is abandoning its Marin terminal quarters at Jordan and Lindaro Streets, San Rafael. Hereafter dispatching will be done out of the San Francisco office at 530 Brannan St. Marin County service will still be rendered phone calls to the local Kellogg number will be given an Enterprise toll-free number in the city to call.

While Kellogg is still operating under its own name, chances are that by the first of the year everything will be consolidated under Associated Freight Lines.

WE HEAR that Pioneer Enterprises, Inc.—formerly Marin Machine, Inc.—in Sausalito is running into growing problems. Look for possible expansion and movement further north in Marin within one to three months.

Beneath it was an excerpt from a second letter dated two days later:

This office memo was appended by the company president:

"We ben spending to much time hear trying to spel instedd uv trying to sel. Lets wortch those sails. I want everybuddy shud reed these letters frum Gooch who is on the rode doing a grate job for us, and you shud go out and DO LIKE HE DONE!"

Purity Store To Close For Big Remodeling

A $250,000 remodeling job has been undertaken by the Mill Valley Purity Store and will necessitate a shutdown of sales operations from Jan. 14, after the end of the day, to 9 a.m. Jan. 25.

Involved are many new facilities, a new paint job inside and out, installation of a big new revolving sign on a 35-foot tower, and resurfacing of the parking lot at Camino Alto and East Blithedale Avenue.

Holes are to be cut in the roof and huge pilings will be driven just inside the wall line. Prestressed concrete T sections 90 feet long will rest on the pilings, spanning the entire length of the building.

The revolving "Purity" sign will be 22 feet wide and six feet in depth.

Features will include:

Installation of a service bakery and coffee bar, new grocery gondolas and wall shelving, a 22-foot air curtain dairy box, 40 feet of delicatessen cases, "Twin Island" frozen food cases 112 feet in length, a refurbishing of production department fixtures, and new check stands.

A customer service center is to include check-cashing service, a place to return empty bottles, facilities for purchase of money orders, packaged cigarettes, film service, and reception of payments for utility bills.

Returns To U.S.

Harry J. Dillon, Navy fireman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Dillon of 15 Windsor avenue, Sau Rafael, has returned to the United States aboard the destroyer Harry E. Hubbard after a six-month cruise with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Orchestra Plans Second Rehearsal

Mill Valley's orchestra for beginners, retired and semi-advanced adult players will meet for its second practice session tonight at 8 o'clock in the Edna Maguire School, director David Reed announces.

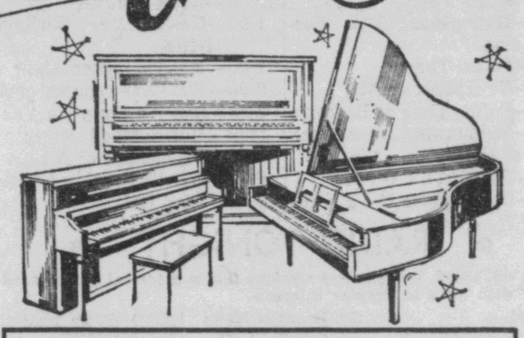

Mrs. Timothy Grul, unofficial chairman, said "the group of 25 southern Marin people who like to make music just for fun ranges from mighty poor to mighty good. It includes violinists — and we use the term loosely — clarinetists, flutists, saxophonists, trumpeters, baritones and an oboist without an oboe.

"We need cellists and a string bass to fill the chairs."

Veteran Photographer

ERICK, Okla. (AP) — Mrs. Lou Bennett, who started photography as a hobby, may be the state's oldest in the business at the age of 90.

KILPATRICK'S, THE BREAD WITH THAT FRESH BAKING DAY FLAVOR

MARINE TRAFFIC JAM — This was the view from Sausalito yesterday as hundreds of bass fishermen converged on Richardson Bay for the opening of the annual herring run. The herring, which spawn in the bay until early February, are chased by the bass which, in turn, are chased by the fishermen. Many fishermen, waiting in the long line to launch their boats at the Turney Street ramp, reportedly got into fist fights as traffic grew heavy and tempers short. Police were on duty all day at the single public launching ramp which is designed to handle two boats at a time. See story in columns 6 and 7 below.

Sweeping Pentagon Shakeup Recommended To Kennedy

Quick-Thinking Boy Saves 2 In HAFB Fire

Quick-thinking by the 16-year-old son of a Hamilton Air Force Base sergeant probably saved the lives of two base residents yesterday.

Bill E. Rubinsak, delivering newspapers on the base, noticed smoke coming from the home of Capt. and Mrs. Loyd A. Poague at 316 Kelly Drive.

The youth promptly called the fire department, the air police and an ambulance. Air police forced their way into the smoking house, where the occupants were still asleep.

The fire, confined to the front room, was extinguished by the base fire department after doing damage estimated at $3,500. It was attributed to a smouldering cigarette.

Young Rubinsak is a son of M/Sgt. Gilbert W. Rubinsak of Quarters 55-B, San Jose Drive.

Four Youths Set Off For Latin Adventure

By DOROTHY SIMPERS

Four adventurous young Marin men—out to "see some of the world while we can"—set off for South America today in a 1947 panel truck they bought for $40.

The travelers are Douglas Simmonds, 20, and Larry Kiewert, 20, both of 130 Edison Avenue, Corte Madera; Frank Cotton, 19, of 24 Evergreen Drive, Kentfield, and Robert Buchholz, 19, of 4750 Antoinette Drive, Belvedere. Larry, Douglas and Robert attended Tamalpais High School and Frank went to Drake and Redwood.

Their trip will take them through Mexico and down the Pan-American Highway through Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica to the Panama Canal.

In Panama they plan to put their truck aboard a fruit boat and sail to a coastal town in Columbia.

The boys will take at least three months for their trip, and maybe longer. They have enough money to last four months, they estimate, and hope to earn some along the way. They figure their expenses at $7 a day each.

"It's our last big splurge before we settle down," says Doug Simmonds, spokesman for the group. "We want to see something different."

They don't plan to spend too much time in Mexico, although they will stop in Mexico City. South America is their main goal.

The problems and hazards of the trip don't faze them. It will rough going in spots, they admit, but they are confident they can drive all the way to Panama. The hazards will "give us something to think about till we get there," they say.

Their truck is well equipped for the long journey. All mechanically inclined, the boys rebuilt the engine, made

More White Pupils Return To School

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Seventeen white pupils returned to classes at William Frantz integrated school today, an apparent signal that a segregation-boycott is breaking.

This was seven more than showed up Friday.

The boycott—supported by women pickets—held firm at the city's other integrated elementary school, McDonogh No. 19. Only the three Negro first grade girls went in for classes. One Negro girl attended William Frantz.

Most of the returnees at William Frantz evaded the heckling from demonstrators by going in a side door while police held the crowd on private property.

While the boycott at William Frantz continued to slip from its low point of only two white pupils, a three-judge federal court knocked down the legislature's latest attempt to oust the New Orleans School Board.

The federal court's restraint order came at the request of M. Hepburn Many, U.S. attorney for Eastern Louisiana.

Judge Richard Rives, J. Skelly Wright and Herbert Christenberry issued a temporary restraining order prohibiting the legislature from putting into effect its plan to replace the five-member board. The legislature passed the enabling act Saturday.

LEGISLATIVE PLAN

Under the legislature's plan, the new board would control finances of the city's public schools and take over other board functions.

The court ruled that the legislation "would further prevent the board from operating schools in compliance with the orders of this court."

Jeers and taunts from women demonstrators greeted the white children and the Negro girl met a chorus of boos when she arrived.

MINISTER JEERED

A Methodist minister who has ignored screaming, cursing white women to accompany his daughter, Pamela, 6, and other white children to the Frantz School, was jeered again yesterday by a small group as he conducted services at two churches.

Four women walked out of services conducted by Rev. Lloyd A. Foreman at the Church of the Redeemer.

The minister conducted services later in the morning at St. Mark's Methodist Church. A man standing outside the building was led away by companions after he shouted, "I'll challenge that louse, the rat."

High Court Strikes At Eatery Bias

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court by a 7 to 2 vote today ruled out racial discrimination in bus terminal restaurant facilities if they are an "integral part" of an interstate line's service to customers.

Justice Hugo L. Black declared in a majority opinion that such discrimination violates the Interstate Commerce Act. Justices Charles E. Wittaker and Tom C. Clark dissented. The case was brought to the high court by Bruce Boynton, a student at Howard University here.

During a Christmas holiday bus trip in 1958, Boynton was arrested and fined $10 in Richmond, Va., when he insisted on being served in a restaurant in a Trailways bus terminal which was privately operated. The high court ruling sets aside his conviction.

In other action today, the court let stand a state court decision which struck down a Maryland law regulating the sale and display of comic books.

U.N. BOYCOTT

French Shun Debate On Algeria Issue

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —France boycotted a U.N. debate on the French-Algerian conflict today as supporters of the Algerian rebels pressed demands for a U.N.-supervised referendum on the territory's political future.

Sir Claude Corea of Ceylon, chairman of the 99-nation committee, called attention to communications from two members of the 11-nation French community—Chad and Congo Brazzaville—requesting a delay. But there was no immediate move to push the request.

Would End Separate Force Secretaries

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A special study committee told President-elect John F. Kennedy today that the Army, Navy and Air Force secretaries should be abolished as part of a sweeping defense shakeup which could save eight billion dollars a year.

The group said the proposals, which would vest strong new authority in the defense secretary, were dictated by "the unprecedented strategic value of time—the ability to react instantly against aggression in this nuclear-space age."

It said the nation had 18 months to mobilize in World Wars I and II but that it "would be fortunate to have 18 minutes" in any new conflict.

The blueprint would retain the separate military services. But the present departmental structure of the Army, Navy and Air Force would be eliminated and more than 20 top jobs, including the service secretaries, would be wiped out.

The committee also proposed replacing the Joint Chiefs of Staff with a combined planning staff whose members would have a minimum stake in the individual services. The chairman of the new group would deal directly with the defense secretary, who in turn would report to the president.

Kennedy received the report at Palm Beach, Fla., from Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), former Air Force secretary in the Truman administration, who headed the study group. Afterward, the president-elect returned to Washington for a meeting tomorrow with President Eisenhower.

After discussing transition problems with Eisenhower, Kennedy will go to New York Wednesday where he will announce his third cabinet appointment. The president-elect will meet in New York with United Nations Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold and others.

The Symington Committee said its recommendations were designed to wipe out the "arbitrary and ridiculous division between land, sea and air" forces, and reduce inter-service rivalry.

Anglers Pack Sausalito; Traffic Jams, Fists Fly

Fist fights and traffic jams—on land as well as on the water—highlighted the day in Sausalito yesterday as more anglers than fish converged on the town for the annual herring run.

A single public boat launching ramp on Turney Street required police supervision throughout the day with as many as 25 boats and trailers backed up at one point waiting to join the bass fishermen already afloat.

"It was just too much traffic for the ramp," said Richard Urbias of the Sausalito Boat and Tackle Shop. "At best it can handle only two boats at a time."

The traffic jam was even worse in Richardson Bay, according to witnesses.

"It was stupendous," said one fisherman who said there were as many as 500 small craft both yesterday and Saturday.

Most of the fishing was done by trolling, adding to the confusion and collisions. "There wasn't 100 square feet of water that didn't have a boat on it," Urbais said. "They stretched all the way from Kappas' Harbor to Yellow Bluff near the sewage plant."

The herring customarily stay around until early in February. They are a favorite food of the bass, hence the droves of fishermen. "Sometimes their spawning even takes them onto Sausalito's beaches where people get them with nets," Urbais said.

Despite the traffic, fishing was reported good in spots but "scratchy" in the middle of the day. Old timers said there were simply too many boats out.

Tony Caruso of Caruso's Bait, Tackle and Supplies, said this morning "it's still hot." Four boats, he said, came in with limits and that boats were still coming out of the water as late as 9 o'clock last night.

CUBANS PROTEST AT U.S. EMBASSY

Part of a group of 250 demonstrators is seen before the U.S. Embassy in Havana yesterday, protesting the alleged death of a cow caused by fragments of an American rocket which blew up over Cuba last week. Demonstrators brought along six cows, all wearing protest placards. Police, in background, kept the crowd at a distance from the embassy. (AP Wirephoto)

Churchmen Favor Proposal For U.S. Protestant Union

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Leading churchmen today registered a somewhat bedazzled but firmly favorable reaction to a proposal for a wide reunion among American Protestants.

The plan, said Methodist Bishop John Wesley Lord of Boston, "is as shocking as it is Christian."

"It overcomes with stark simplicity many of the problems that have perplexed the separate communions over the years."

The plan, at the outset, would embrace the Episcopal, United Presbyterian, Methodist and United Church of Christ with other denominations subsequently invited to join.

More than 3,000 representatives of 33 Protestant and Orthodox denominations with 40 million members joined last night in the opening services.

"It is the opening of a very significant move," said Rt. Rev. Arthur C. Lichtenberger of of New York, presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church.

"Out of this might come a plan that would be acceptable to all the people involved," he added. "It is a good approach. I hope it will lead to a reunion of the church."

He, like others, however, emphasized it will take time, and careful examination.

Dr. Blake, in a sermon at Grace Episcopal Cathedarl, detailed steps for combining creedal, liturgical churces with the more informal, non-ritualistic churches into a body "both reformed and catholic."

Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike of California called the plan the "most sound and inspiring" ever offered in this country.

The plan is patterned on the precedent-shattering establishment of the United Church of South India in 1947, uniting Presbyterians, Methodists, Episcopalians and Congregationalists.

Dr. Blake proposed specifically a merger of these four groups in the United States. He included the United Church of Christ, a currently evolving union of Congregationalists and the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Although, the combined body would have more than 20 million members. Other churches accepting the principle, Dr. Blake said, would also be invited to join, with the ultimate aim of reuniting "the whole of Christ's church."

Dr. James E. Wagner of Philadelphia and Dr. Fred Hoskins of New York, co-presidents of the new created United Church of Christ, voiced "great interest and appreciation" for the plan.

They said they felt sure that if the Episcopal and United Presbyterian conventions next year issue calls for such a uion, a proposed by Dr. Blake, it will receive "careful and thoughtful consideration."

However, they expressed hope that the plan would not be limited to the four bodies named even at the start, since their own merger already was planning unity negotiations with the Disciples of Christ Church.

The proposed reunion would include a joint consecreational service, in which all clergy took part, so as to bring them into the apostolic succession—a heritage valued by the Episcopal and other catholic-rooted churches.

The plan also would provide for "truly democratic government," with congregations free to name their own pastors, and "a wide diversity of theological formulations of the faith and a wide diversity of worship and liturgy."

Other measures would incorporate distinctive features of both Catholic and reformed tpes of Protestant churches, Dr. Blake said. He said he used the word "catholic" as it applied to age-old Christian concepts and practices.

"The reunited church," he said, "must have visible and historical continuity with the chu:rches of all ages before and after the Reformation."

He estimated it would take at least 10 years to affect the initial union, if the designated denominations act on it favorably. He suggested as a possible name "the Reformed and Catholic Church in the United States of America."

Survey Finds 10,000 Drug Addicts In State

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The first comprehensive report on narcotics arrests ever made in California shows that:

1. There are approximately 10,000 addicts or near addicts in the state.

2. Few juveniles are arrested, although nearly all suspects are young.

3. The public may be wrong in believing that narcotics generally start persons on a life of crime.

Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk released the report yesterday and said it was the first such extensive study to be made in the United States. He added that California faced a narcotics problem of major proportions "but it is not out of control."

Prepared by the Bureau of Criminal Statistics, the report counted 17,630 narcotics arrests during the period from July, 1959, to June, 1960. Of the total, 30.7 per cent were repeaters.

The report found "at least 5,812 users or potential users" of heroin and opiate derivatives —the habit-forming drugs. It concluded that the figure 10,000 "might serve as a rough estimate of the total" because the criminal statistics bureau believes, like many police officers, that such a user is bound to be arrested at least once every two years.

Arrests connected with marijuana and the so-called dangerous drugs like barbituates, which are not habit-forming, comprised 43.8 per cent of the total.

Concerning juveniles, the report counted 1,132 arrests of persons under 18, mostly on marijuana charges. Looking at all arrests, the bureau found that 70 per cent were persons under 30.

The bureau found 106 arrests for supplying drugs to a minor, less than 1 per cent of the total. It said the number was small because there "aren't too many such offenses or else it is very difficult to effect the arrest of the offender."

Only 13 per cent of all persons arrested had no prior criminal record, indicating that "the narcotic offender is certainly not a stranger to crime."

Marin Drug Arrests Total 23 In Year

Twenty-three arrests for narcotic offenses were made in Marin County from July, 1959 through June, 1960, it was reported today by the California Department of Justice.

During the same period, there were 17,630 arrests made throughout the state for narcotics charges. They included both state and federal narcotic law violators.

Records show that 78 per cent of those arrested were men, 14 per cent women, 7 percent boys under 18 years old, and 1 per cent girls under 18. Of the total arrests in the state, 3,241 were additional arrests of persons already having been arrested during the period covered.

The number of those arrested for violations of state narcotiv laws totaled 12,064. Of these, 3,214 involved marijana, and 1,532 were for possession, sale or transportation of heroin. Those arrested as addicts or users totaled 4,567.

Insects, disease and fire kill 13 billion board feet of sawtimber each year.

Dictatorship Clamped On Stanleyville

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP)—Henchmen of Patrice Lumumba clamped a Communist-style dictatorship on the city of Stanleyville today.

Angered at the capture of the deposed premier they let loose their fury on whites trapped in his northeastern stronghold as a reprisal. Whites were barred from entering or leaving Oriental Province.

WHITES MISTREATED

United Nations reports said numerous white residents of Stanleyville were being mistreated by the military police under control of the local government headed by Antoine Gizenga, vice premier in Lumumba's defunct cabinet and a strong leftist.

Diplomats in Leopoldville were convinced that if Lumumba had succeeded in reaching Stanleyville he would have split the Congo in such a way that a Korea-type war would have followed with the Communists on Lumumba's side.

Lumumba, dismissed by President Joseph Kasavubu Sept. 5, escaped from his guarded residence in Leopoldville a week ago and headed for Stanleyville.

WILL FACE TRIAL

Caught 500 miles east of Leopoldville by Congolese army commander Col. Joseph Mobutu's troops, he has been brought back to face trial on charges of inciting the army to mutiny during the chaotic days after independence.

Western diplomats said they had definite information that the Soviet bloc and several Asian-African nations were planning to recognize a Lumum administration in Stanleyville as the Congo's rightful government had he got away out of reach of Mobutu's troops.

The diplomats think civil war would have followed, with many of the troops in Stanleyville supporting Lumumba and the Soviet Union supplying them.

CHURCH RETREATING

Bishop Pike Declares Christianity In Slump

NEW YORK (UPI)—Rt. Rev. James A. Pike has suggested Christians might "considerably subdue" the celebration of Christmas this year because a celebration presumes victory and "Christianity is in retreat."

Rt. Rev. Pike, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California, said in an article in Look magazine today that Christianity outwardly apepars to be growing with "superficial indications of a religious upsurge."

"But," said Bishop Pike, "an evaluation of all the evidence would demonstrate, not only that a decline has set in, but that the upsurge itself was without substanse."

Bishop Pike, one of Protestantism's leading spokesmen, said the Christian retreat was evident in this country when:

1. "Our government tells elaborate lies, as it did after the U-2 flight."

2. "We give to others on the express basis that we can get back from them—an alliance, an air base, a concession."

3. The United States keeps in storage "billions of dollars worth of grain while millions of people starve."

4. "The church finds itself in the ludicrous position of preaching brotherhood and practicing intolerance."

He said it was evident abroad in the advance of communism, in non-Communist countries where new nationalism "has cast Christianity into disfavor," and in "a revitalized Hinduism and a more aggressive Islam."

He said the statistics actually show the church is losing ground although church membership in the last 15 years has tripled that of the previous 15, and church building, religious publishing and radio and TV programs on religious subjects have increased. He gave as an example of this the failure of Protestant church membership to increase at the rate of population increase in this country.

"If General Motors over the years were to trebel its sales but not improve its cars," he said, "its customers would properly consider the achievement a hollow one. The logic is no less applicable to the Christian church."

Scout Rocket Fails, Plunges Into Atlantic

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP)—A 72-foot Scout rocket and the inflatable satellite it was to have put into orbit lay under deep water 80 miles off the Virginia shore today after the failure of the first major space attempted from this test center.

Although the vehicle cost more than $750,000, there will be no attempt to recover any part of it.

Officials said it would be almost impossible to locate.

The 36-600-pound, four-stage research vehicle roared aloft at 4:14 p.m. yesterday and climbed beautifully for the 44 seconds of firsts tage burning. But the second stage failed to ignite and the rocket plunged into the ocean.

All four stages of the Scout rocket use solid propellants, and this was the first attempt to launch a satellite with such a vehicle. No date has been set for a follow-up effort.

Sloop Towed In

HONOLULU (UPI)—Three turbulent weeks at sea ended last night for the sloop Endymion and its five-man crew. The Coast Guard cutter Ironwood towed the 76-foot sailing vessel into port. The Endymion had been at sea 12 days on a cruise to California when the engine went out.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Gunmen Shoot Six

CORBEIL, France (UPI) — Unidentified gunmen pumped bullets through the door of a dance hall in this Paris suburb last night, killing at least two persons and wounding six. The method of the attack suggested the tactics of Paris's Arab gun gangs, police said.

Russ Missile Base

LONDON (UPI)—Japanese intelligence officials have aerial photos showing the Soviet Union is building a missile base in Kamchatka Peninsula "whose target appears to be China," the Sunday Times said yesterday. The newspapers said the base would be equipped with 3,000-mile range missiles.

Fires Fatal To 85

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Children have been chief victims of numerous deadly fires that have swept the nation since Thursday.

At least 85 persons, including 51 children, have died in fires, a United Press International count showed early today. Most of the deaths were blamed on faulty heating systems, taxed beyond limits by the season's first cold snap, and on careless use of matches.

Ship's Crew Safe

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. (UPI) Fourteen crewmen who spent seven days on their grounded freighter in storm-tossed Lake Michigan today awaited action by immigration authorities to enable them to set foot on land.

The rescued seamen were taken off the Liberian-registered Francisco Morazon yesterday shortly after gale warnings were posted. A Coast Guard lighter picked up the sailors and two representatives of the ship owners and took them to the ice-breaker Mackinaw.

Ghana, Belgium Split

ACCRA, Ghana (AP) — Ghana broke off diplomatic relations with Belgium today, charging the Brussels government with being responsible for "the recent developments in the Congo."

Belgian Ambassador Gerard Walravens was ordered to get out of the country within 48 hours.

Hole Lot Of Trouble

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—During the night burglars tried to tunnel into the basement of a liquor store from the basement of an adjoining store. They had dug a nice hole before they gave up—perhaps when they realized the liquor store has no basement.

Air Force Pilot Killed

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Air Force Capt. Lawrence R. Reeves, 29, of Sterling, Colo., was killed yesterday when he ejected from his disabled F-102 jet fighter 100 feet from the ground—too low for his parachute to open. His plane crashed and burned.

Midwest Waits Storm

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A snow storm which hit the western mountains and plains headed into the Midwest today, with warnings of blizzard conditions in some areas.

The weather bureau issued warnings of heavy snow and blizzard conditions for the extreme west through northwest Minnesota and North and South Dakota.

Italy Highway Snarl

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—More than 20,000 motorists tested the new 51-mile superhighway between Bologna and Florence yesterday. Police said there were so many collisions no one counted them; dozens of injured motorists were treated at hospitals in three cities, and more than 100 cars ran out of gas or overheated.

State GOP Backs Nixon

LOS ANGELES (AP)—California's Republican State Central Committee has pledged complete support to Vice President Richard M. Nixon as head of the Republican party.

The committee sent Nixon a telegram yesterday, congratulating the defeated GOP presidential candidate on his majority in California. State Chairman John Krehbiel said Nixon's victory in his home state showed a clear repudiation of Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown's administration.

Escapes Hospital

WACO, Tex. (AP)—The pilot who led U.S. atomic bombers to Hiroshima and Nagasaki has escaped from the Waco Veterans Administration hospital, where he was a mental patient.

Hospital officials said Claude R. Eatherly, 44, a former major, escaped from the institution Nov. 22. Eatherly was acquitted of burglarizing two Texas post offices after pleading innocent by reason of insanity, and he was committed to the V.A. hospital here last year.

Surrenders in Siege

UNION, S.C. (AP)—A former mental patient wounded a young girl, then shot three policemen superficially during a 13-hour farmhouse siege before surrendering meekly yesterday on the plea of his father.

James Freeman Gregory, 39, came out of the bullet-riddled frame house into which officers had fired 1,000 rounds of buckshot and dozens of tear gas cartridges.

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT:
Better Health Through Knowledge
Girdles
• Late Walking
• Tea In Hospitals
• Milk And Eczema
Q. I know several women who won't wear a girdle because, they say, it weakens the abdominal muscles. Is this true?
A. All voluntary muscles respond to normal activity and use by developing tone or "firmness" even when the muscle is relaxed. When continued sunport is provided to muscle, there is less work done, and, as a result, the muscle becomes weaker. It is doubtful, however, that the modern garments now available to women give enough support to weaken the abdominal muscles.
Q. My two-year-old hasn't yet tried to walk. Could something be wrong?
A. Late walking is sometimes a family failing, and this calls for no concern. However, before this optimistic view can be taken, late walkers should have a medical checkup.
Q. My husband says that tea is as hard on the system as coffee. If so, why do they serve tea in preference to coffee in hospitals? Does tea contain caffeine?
A. Tea contains caffeine, tannin and aromatic substances. So does coffee. Both are mild stimulants and mild diuretics (increase kidney action). Tea is said to promote stomach emptying and does not upset stomach secretions. However, since tea and coffee are not too different chemically, the supposed advantages of tea over coffee may be due to psychological factors associated with the tea-drinking ritual.
Q. Is goat's milk helpful in treatment of eczema in babies?
A. Eczema in children is generally considered an allergic condition. If a baby or young child is allergic to cow's milk, the replacement of cow's milk by goat's milk would probably help.

Storms Pound North Europe

LONDON (AP)—Northern Europe today began cleaning up after a violent weekend of raging storms and floods which spread death and destruction.

Britain bore the brunt of the storm, which sent rivers crashing out of their banks and flooded dozens of villages and miles of farmland. Property damage was heavy in London. At least two deaths were reported.

Four deaths were counted in Holland. France, Germany, Denmark and Belgium also were badly hit.

More rain is expected and many areas, especially in Britain, still face serious flood threats.

Some rivers in Britain's West Country and Midlands were expected to crest today.

The storm, climaxing the wettest autumn for Britain in more than 100 years, punched at the island with 80 m.p.h. winds.

Forty counties were flooded and Wales virtually was cut off from England.

Hundreds of marooned men, women and children were taken to safety by volunteers who toiled into the early morning

In eastern Hollard, three flooded towns were evacuated. The area covered by lakes in Friesland was almost doubled. In Amsterdam, windows were blown in and trees uprooted.

In Belgium, many roads were under water. The storm lashed furiously at the French coast. High seas disrupted ferry service between Denmark's scattered islands.

2 Teen Girls Unhurt As Vehicle Rolls

Two teen-age girls escaped injury Saturday when their small foreign car went out of control and rolled over twice on San Pedro Road near Loch Lommond in San Rafael.

The driver, Loloma R. Schultz, 16, of 4 Chestnut Avenue, Ross, said she was eastbound at about 40 miles an hour and had to cross the white line to make a sharp left turn near Paganini Point about 5 p.m.

Loloma and her passenger, Sharon Lou Tuttle, 14, of 40 Rollingwood Drive, Glenwood, were shaken, but unhurt.

Chamber Music Gains In Marin Appreciation

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Two concerts yesterday provided further evidence that Marin is becoming appreciative of chamber music, a fortunate development considering that it has no adequate hall for large symphonic and choral productions.

In the evening the San Rafael Recreation Department launched, to the acclaim of some 650 persons, the first of a series of baroque orchestra recitals under direction of Hugo Rinaldi at Dominican College's Angelico Hall.

Presented in association with the Symphony Guild of Marin and the music department of Dominican, this concert also featured the San Rafael Recreation Chorale with Byron Jones as director as well as soloist.

Acoustics added diamond brilliance to the skillfully produced tone of the 20-piece orchestra composed of strings and piano, and the music chosen was perfect for the well-trained and rehearsed ensemble.

Their numbers were the Concerto grosso OP. 6 No. 8 by Corelli, and Vivaldi's concerto in D minor and concerto grosso in F Major for three violins and strings. High point of the latter was the trio of violins played by Tom Reynolds, Dan Shelasky and Michael Gerling.

Particularly in the Corelli concerto grosso, so coordinated was the response of the players to Rinaldi's direction and manipulation of dynamics that he almost seemed to be playing on a single instrument.

Byron Jones's powerful and resonant baritone was heard with smooth control of crescendos in the arioso from "Israel in Egypten" and also in Biblische lieder No. 4 by Dvorak. He sang as an encore the amusing Welsh folk song, "Counting the Goats."

Considering that members of the San Rafael Recreation Chorale of about 36 voices, including some without training, had been singing together only a month, they turned in a creditable performance. Surprisingly, they sang the difficult "Hallelujah" chorus better than their first three numbers—"Thee With Tender Care" by J. S. Bach, "Carillon" by Robert Sheehan and "Carol of the Drum" by Kenneth Davis. This was possibly due to the bolstering of their confidence by the orchestral accompaniment.

On the whole, the program might have been improved by keeping all of the music within the baroque period.

The other concert in the afternoon was a violoncello recital presented by Jean Mattos Maguire in Mill Valley's Outdoor Art Clubhouse with assistance of pianist Robaline Meacham.

Both well known Mill Valley musicians, they performed well together, seeming to possess an instinctive unity in their conception of the music played.

Climax of their joint performance, both in beauty of tone and technical facility, was the Brahms sonata No. 1 in E minor, with the cello's lowest tones noteworthy. Also good was their rendition of the lighter Sonata No. 5 in C minor by Boccherini.

Mrs. Maguire's playing throughout was characterized by the mellow tone and effortless execution of trills, wide interval jumps and flawless cadenzas one has learned to expect from her.

Nicely chosen to contrast in style with the duo works were Mrs. Meacham's group of Debussy numbers, "Les Collines d'Anacapri," "La Serenade Interrompue" and "Jeux d'Artifice." She seemed thoroughly at home in the impressionistic idiom. Her performance on the Kreisler-Rachmaninoff "Liebeslied" was pleasing.

Although the pure cello sonority was heard in Mrs. Maguire's unaccompanied Bach Sonato No. 2 in D minor based on old dance forms, it seemed pedantic and was not so ingratiating as the other selections.

The concert, Mrs. Maguire's contribution to the building fund of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, was warmly applauded by the audience that almost filled the clubhouse.

Corte Madera To Consider Zoning Change

A request for amendment of the Corte Madera zoning ordinance in connection with development of a 20.3-acre parcel of property at the Corte Madera interchange will come before the town council tonight. The meeting begins at 7:30 o'clock.

Scarco, Inc. will ask for an amendment to permit the property to be a "planned unit development" and to be legally subdivided. Planned uniti development, according to the present ordinance, is the development, as a whole, of 25 or more acres and does not permit subdividing.

'QUARRY SITE'

The property is known as the "Quarry Site" and is in the southwest quadrant of the interchange. It is owned by Carey Brothers.

Scarco, Inc., was the developer of the Terra Linda Shopping Center.

Two public hearings are scheduled tonight. The first, at 7:30, will be on an appeal from a planning commission decision granting a variance at 359 Chapman Drive. The second, at 8 p.m., will be on a proposed rezoning of the Carolands tract near the Marin County Day School from low density residential to multiple residential.

DOG LEASH LAW

The council's health and welfare committee will report on its study of a proposed leash law for control of dogs in the town.

The council also will review the status of the town gardener and hear a report on the Lucky drive property exchange, which involves the town, Redwood High School and Schultz Development Co.

The town manager and police chief will recommend an ordinance prohibiting parking on both north and southbound lanes of Madera Boulevard, between Tamalpais and Mohawk Avenue.

Organizational Meet On Tam Bonds Slated

An organizational meeting for the Tamalpais Union High School District bond campaign will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday at Redwood High School.

The meeting was called by Roger F. Morse of Corte Madera, who is serving as temporary chairman until the campaign committees are organized.

The campaign is for a second attempt at a three-million-dollar bond issue to add facilities to Tamalpais High School in Mill Valley, Sir Francis Drake High in San Anselmo and Redwood High in Larkspur, and for acquisition of land on which to build an additional school.

The election will be held April 18, date of statewide school trustee elections. The bond proposal is identical to that on the ballot last Oct. 11, when only 60 per cent approval was received. A two-thirds majority is necessary on bond issues.

Bulk of the proposal is for the second stage of expansion at Redwood, including classrooms, library, canteen, parking area and site development. Construction and remodeling at Tamalpais high would include a new science building, making classrooms in the old building, remodeling unused cafeteria space into offices and using present office space for classrooms, a canteen and partial outdoor physical education facilities.

At Drake high, plans call for a teacher workroom, an electrical shop and a locker room which would also serve as a covered area for eating in inclement weather, Morse said.

For purchase of land, the three-million-dollar proposal includes $604,100. The site has not yet been determined. The Tiburon Peninsula area and the Lagunitas area are those most prominently mentioned.

A report from the Stanford School Planning Laboratory due this month or next May indicate definitely where the new school should be, according to district officials.

Parents' Group Plans Yule Party

An international Christmas party and potluck supper will be held by the Foster Parents Organization on Dec. 5 at 7 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Aldrich, 64 Alta Vista, Mill Valley.

Foods from Cuba, Israel, Mexico, Italy, Holland, and Scotland will be featured. The story of Hanukkah, the Festival of the Lights, will be told and Christmas stories from Italy and Mexico will be related.

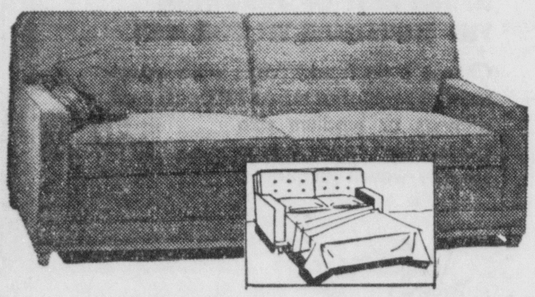

Reservations may be made through Mrs. Aldrich.

FIRST HALF OF 1961

U. S. Chamber Sees Mild Business Slump

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. Chamber of Commerce has forecast a mild business slump in the first six months of 1961, with higher unemployment becoming a "troublesome" factor during the year.

Emerson P. Schmidt, chief economist for the business organization, said yesterday that the downturn would be "only 1 or 2 per cent" in total output of goods and services.

Spendable income of individuals will "decline even less," he predicted. But he said "unemployment is likely to average higher than in 1960 and be troublesome."

The session also heard other experts forecast an increase in steel prices next year and a slight drop in automobile sales.

Schmidt was optimistic but cautious about the second half of 1961. He said the national production rate might hit 515 billion to 520 billion dollars by the end of the year if business firms completed their inventory cutbacks by summer.

Pinching the economy, Schmidt said, were inventory retrenchment, a shift in the federal budget from a 1959 deficit to a 1960 surplus, loss of gold and dollars to foreign countries and lack of growth in the money supply.

"In the face of these obstacles, the strength and level of the economy are surprising," Schmidt said.

GOP Says 11,000-Vote Shift Would Have Won

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The first Republican autopsy on the presidential election asserts that a shift of some 11,000 votes in four states could have put Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the White House.

The states are Illinois, with its 27 electoral votes; Missouri with 13; New Mexico with four and Nevada with three. Nixon would have carried all four states if he had received a vote in each precinct from just one person who voted for Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Each of these states is among those in which GOP national headquarters has pressed for recounts or investigations of alleged voting irregularities.

Nixon won 223 electoral votes in the Nov. 8 election. If he had carried Illinois, Missouri, New Mexico and Nevada, his electoral vote would have been 270, one more than the necessary majority.

Final and official results show Kennedy carried Missouri by 9,878 votes, Navada by 2,493 and New Mexico by 2,294. His margin was less than 9,000 in the unofficial count in Illinois, where the GOP is still battling to reverse the result.

A preliminary study by the research division of the GOP National Committee emphasized major shifts away from the Republicans in the big cities and their suburbs and among Catholic voters.

The improved Democratic showing in the big cities and suburban areas was most conspicuous in the east. In New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Maryland and New Jersey, the Kennedy majority in the major city in each state was more than enough to offset Nixon majorities in the rest of the state.

In cities with a population of more than 300,000, Nixon's share of the presidential vote ranged from 28.6 points in New Orleans down to 3.2 points in Dallas, Tex., below President Eisenhower's 1956 percentage.

Of 15,000 different kinds of mammals in the world, 3,800 are native of North America.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — After Mrs. Eddie M. Morton moved into a new home on Bromby Street two neighbors called to welcome her.

"I'm Doris Moore also," said the second.

"Well, come in," said Mrs. Morton: "I'm Doris Moore — I'm Doris Moore — I'm Doris Moore."

RAZING SAN RAFAEL LANDMARK

Watching workmen hack down historic cypress tree beside the San Rafael Public Library today are Mrs. Claude Arroyo of 1712 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, and her daughter, Valerie, 3. The old tree, which was on the site when the library was built 52 years ago, was dying. Library trustees, afraid that limbs would fall on passersby, authorized Vaning Tree Service of San Rafael to cut it down for $200. Building in the background is First Presbyterian Church. TRIP special preparations for expected rough driving., They installed guards to protect the radiator and an extra gasoline tank ad special rack on top for storage space.

They are taking as many spare tires as possible with them, and almost a complete engine in spare parts.

To get funds for the trip all the boys sold their own cars and "about everything else we own." They bought a couple of older cars, junked them to get the extra parts.

Their "hotels" will be sleeping bags and a lean-to attached to the truck, and they'll do their own cooking on a camp stove.

They are tking dungarees, boots, first aid kits machetes, camera, fishing poles—and a suit each, in case they want to dress up for some South American senoritas.

The four friends have been planning tis trip for four or five months. "We're not going to hurry," says Doug. "We'll spend a day or two in each town, and maybe a week if we find a place we like."

When they reach Colombia, the youths plan to drive down the west coast of South America to Santiago, Chile. From there they hope to cut across the continent and see Buenos Aires, Rio de Janeiro and Brasila, the new capital city of Brazil. They don't know how far up the coast they will be able to drive; so much of the continent is jungle. So their plans are indefinite from there on.

They plan to stop and see an acquaintance who owns a coffee plantation in El Salvador, and think they might get a job for a time there. They've also been given the names of other persons to look up, and in Chile they hope to see Martina Jimenez, who attended Redwood High in 1958-59 as an exchange student and lived with Larry's family.

Two of the young men speak "high school Spanish" and feel they will get along all right in the language.

All the young travelers either quit their jobs or took a leave of absence to make the trip. Doug is a glazier, Frank a service station attendant, Larry a mailman, and Robert a salesman in his father's store, B and B Auto Parts in Corte Madera.

Convict Hangs Self In Cell

Stephen Eksala, 20, hanged himself with his shirt last night in an isolation cell of San Quentin Prison where he was placed for the Nov. 15 stabbing of Duane Hall, convicted Mount Tamalpais murderer.

Prison authorities said Eksala was under a suicide guard but managed to loop his shirt over a ventilator. He was found about 9 p.m. by a guard.

Eksala stabbed Hall with a table knife stolen from the mess hall. Hall has recovered and is working in the library, where he has worked for about six and one-half years.

Hall was convicted in Marin, in 1953, along with Raymond C. Hodge, for the murder of Salinas cement finisher Roy Kapphahn. The body was found on the slopes of Mount Tamalpais on June 14, 1953, by picnickers.

Eksala was sentenced to one year to life and six months to 10 years for second degree robbery and assault in Contra Costa County.

Thief Walks In Door Left Open For Dog

When Levy and his wife returned home at 10:30 p.m. they found someone had walked in the back door and stolen $50 in cash and a diamond ring worth $50 from a bedroom dresser.

Planners Study Church Sites, Delay Decision

Two hours of heated discussion of church sites in Marinwood finally led only to decision today by the Marin County Planning Commission to postpone final decision on proposed master plan amendment to Dec. 19 in hope that first-hand inspection of the land will bring more light.

Bishop James A. Pike of the Episcopal Diocese of California had sent one of many communications backing the desire of the Church of the Nativity, which has been operating in a home in Marinwood for three years, to have four acres at the end of Ellen Drive, off Las Gallinas Avenue, designated as a church site in place of one of four sites now on the master plan.

The bishop declared that "no less than two and one-half acres is needed." This view was upheld by the vicar, Rev. Llewellyn White, as well as members of the congregation.

White insisted, against opposition from attorney Julius Selinger, representing developer Gerald G. Hoytt, that only one of the sites had been made available for purchase. Selinger said this was incredible since Hoytt must sell all the sites for church uses if any.

Nearby residents objected to a church into an area where one had not been contemplated. There was much argument over the suitability of the proposed site, to which access is over a street with 14 per cent grade.

Commissioner Felix M. Warburg declared, "We're dealing largely with a real estate problem and I don't think a master plan should be changed on that basis alone."

In agreeing to a continuance moved by Commissioner Neils Schultz Jr., chairman William Upton said "we'd better take a look and seek a more objective opinion."

"an interesting and constructive study which I am sure will be carefully analyzed by the Congress and the incoming administration." Action by Congress would be required to put many of the reforms into effect, which probably would mean a battle.

The committee said the system of three separate service secretaries only encourages the secretaries to subordinate the national interest to the interests of the individual services.

The committee also called for abolishing the posts of under-secretaries and assistant secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force. The defense secretary would administer the affairs of the three services.

The civilian command of the defense department would confor administration and an undersecretary for weapons systems.

Three directorates for research and engineering, procurement and production and installations of all armed services would be set up under the undersecretary for weapons systems.

A new post of assistant to the defense secretary for arms control would be created. He would represent the Defense Department in disarmament planning with other departments, chiefly the State Department.

Revision of the joint chiefs would involve appointment of a chairman who would preside over a new military advisory council. It would be composed of senior officers taken out of their services or retired men who would promise never to return to their individual services.

The Symington group said its plan would relieve members of the joint staff from any "control" by their respective services so their consciences could be the deciding factor in judging issues involving national security.

The committee plans envisioned three unified miliary commands — strategic, tactical and defense.

The strategic command would be an offensive branch that would react in case of general or nuclear war. The tactical command would react in the event of a limited war, while the defense command would be responsible for the defense of the United States.

Symington also envisioned what would amount to a fourth command. It would be responsible for the National Guard, the military reserves and civil defense.

Nerves Produce Variety Of Ills

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Too many of us have been told, your trouble is nerves, just nerves.

Nervousness is not unusual. But it should not be dismissed lightly. More and more doctors are coming to the conclusion that nervous tension is the result of a chemical imbalance in the body.

Nerves can cause an upset stomach, pains in the chest, legs and other parts of the body. What causes these pains and the chemical imbalance in the body?

Your spine consists of 24 bone segments. These bones sit on top of each other. They have a hole in the center and through this hole passes your spinal cord and the nerves to all parts of your body.

A fall, a sudden twist or even poor posture may move one of these spinal segments or vertebrae slightly out of line. Nerves become pinched when this happens and a chemical imbalance can result. You begin to feel irritable and have pains and evenutally break down in health.

Chiropractors use X-ray and other scientific instruments to determine whether your nervous tension is caused by a misaligned spine. They are well-trained to correct such defects and help restore you to health.

Pony Express Unit Seeking Way To Expend Fund

Waddell F. Smith of San Rafael, president of the National Pony Express Centennial Assn., has been appointed to a committee to study the way to spend $50,000 to $75,000 in excess association funds, announced Clarence A. Reeder, Jr., executive secretary.

Most of the money in the fund came from the sale of letters carried in the Pony Express re-run last July in honor of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the pony express, Reeder said.

One project being considered is the construction of permanent markers commemorating the 1,966-mile pony express route between Sacramento and St. Joseph, Mo.

The Pony Express went out of business 18 months after its founding when transcontinental telegraph lines were installed.

CHP Nabs 3 Climbing On Bridge

Now they're using the Golden Gate Bridge for a trapeze, or something.

This was news to California Highway Patrolmen Vincent C. Weimer and J. F. Allison when at 3:17 a.m. today they received a call that three teen-agers were performing acrobatics somewhere on the span.

At 4:50 a.m. the patrolmen spied two boys and a girl walking north on the sidewalk, one of the youths with a long rope over his shoulder.

The three disappeared before the patrolmen could swing their southbound car around, but were caught a few minutes later in an auto that entered the bridge from the Fort Point road.

All three had daubs of the bridge's orange paint on their hands, faces and garments. A rope was coiled in the car.

The three said they belong to a mountain climbing organization and were "getting some practice" on the bridge. Patrol officers felt there should be some charge against the three, but were puzzled over what section of state code would cover climbing on a bridge.

Army Engineers Study Radioactivity In Bay

Tests are being made by the Army Corps of Engineers at its Sausalito Bay model to try to determine what would happen should radioactive poison enter San Francisco Bay if there were a ship collision in which a nuclear-powered craft was involved.

two agencies, the Maritime Administration and the Public Health Service, Col. John A. Morrison, district engineer, said today.

The Savannah, a commercial ship run by atomic power, is operated by the administration and, according to bay model chief engineer Edward A. Schultz, may visit San Francisco next year.

The Public Health Service asked for studies of pollution caused by industrial wastes and municipal sewage.

Tests are being made in five spots in the bay model: Two in the vicinity of Mare Island Strait, from which atomic-powered submarines are operated, one at a passenger pier at the embarcadero in San Francisco, one at the Golden Gate and one in the Oakland inner harbor.

Radioactive material is simulated by Rhodamine B dye, a fluorescent dye, in the bay model. It circulates around the bay with the water movement until diluted. An attempt is made to see where it goes, how quickly, and the density of it.

Release of the dye is detected by an instrument called a fluoremeter which can detect the dye in parts as small as one part in one billion.

For the Maritime Administration, the model is run for 40 cycles, each 15 minutes or the equivalent of one day on the bay. Ten hours is equivalent to 40 days. There will be about 2,400 samples in the complete 40 cycle test.

Model tests are expected to be finished this week, Colonel Morrison said, and evaluated data is to be turned over to the Maritime Administration in March, at which time it is expected to be made available to the public.

Algiers Revolt Leader Skips French Trial

PARIS (UPI)—Algerian settlers' revolt leader Pierre Lagaillarde was reported today to have fled to Spain along with four defendants under trial for their roles in the Algiers barricades rebellion of January, 1960.

Lagaillarde and the other four men failed to show up today when the military trial resumed after a four-day recess. His defense lawyer told newsmen: "I think he has gone to Spain."

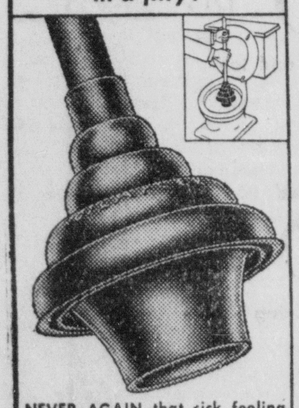

Less than two hours after the red-bearded Lagaillardes's flight was reported, President Charles de Gaulle called in Premier Michel Debre for an extraordinary 40-minute meeting. No details of the discussion were announced.

The escape of the 29-year-old deputy and former paratrooper created fears that rightwing Algerian settlers hostile to de Gaulle's Algerian policy may be planning to set up an independent government in the war-torn African territory.

FLIRT INSTEAD OF SMOKING, MEDIC ADVISES

LONDON (UPI)—A British doctor today advised jaded business men to pack up their troubles by reaching for a blonde or brunette instead of a cigarette.

Dr. Alistair Mackinnon, 45, the father of five grown children, put forth his "don't smoke—flirt" theory in the medical magazine, the Practioner.

His opinion is that a light romance is the ideal way to make a man forget routine troubles.

"I would not suggest flirtation as an alternative to smoking for younger men," he hastened to add. "That could be dangerous."

S.F. Youth Hurt In Minor Crash

Alex H. Holidoff, 18, of San Francisco, was treated for multiple cuts of the forehead and right ear at San Rafael General Hospital yesterday afternoon after being shaken up in a minor car collision at the Lincoln Avenue entrance to Highway 101 in San Rafael.

Holidoff was a passenger in a car driven by Grover Charles Wise, 19, of San Bruno. Wise was driving directly behind a car operated by Oscar Lawrence Leak of 1602 Vallejo Avenue, Novato, and both vehicles had halted before entering the freeway. Leak started but slowed and Wise rammed his car from behind, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Big Three Recess Atom Test Talks

GENEVA (UPI)—The United States, Britain and Russia today agreed to recess the 2-year-old nuclear test ban conference for a prolonged Christmas vacation with a decisive showdown in the offing when it resumes.

U. S. delegate Charles C. Stelle told today's 30-minute meeting "no one could predict the future of the conference, but it would seem to me that its next session will be decisive."

The recess is scheduled to last until Feb. 7 to premit the incoming Kennedy administration to take stock of outstanding problems, Western conference sources said.

It is the third Christmas vacation since the talks began in October, 1958.

Steele said, "the experience of recent weeks does not offer the promise of immediate progress."

He told Soviet delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin, "I would commend some careful Soviet soul-searching" on outstanding problems.

Marin Salad Dressing Firm Sold, Will Leave

San Rafael lost one of its most successful small businesses today with the sale of Girard's, Inc., to the Westgate-California Corp. of San Diego.

The Girard's plant, located at 502 Irwin Street for almost 10 years, manufactured Girard's Original French Dressing and Girard's Wine Vinegar French Dressing.

Rufus Rhoades, president of the firm since he organized it in 1939, said he regretted that the company had to be moved out of Marin.

"The increasing competition in the industry has made it extremely difficult for a small business to continue to grow," he said. "Westgate has the money and the know-how to make products national. I wish them wonderful success."

Rhoades said he did not know the plans of the new owners in regard to the 10 employees now with the San Rafael plant. "It is possible some of them, if not all, will be asked to move with the job to San Diego," he said.

The plant, he said, would remain in San Rafael until next spring.

The company recently developed two new oil dressings, one flavored with fresh garlic and the other with paprika. The new formulas go with the sale of the corporation, Rhoades said.

The original recipes for Girard's dressings came from the historic Girard's French Restaurant which was located in San Francisco on Maiden Lane before the turn of the century. The recipes are basically the same as the originals, Rhoades said.

The new owners manufacture Breast O' Chicken tuna and Purr Cat Food.

Until now, Girard's outlets to chain stores and wholesalers have been restricted to the west coast, Arizona, Texas and the Carolinas, Rhoades said.

C. Arnholt Smith, president of Westgate-California Corp., was expected to arrive in San Rafael today to take over the plant. Terms of the sale were not announced.

Crew Digging For Water Strikes Gas

North Marin Water District workmen hit gas when they dug into the street at the intersection of Grant and Machin Streets in Novato today.

They nicked a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. line with the rydraulic digger being used to excavate for replacement of an old water line with a new one.

Gas pressure dropped in the area, a PG&E spokesman said, but apparently hadn't affected householders too much as no complaint calls had come in about two hours after the line was punctured.

It was expected to be repaired by this afternoon.

At the time of his retirement Case was chief of the training division of the G3 (plans and training) section of headquarters at the San Francisco Presidio.

Trial Set For Marin Slayer In Coors Death

Trial of Joseph Corbett Jr., Marin County slayer, for the kidnap-murder of millionaire brewer Adolph Coors III was set today for March 13 in Golden, Colo.

Judge Christian Stoner of district court there set the trial date and appointed attorneys H. Malcolm Mackay and William E. Erickson to represent Corbett after the California prison escapee told the court he nor his family had enough money to hire a lawyer, United Press International reported.

Mackay originally was hired to represent Corbett by the accused man's father but asked to withdraw today because there was no money to pay him. By being court appointed, he and Erickson will be paid by Jefferson County.

Corbett was accused of killing Coors after the wealthy man was kidnaped near his home last Feb. 9.

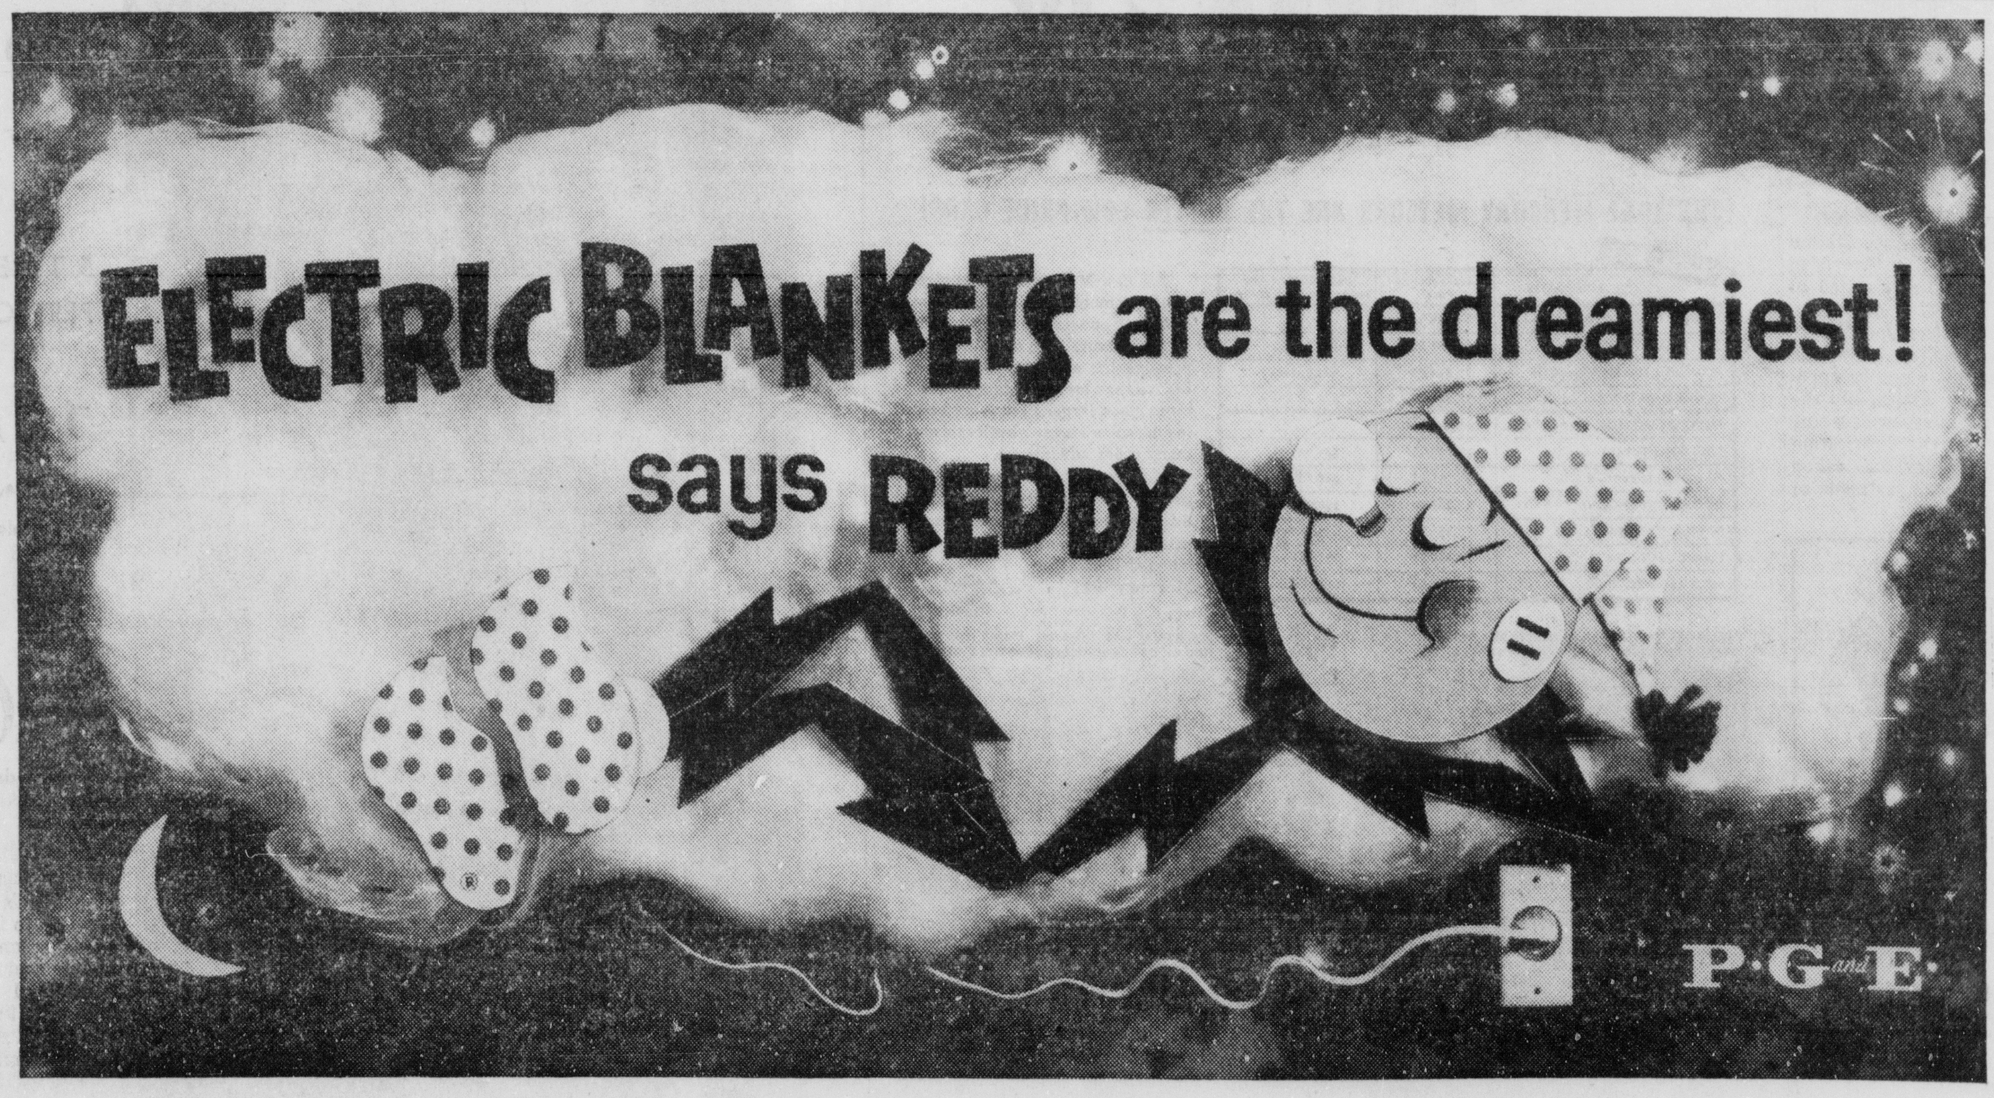

After being on the Federal Bureau of Investigation's list of 10 most wanted men for about seven months, Corbett was arrested in Vancouver, B.C., on Oct. 29, and returned to Colorado on a murder warrant. He pleaded innocent at his arraignment.

Corbett was convicted of the murder of Air Force Sgt. Allen Lee Read, who was shot twice in the head and whose body was dumped from a car in Larkspur on Dec. 22, 1950. He drew a life sentence, but escaped from Chino State Prison in 1955.

Sinterklass, Holland's version of Santa Claus, sailed into Sausalito's yacht harbor from Spain Saturday afternoon.

Arriving on the yacht Jimax III, Saint Nicholas was officially welcomed by Otto I. M. Porton, president of the Holland-American Society of California, sponsor of the visit.

Also on hand to greet the saint were a throng of children, Sausalito Mayor Phillip S. Erlich and H. E. Van Ravenstein, consul general of The Netherlands.

The colorful arrival was patterned after the traditional Dutch ceremony in which Sinterklass is welcomed in Amsterdam by the mayor and city fathers.

In Holland, the old man arrives carrying a large, golden-lettered book in which the names of all the good (and bad) are written. St. Nicholas then has a word of praise for the good children and a few stern remarks for those who have been bad.

Legend has it that the bad children are punished by taking them back to Spain, where they must spend the year wrapping gifts for the next Christmas.

Unlike our Santa Claus, Sinterklass hands out his gifts on the eve of Dec. 5, his birthday. In Holland Christmas Day is observed only as a religious holiday.

The Dutch celebration is reenacted each year by members of the Holland-American Society as part of their effort to pass on the tradition to their children. The society has a number of members in Marin County, including directors Gerrit Muelenkamp and Carel F. Stahl of San Rafael and G. L. van der Hoven of Corte Madera.

The role of St. Nicholas was played by Hubert J. Penn.

Administrators Of Schools Meeting

LONG BEACH (UPI)—A week-long convention of the California Assn. of School Administrators began today at Municipal Auditorium.

Theme of the convention, which drew educational leaders from throughout California, was "Developing Responsible Citizenship."

Dr. Roy E. Simpson, state superintendent of public instruction, was scheduled to speak tonight on "Days for Decisions." Such topics as federal aid, school financing, programs for the gifted student and teacher credentials were expected to be covered during the convention.

AF Probing Cause Of Big Missile Blast

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—The Air Force today studied the shattered ruins of a Titan intercontinental ballistic missile, trying to learn why it exploded shortly after fueling.

Damage from the blast Saturday night was estimated at between four million and six million dollars, and Air Force spokesman said. The missile is destined for a major role as an ocean-spanning nuclear weapon.

The Air Force was unable to estimate how long the Titan program will be delayed by the explosion.

This was the first explosion of a Titan at this base, 170 miles northwest of Los Angeles. Similar explosions have occurred at Cape Canaveral, Fla.

The Air Force said the 97-foot long Titan was being lowered into its underground concrete silo with a roar that shook windows 25 miles away.

There were no injuries—crews were in an underground building several hundred yards away.

A Minnesota Bar Assn. survey revealed that lawyers in cities with 10,000 to 20,000 population make more money on the average than those in major cities.

Red China's President Endorses Soviet Policy

MOSCOW (AP) — Communist China's president today put a stamp of approval on the peaceful co-existence policy of the Soviet Union as it apparently has been ratified by the Communist summit conference.

In a goodby speech at Leningrad, before continuing his tour of the Soviet Union, President Liu Shao-chi made a confession of faith in Soviet leadership.

"The great Soviet Union," he said, "has always been and is today a powerful bastion of world peace. The initiative of the Soviet government and its proposals aimed at easing international disarmament and peaceful co-existence between countries with differing social systems have the sympathy and support of all peace-loving nations and peoples."

He said further that the recent summit conference, "resulted in a still further strengthening of the cohesion of the entire Communist movement and in a still further strengthening of the solidarity between the Communist party of China and the Communist party of the Soviet Union, between the People's Republic of China and the Soviet Union."

Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, published a long editorial a week ago in which it stated that peaceful co-existence as interpreted by Premier Nikita Khrushchev is the correct interpretation.

Coming as it did near the end of the conference, after more than two weeks of debate, it sounded as if the Soviets had laid down the law as they saw it.

The speech by Liu Shao-chi was his way of saying that the man who pays the piper calls the tune. In his speech, he made it abundantly clear by pointing out that China's industrial and technical advances were heavily dependent on Soviet production.

"You manufacture for our country a great amount of intricate equipment," he said, "make available to us a great amount of designing documentation, send us skilled specialists, train for our country a great number of technical specialists."

Green Bay Worries 49ers, Hickey Admits

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

"Our shotgun offense is solid," Red Hickey said today as he savored the sweetness of yesterday's 23-7 win over the Rams in Los Angeles that catapulted his 49ers into a triple tie with the Colts and Packers for the NFL Western Division lead.

"I just hope they keep thinking it's a rinky dink formation," said Hickey.

The rinky dink tag was put on the new double-wing spread formation by the Colts a week ago when the 49ers upset the defending champions with it.

"Regardless of what they put up in the way of defense there is going to be some small weakness—and that's all we want, a small percentage," said Hickey. "We think we have a pretty good audible supplement by our quarterback to take advantage of any edge."

Hickey declared it was "mighty nice" to have the help of the Detroit Lions and Green Bay Packers whose respective victories over the Colts and Chicago Bears yesterday made the triple tie possible.

"But now," he said, "we can't expect anyone else to do it for us. We must do it on our own."

Hickey referred, of course, to a possible 49er division championship which only three weeks ago looked hopeless before he introduced his shotgun offense.

The Packers come into Kezar Stadium this Saturday and the following week the Colts are on tap for the season finale.

"My only immediate worry is the Packers who beat us good early in the season," said Hickey.

With a four-man rush and over-shifted linebackers, the Rams contained 49er right-sided sweeps and threatened passes until midway in the second quarter. Then quarterback John Brodie began working audible signals that sent C. R. Roberts to the left on reverses. When the Rams shifted back to stop C.R., Brodie sent J. D. Smith reversing in the other direction and opened up with the same kind of right-side passes that beat the Colts.

The shotgun offense still needed additional support—and it got it from another sparkling contribution from the 49er defensive team, particularly Dave Baker who picked off four Ram passes. Baker's four interceptions set a one game 49er record by a 49er player. The previous theft record in one game was three, jointly held by Lowell Wagner and Dick Moegle.

In the last three games, Baker has a total of nine thefts which equals Wagner's record season high set a number of years ago.

Roberts, turned loose as a reject a year ago by both the New York Giants and Pittsburgh Steelers, scored the opening touchdown against the Rams with three minutes to go in the first half. He did it on a 10-yard reverse to the left side after Brodie moved his teammates 70 yards in eight plays, the biggest one being a 17-yard romp by Honest John himself to the Ram 10.

Tommy Davis, who later was to kick three field goals—two from inside the 10-yard line, the other from 27 yards—then added the PAT as he also did following a spectacular 65-yard TD pass from Brodie to Clyde Conner.

EAGLES 'IN,' BUT . . .

Terrific Logjam In Western Race

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Football League championship game will match Philadelphia's streaking Eagles against Baltimore or Green Bay or San Francisco or Chicago or Detroit.

That was the situation today, with only two weeks left in the regular season. The Eagles clinched their first Eastern Conference title since 1949 by whipping the St. Louis Cardinals 20-6 yesterday for their ninth consecutive triumph.

The Baltimore Colts, seeking to gain a playoff berth for an unprecedented third consecutive time, were beaten by the Detroit Lions 20-15 when Earl Morral connected with Jim Gibbons for a 65-yard touchdown pass on the last play of the game.

The loss dropped Baltimore into a three-way tie for first place in the Western Division with Green Bay and San Francisco, all with 6-4 records, while Chicago (5-4-1) and Detroit (5-5) remained solidly in contention.

The Packers, getting a 23-point performance from Paul Hornung that gave him 152 for the campaign and broke Don Hutson's 18-year-old one-season scoring record, walloped the Bears 41-13. The 49ers moved into position by blasting Los Angeles 23-7 before a crowd of 77,254.

The Cleveland Browns grabbed the runner-up spot in the East with a 27-16 victory over Washington while winless Dallas tied the New York Giants 31-31.

Norm Van Brocklin, a 34-year-old veteran who was a rookie with Los Angeles when Philadelphia last captured the Eastern championship, passed for two touchdowns and Bobby Walston kicked a pair of field goals for the Eagles (9-1). Van Brocklin hit Pete Retzlaff with a 22-yarder, then pitched a 25-yarder to Tom McDonald after the Cards (5-5-1) had scored on Mal Mammack's two-yard plunge in the third period.

LIONS STRIKE

The Colts scored what appeared to be the winning touchdown with 14 seconds left when Johnny Unitas, who had previously unleashed an 80-yard TD heave to Lenny Moore, fired a 34-yard scoring aerial to the fleet halfback for a 15-13 lead. But Morrall, on the bench for the first three periods, completed a 17-point fourth-quarter surge for Detroit by whipping the clincher to Gibbons following the kickoff.

Hornung carried the Packers to their overwhelming triumph against the Bears by scoring twice on a 10-yard run and a 17-yard pass from Bart Starr, kicking two field goals and five conversions while eclipsing the NFL scoring record set by Green Bay's Hutson in 1942. Chicago's touchdowns came on a 10-yard Ed Brown to Willie Dewveall pass and a 20-yard toss from Zeke Bratkowski to Jim Dooley.

They had just been beaten 24-0 by the Detroit Lions and had a 3-4 record.

More than 1,000 cheering fans greeted the 49ers last night when they arrived home after beating the Rams 23-7 in Los Angeles.

With three straight victories on the road trip, the 49ers now have a 6-4 record and share the National Football League's Western Division lead with Baltimore and Green Bay.

McKeevers Go Separate Ways After Wedding

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The McKeever twins, perennial disciples of football togetherness, were split up today for the first time in several years—on their honeymoons.

Marlin went north to a beach resort," said a friend "and Mike went south to a beach."

As late as last Saturday, All-America end Marlin and All-Coast guard Mike were still a pair. They were married in a double ceremony at St. Vincent's Catholic church near the USC campus.

Raiders' Housewarming Ruined By L.A., 41-17

Candlestick Park could prove popular as a football stadium. The Oakland Raiders drew more fans there yesterday—12,061—than they have in any game at Kezar Stadium.

Although the field was soft from rain during the week, the game proved that football can be played in Candlestick, home of the San Francisco Giants.

But Los Angeles ruined the housewarming as far as Bay Area fans were concerned. The Chargers came from behind to score 27 points in the final period and grab a 41-17 victory.

That left the Chargers guaranteed of no worse than a tie for the Western Division title in the new American Football League. With two games to go, they have an 8-4 record with second place Dallas at 6-6. Yesterday's loss put Oakland out of the running with 5-7.

Quarterback Jack Kemp, the big gun for Los Angeles, passed for three touchdowns and ran for two more. The only one in which he didn't figure was the finale—a 48-yard run by defensive lineman Rommie Loudd after picking up a Babe Parilli fumble.

Kemp connected on a 49-yard pass play to halfback Paul Lowe for the go-ahead touchdown in the final period and then scored on quarterback keepers of six and nine yards.

In the 14-14 first half, he threw a three-yard scoring pass to Royce Womble and one for 21 yards to Don Norton.

Los Angeles can sew up the divisional title Saturday when they host the Denver Broncos. Oakland is at Candlestick again Sunday to face the New York Titans.

Oakland's touchdowns came on a two-yard plunge by fullback Billy Lott and an 11-yard pass from quarterback Tom Flores to end Charlie Hardy.

Larry Barnes, who missed three times earlier, put the Raiders into a 17-14 third quarter lead with a 25-yard field goal.

The switch to Candlestick came because of scheduling problems for the Raiders' final two games. It could give the AFL club a needed box office boost since Oakland fans find it more accessible than Kezar.

Bakersfield Romps To 50-28 Bowl Victory

BAKERSFIELD (AP)—Quarterback Dean Newby raced the opening kickoff back 84 yards for a touchdown Saturday to pave the way for a 50-28 football triumph by Bakersfield over Cerritos College in the annual Potato Bowl. A crowd of 18,430 saw the Renegades roll up 34 points in the first half.

BIG TRADE

Kuenn Will Be In Lineup, But Where?

Now that the San Francisco Giants have sharp hitting Harvey Kuenn, the big question is where will he play?

The Giants got Kuenn from the Cleveland Indians Saturday in a trade for southpaw John Antonelli and outfielder Willie Kirkland.

Kuenn, 30, is a versatile, right handed hitter. He came up to the major leagues as a shortstop with Detroit, but in recent years he's also played third, first and the outfield.

The decision rests on Jim Davenport's future. If Davenport, one of the finest fielding third basemen in baseball, comes back strong after his ulcer and leg ailments, he'll keep his job. If Davenport can't regain his old form, Kuenn will be the third baseman.

But Al Dark, the Giants' new manager, will play Kuenn somewhere in the lineup. The rugged Kuenn led the American League in hitting on 1959 with a .353 mark and rapped .308 last year.

MIXED EMOTIONS

The departure of Antonelli and Kirkland brought mixed emotions from San Francisco.

Antonelli, a talented pitcher, was hooted by the fans after he declared he didn't like pitching in windy Candlestick Park. He did some good work last season as a spot relief pitcher, but wound up with a 6-7 record, sub-par for him. The Indians said Antonelli will get a chance as a starting pitcher again.

Kirkland, a slugger who will be 27 when the 1961 season opens, had a lot of fans here but proved a disappointment in the second half of last season. After a great start, he slumped badly for more than a month and wound up with a .252 average. But he clouted 21 home runs. The Indians said they hoped to make a center fielder out of him.

The Giants are still in the market for a catcher and another starting pitcher — but they're running short of trading bait.

N.Y.U. will have eight lettermen playing basketball this season. the team compiled a 22-5 record last season.

49ers Play Cinderella Role In Wackiest Of All Football Scripts

CONNOLLY

The fella who writes the scripts for the Western Conference of the National Professional Football League would get laughed out of Hollywood if he tried to sell 'em this year's story.

Two weeks to go in the regular schedule, and FIVE teams have a crack at the title!

Don't look now, but the San Francisco Cinderellas are tied for first place with the mighty Baltimore Colts and Green Bay Packers, with the Chicago Bears and the upstart Detroit Lions breathing on their necks.

The first guy who says "I told you so" is gonna get another hole in his head. I still don't believe it and neither do you!

Yesterday's 23 to 7 win over the Los Angeles Rams was mighty satisfying in many respects, but you came away feeling that the 49ers didn't beat much of a team. Are the Rams that bad or are the 49ers that good?

ON THE credit side, it is a pleasure to see the 49ers with an offense that can go outside, inside and up the middle again. Call it the single wing, double wing or "shotgun formation," the 49er backs are finally getting the blocking they have needed these many months.

On the debit side is the uneasy feeling that the Colts and the Packers may come up with the key that locks up the new 49er offense. The Rams messed it up pretty good on occasion. The answer lies in the head of quarterback John Brodie.

If Brodie can keep the defense off balance with clever and imaginative play calling he can keep this gang moving against any club in the league. That and the other indispensable: Luck. Good luck that is.

THE PAST is past and all eyes turn to next Saturday's headon-er with the Green Bay Packers at Kezar. The team that wins that one has one foot in the door.

In the first meeting of these teams at Milwaukee on Oct. —, the 49ers really smelled out the joint, losing 41 to 14. They can't be that bad again, and will be out to redeem themselves for that poor showing. Remember, too, that this is a different team the Packers will be facing.

You can bet the Packers coaches, Vince Lombardi, Phil Bengtson and company are pouring over 49er films of the past three weeks looking for the answer. Coach Red Hickey rang in some new patterns against the Rams and I hope he has a few more new tricks saved for the Packers. Surprise is the keynote.

ACTUALLY the Colts have the best bulge in the schedule as they play the Rams this Sunday after they know the outcome of the Kezar game on Saturday, and then have another week to plan for the season ender against the 49ers.

On the other hand, the Colts have always had trouble in the L.A. Coliseum and the season has already proved that anything, but anything can happen. And usually does.

If somebody can stop the clock before midnight, this Cinderella team of ours may put the wackiest ending to the wackiest season yet.

RAY MAY RETIRE

Fullmer Vs. Moore Slated Next April

LOS ANGELES (AP)—NBA middleweight champion Gene Fullmer set his sights on 'Ol Archie Moore's version of the light-heavyweight title after turning back Sugar Ray Robinson's gallant bid to recapture the 160-pound crown for the sixth time. Robinson, described by his manager as heartbroken over Saturday night's draw with Fullmer, was considering hanging up his gloves.

"I've always wanted to try Moore on for size and now it looks as if I'll get my chance," said Fullmer.

Moore said, "After all, Fullmer should like to fight me. He'd be getting a shot at a REALLY old man."

Parnassus said he hopes to stage the Fullmer-Moore battle, if plans work out, in April outdoors in Memorial Coliseum.

For their savage war Saturday, Fullmer took 40 per cent and Robinson 20 per cent of the gross gate of $122,584 plus $100,000 for television.

BULL RUSHES

Fullmer, relying on bull-like rushes to wear down Robinson, guarded his jaw with his gloves as if he had a jowlful of jewels. Robinson tried to steal the jewels with some nifty combinations. Several times he shook the charging champion and in the savage 11th round he popped Fullmer with two right hand leads that would have knocked the head off a marble statue. But Fullmer merely blinked and flurried back.

The referee scored the fight for Robinson (11 to 4) under California's scoring system that gives the winner of a round one or more points up to five and the loser none. However, one judge voted for Fullmer 9-5 and the other judge called it a draw, 8-8.

yards in the 49er end zone to the midfield stripe. Ed Meador, the Rams' best defensive man, stopped Woodson from going all the way. But Abe's effort still was good for another field goal by Davis, this one the 27-yarder.

Then came the Brodie-Conner beauty, the sure-handed 49er end making the catch on the Ram 34 and taking it in from there despite a desperate shoestring tackle try by Vernon Valdez on the five yard line.

Baker made his third interception as the fourth quarter opened. It stopped a Ram drive on the 49er 30 and set the stage for Smith and Roberts to do their best reversing of the afternoon. In seven plays they took the ball to the Ram one, but that was as far as they could get so Davis booted his third field goal from the seven.

Then the Rams, with the game out of reach, went 80 yards in 12 plays of rtheir only tally which Frank Ryan, Bill Wade's quarterback substitute, bootlegged from the two.

R. C. Owens, the Alley-Oop kid whose shoulder was injured in the Colt game, made only two brief appearances before the L. A. Coliseum crowd of 77,254.

Owens' thrilling Alley-Oop leaps were not needed against the Rams who now have lost four straight games to the 49ers,—two this year, two last season—making Hickey, once a Ram coach, 4-0 against his old teammates.

SIXTO FAVORED OVER BRITON IN S.F. FIGHT

California State Lightheavyweight Champion Sixto Rodriguez of San Anselmo pits his youth against experience tonight when he tangles with Britain's Johnny Sullivan in a 10-round feature at San Francisco's Kezar Pavilion. Sixto is the 8 to 5 favorite.

Sullivan, one-time holder of the British middleweight title, has battled some of the best. He made three television appearances, and fought such stars as Joey Giambra, Rocky Castellani, Yolande Pompey, Willie Troy and Eduardo Lausse.

Rodriguez, a growing boy managed by Karl Ashley of San Anselmo, hopes to make a bid for the world light heavyweight crown by mid-1961. He has scored six knockouts in running up a record of 24 wins, four defeats and two draws.

Sullivan, on the come-back trail, has a record of 68-22-3, including 36 knockouts. He has shown a good body attack during workouts here.

First bout on the card starts at 8:30 o'clock.

Cal Driver Sets Record At Nassau

The young daredevil gunned his Lotus to the front on the 40th lap yesterday and finished a minute ahead at an average speed of 89.544 miles an hour.

Pedro Rodriguez of Mexico finished second and third was Gaston Andrey of Switzerland in a Maserati. Fourth came Joakim Bonnier of Sweden in a Porsche.

The race was thrown wide open on the first lap when Stirling Moss of England, the favorite, had to drop out. The hood flew off Moss' green Lotus Monte Carlo.

Marin Cagers Find Victory Quite Elusive

Through the first nine games of the young season only San Rafael and Tamalpais have found the victory column—the former's in an overtime game at Sonoma and the latter's against an alumni team.

The Marin schools' losing record picked up two more victims Saturday as the Tam Indians were soundly thrashed by Sacred Heart 48-25 in San Francisco and the Novato Hornets suffered a 43-25 licking from Healdsburg High, their second setback.

Other schools' records show Redwood loser of two and Drake and Marin Catholic loser of one each for the not-so-grand total of seven losses and two wins.

Fortunately the league's tournament starts tomorrow (see above) so at least two Marin teams HAVE to get a victory.

Someone must have put a lid on the basket for Tam shooters couldn't find the range. They hit only 8 of 28 field goal attempts and only 9 of 27 foul shots.

This cold shooting saw them fall behind a 2-14 deficit in the first quarter, 24-10 at half and 38-14 at the end of the third stanza. Warren Domino's eight points were high for Tam, whose B team also lost, 29-14.

Tam plays at Jefferson in Daly City Wednesday afternoon.

Bill Tuel clicked for 10 points for Novato, but the Hornets were no match for Healdsburg of the North Bay League.

IMAGINATIVE table arrangements for the holidays will be among the articles available at the Christmas Greens sale. Mrs. Terry E. Van Gorder, a member of the Decorations Guild, was photographed with this arrangement of holly combined with brightly colored Christmas ornaments, on a table set with china, silver, and crystal. Decorations Guild Readies For Sale

Fingers are quickening in the making of Christmas wreaths, eucalyptus Yule logs and gay holiday decorations for the annual Greens Sale to be held Dec. 16, 17, 18 at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross.

Sponsored by the Decorations Guild, the sale was started 13 years ago to raise money for the newly-formed Art and Garden Center. Its purpose is the same today, with the added aim of stimulating the creation of objects of beauty.

A record-breaking advance sale has and is taking place, according to Mrs. Marion F. Ludlow of San Rafael, chairman of this year's sale.

Full of drive, energy and ideas, members of the Guild have been working every day for months preparing the beautiful items.

A public preview party, with music and free hot punch, open to the public is scheduled for Friday, Dec. 16 from 6 to 10 p.m. Hours on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 17 and 18 will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

New Trims Make Holiday Right, Bright

NEW YORK (UPI)—The bees won't tell you, but what's new in honeycomb this Christmas is really honey for the housewife preparing for a party.

Honeycomb is the name for the paper process used in making those old red Christmas bells, which nearly everyone remembers from childhood. Its outstanding characteristic—elasticity — allows it to be pulled back and forth much in the manner of an accordion—and makes it ideal for party decorations.

Whether you're decorating for friends dropping in for eggnog, or a bridge club meeting shortly before Christmas, a handy helper for the Yuletide is a snowman party ensemble complete with invitations, a table centerpiece, plates, cups, place mats, napkins and similar items.

A snowy-white honeycomb snowman with red trimmings sets the mood for the ensemble and the design is carried out in the matching items. Jolly old St. Nicholas also is designed as a centerpiece, from red honeycomb, while a holly designs theme is carried out in an ensemble of snack plates, napkins, table cover, dinner plates, paper cups, aprons and even guest towels.

Honeycomb's versatility makes it easy to style in a variety of designs, many of them circular. There is, for example, a pair of gold-haloed angels styled from white honeycomb that lends a high-fashion air to festive Yule home decorations. Also white is a semi-circular Christmas tree adorned with golden doves and sequins.

The new decorations serve to give an added touch of festive glow to the table, to the door, or to the mantel.

'Country Christmas' Theme For Fashions With A View

"Make Mine a Country Christmas
Red and Green and Gay
Merry and bright from morn til night
An old fashioned holiday"

This gay greeting will set the mood for Thursday's delightful holiday luncheon amid the elegance and intimacy of the famed Ondine in Sausalito.

Fashions With a View, the tremendously popular new weekly series, will eye the town and country looks of Barbara McClure's select Belvedere shop with carols and candles to add to the holiday mood.

At the season of peace on earth and good will, the special "quests-with-a-viewpoint" will further spark this feeling saying "Make ours a Country Christmas"—but not saying which country.

Welcomed will be Mr. and Mrs. George Wheelwright of Marin dedicated supporters of the Experiment in International Living which promotes the cause of good will to men not just at Christmas time but all year round.

In 1961 the Experiment will send more than 1200 young Americans abroad to live as a member of a family in some 31 countries. And during the year about the same number of Experimenters from abroad will visit the United States.

Even the Thursday models will echo the sentiments of the Experiment as they say here's to a country Christmas. Guests will meet Shirley McClure, who lived with an Austrian family this past summer as an Experimenter and Mrs. William Byron Wallace complete with Pinata reminding her of the Mexican Christmas spent south of the border working for the Experiment.

Joining them will be Mrs. William Brantman and Mrs. Milton Romey whose world travels have taken them to many of the 31 Experiment countries.

Colorful fashions to "go over the river and through the wood" or to a gala Christmas party will be in the festive showing including suggestions for Santa to solve gift giving problems, with Christmas accents from Experiment countries to add an international flavor.

Reservations to enjoy Fashions With a View may be made by calling the Ondine in Sausalito.

Proper Etiquette On Christmas Presents

By VIVIAN BROWN

"Should I give him a gift if he gives one to me?"

"If my friend gives me a more expensive gift than I give her, what should I do?"

Girls are never obligated to give a gift to a boy, but she can present him a small gift if she desires.

Boys should not give a girl anything so costly that it embarrasses her.

Solution to the girl-to-girl gift problem is to give something you enjoy giving and can afford. If in turn you receive something more expensive than you gave, don't worry about it.

Many girls agree to exchange homemade gifts only. Scarves and socks are ideal items to knit for girls or boys. Long scarves in school colors are popular any year.

Many girls are giving school friends who expect early engagements gifts for their hope chests. Tiny homemade tea towels, dish towels, demitasse cup and saucer sets can be just right for those future honeymoon cottages.

Is there anyone who doesn't know that boys like to eat? Three, asked whether they would like a fruit cake for the holidays, chorused, "Who wouldn't?" Cookies, jams and jellies are particular hits with boys away at school.

A good quality handkerchief embroidered with the boy's name is another easy-to-make, inexpensive gift. Write his first name in pencil and embroider over it with plain white thread. Wash and iron before gift wrapping.

Odd-ball gifts, those that show more imagination than money, are popular. Decorate a mousetrap with sequins so that it can be used as a witty paper clip. Decorate a flyswatter, personalize it with the name in yarn, so that it can be used as a wall decoration. These gifts can be made for a few cents.

The new wobble board that makes a sound like water going down a drain is an off-beat idea for the Christmas sack. The 2x3 foot curved board makes its gloop-gloop sounds when you wobble it with your feet.

If best friends exchange presents, personality pins are fun. These are animal and insect motifs you can match up . . . give a butterfly to a social butterfly, a kitten to the cute-kitten type, a poodle for the sophisticated, a wise owl for the egghead, etc.

Good standbys are books. A new "Teen-age Treasury of Good Humor," edited by Seon Manley, contains a wonderful collection of stories by Don Marquis, James Thurber, Clarence Day, Will Cuppy and others.

Guild's Hostesses Announced For House Tour On Dec. 9

Hostesses for the five homes on the San Anselmo First Presbyterian Church Women's Guild house tour on Dec. 9 from 2 to 5 p.m. have been announced.

Various holiday themes will be carried out in the homes selected at different locations in the county. The general chairman is Mrs. Bradford Muse with Mrs. William Davis the tea chairman.

The glow of red candles and ribbon mixed with holly and Christmas greenery will enhance the charm of the English Country House, at the hillside residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Reid in San Anselmo. To assist Mrs. Reid in hostess duties will be Mrs. Charles Alfsnes, Mrs. Warren Landon and Mrs. Jack McVey.

A most interesting and informative theme will be carried out at the home of the associate pastor, Rev. and Mrs. Weaver Hess, namely that of an International Christmas. This is also a hillside home in San Anselmo at 281 Crescent Road. Each room will be decorated according to a chosen country, among them being a Mexican kitchen, a Japanese bedroom and a Swedish bedroom. Mrs. John Holm, Mrs. James Cole and Mrs. Clifford Coy will be hostesses.

The spacious home in Ross of Mrs. Hannah Mordecai will be the setting of a real American Christmas. To assist Mrs. Mordecai will be Mrs. Ruby Krelle, Mrs. Louis Cummings and Mrs. Vaughn Terry.

On the Belvedere lagoon, the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ongaro will have all the charm and fantasy of a very modern Christmas. Assisting with hostess duties will be Mrs. Frank Boyer, Mrs. H. D. Seiletstad, Mrs. M. S. Imes, Mrs. J. Fulton Morgan, Mrs. C. Hillers and Mrs. John Ongaro Jr.

A traditional Christmas tea will be served all afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gregory on Corte Soreno in Greenbrae. Those pouring tea will be Mrs. H. F. Girvin, Mrs. Hans E. Fischel, Mrs. William MacKay, Mrs. Howard Dunlap, Mrs. Robert C. Clapham, and Mrs. Allan J. Meadowcroft.

Transportation will be provided under the chairmanship of Mrs. Carl Benson. A special station wagon service will shuttle from the church to the two San Anselmo hillside homes. A baby sitter will also be on hand at the church.

The tickets are available through circle leaders, the church office and from Mrs. Hans Fischel, the ticket chairman. The public is invited to join in the holiday tour.

Christmas Play

A Christmas play will be presented by students of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades at the next meeting of the membership of the Bel Aire Unit of the Reed District Parent-Teacher Club. The unit will meet on Wednesday, Dec. 14 at 7:45 p.m. in the school's multi-purpose room according to Mrs. Robert Hamilton, president.

The following day a program of Christmas Carols will be presented by the primary grades at 1:15 at the school.

Novato School Children To Aid In 'World Clothing Week' Drive

Beginning today Novato school children will be bringing bundles of used clothing to school to aid needy children and adults in the United States and overseas.

The clothing drive, called "World Clothing Week," will continue through Dec. 11, and is part of a nationwide campaign sponsored by World Clothing Fund, Inc., a non-sectarian charitable organization which assists orphans and other needy children and adults.

Mrs. Charles Ridgeway, president of the North Marin P-TA Council, who have undertaken to sponsor this project, has this to say in announcing the drive: "We expect 'World Clothing Week' to be one of the finest service projects ever conducted in our schools."

All types of used clothing are needed: clothing for babies, children, teen-agers and adults, as well as shoes, caps, mittens and bedding. Clothing contributions should be deposited in the boxes and barrels which will be placed in all the Novato schools for that purpose.

Under the direction of co-chairmen Mrs. George Pelmear and Mrs. Philip Rosenberg, members from each P-TA unit, as well as the high school will help to distribute posters and literature, and pickup clothing and pack it in bags for shipping to World Clothing Fund, Inc. St. Louis' warehouse.

Working on this undertaking will be: Mrs. Louis Graxiola, Mrs. Walter Haught, and Mrs. Gene Williams (Lu Sutton); Mrs. R. L. Walsh, Mrs. R. J. Otis, Mrs. LeRoy Mason, Mrs. Charles Coniglio, and Mrs. W. J. Groves (Hill); Mrs. Robert Money and Mrs. Howard Schoof (Marion); Mrs. Charles Royce and Mrs. George Vierra (Novato High); Mrs. H. J. Marsh, Mrs. S. S. Thomas and Mrs. Stephan Shoemaker (Olive); Mrs. Jack Weatherholtz, Mrs. Fritz Lieberg, Mrs. Blaine Murray and Mrs. James Studley (West Novato).

A Christmas Letter To The Grandparents

Dear Grandma and Grandpa,

I have hesitated about writing this letter, but the holiday season is upon us and with my "Things to do" list growing endlessly, I feel an immediate need.

Remember the complicated, charming, imported (and I'm sure very expensive) soldier set you sent little Larry last Christmas? Well, believe me, we did love it. In fact, I remember the Daddies at our Christmas party sitting and watching those tiny soldiers parading while the music box played a march most of the afternoon.

I wish they hadn't tried to see what made it work, because I'm sure that's how the key got lost, but luckily a friend who's good at languages was there. He wrote the manufacturer and by April we could play it again.

This time I tied the key to it, but I didn't foresee the children would try to see what makes it work too or that the soldiers came part so easily or I would have had a lock made for it.

What I'm driving at is that although it has been a lovely decoration in Larry's room, alongside the armadillo who blows bubbles, he really hasn't played with them more than two or three times.

Then this afternoon while I was making the hors d' oeuvres for our dinner party he decided to watch the soldiers. I spent 45 minutes searching for the minute peg that makes the thing go, and then 10 minutes later I was taken aback by a wooden soldier standing directly in the center of a cheese puff.

I followed a trail of soldiers, pegs and tiny gears into the living room—Larry was outside by then—and I spent a good deal of time picking up those little pieces and cooling off.

Do you suppose you could send this year what I call a "creative toy?" I mean something made for more than looking at and that you can do all kinds of things with, like building blocks, a felt board, or some climbing equipment. The Johnsons have a climber the kids play on for hours, pretending it's a space ship or tropical jungle.

For my own peace of mind and tender back, I draw the line at paints that won't wash off and building sets that have hundreds of teeny pieces.

And one last plea—this year don't say to the saleslady, "He's only four, but he's got the mind of a seven-year-old. We know you're proud of your grandson, but he does love toys made for four-year-olds.

You know the very nicest gift we could have from you would be a visit at Christmas time. Try to plan a trip soon.

Emile

Kappa Alums Yule Party Set Dec. 10

Plans are under way for a gala holiday cocktail party to be given by the Marin Kappa alumnae for their husbands on Dec. 10 at the William Layton home in Kent Woodlands.

Highlighting the Christmas decor will be a tree cut by the Laytons on their Tahoe property and brought back for the holiday season. Christmas bells will sparkle on the buffet table and throughout the house, along with novel decorations created by Mrs. Layton including a miniature aluminum honeycomb tree, whose interior candle reflects on the myriad tiny ornaments.

Helping pass cocktails and canapes from 5 to 8 p.m. will be co-hostess Mrs. Paul Hartman Jr., assisted by Mrs. William L. Hildeburn Jr. New Kappas in the area are urged particularly to attend this annual get-acquainted party. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Hartman.

Cranberry table syrup is making its debut in Massachusetts. The states 4-H boys and girls will sell the syrup in their spare time for the State 4-H Club Foundation. It's for pancakes or waffles, grapefruit or other fruit, ice cream, cake or other dessert.

Stanley Brooks, Boys' Choir To Give Yule Program

Mrs. Earle Marsh, program chairman, has planned for the Outdoor Art Club's home day Christmas program Thursday a reading of selections from Dickens "Christmas Carol" to be given by Stanley Brooks.

These will be followed by a musical program to be presented by the Boys' Choir of the Mill Valley Episcopal Church of Our Saviour under the direction of Barry Mineah.

With the young choristers in mind, yuletide decor will include a Christmas cookie tree of artfully decorated and freshly baked cookies. On this project Mrs. William Perdue, decorations chairman, is being assisted by Mesdames R. L. Perry and J. L. Richardson.

Adding to the festive appearance of the clubhouse will be a display of paintings by pupils of Helen Gapen Oehler, whose popular outdoor art classes are sponsored by the club. Though many of her pupils have been painting for some years, others have had lessons for only a month or so.

Among the students who plan to exhibit are Mesdames Earle Bartholomew, William Fleming, Gordon Harrington, John C. Burnham, W. G. MacDonald, Henry Soderling, Nils Bjerke, Richard Tomczak, H. S. Hitchcock, Willard Pennell, John F. McCarthy, Charles Beck and Leland Spragle.

Community services chairman Mrs. Gerhard Becker reminds members to bring to the meeting gifts for two longtime club Christmas projects. Suggested are knitted shawls, stoles, candy, tobacco for the men and women at the Lucas Valley County Farm and games, books, clothing and sweets for the children at Sunny Hills.

The program is scheduled to start at 2 p.m. will be followed by tea.

Mary Jane Stickney Weds K. M. Jones

Mary Jane Stickney of Mill Valley became the bride of Kenneth M. Jones Friday evening, Dec. 2, in a 7 o'clock ceremony at the Corte Madera home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Jones.

Only members of the immediate families were present when the bride was given in marriage by her father, E. W. Letson of Mill Valley, in the double ring rites performed by Rev. George O. Loftness of the Lutheran Church in Corte Madera.

An arrangement of white flowers was placed on either side of the fireplace in front of which the couple stood for the ceremony.

The maid of honor, her only sister, Ann Letson, wore a purple wool suit. Mrs. Letson was attired in a brown suit and the mother of the bridegroom chose a blue print dress for the occasion. Each had a corsage of white roses.

Best man was Ronald Bradley of San Rafael.

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served. After a brief honeymoon at Carmel the newlyweds will live at 598 Corona Avenue, Petaluma.

The new Mrs. Jones was graduated from Tamalpais High School and was employed at the First National Bank in Kentfield until she resigned to get married.

Her husband is a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School and is employed as an assistant operations officer with the Bank of America in Sonoma County. He has one brother, Joseph Jones, who is serving with the U.S. Air Force in North Dakota, and a sister, Joyce Thomas of Corte Madera.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, Dec. 5, the 340th day of the year with 26 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Mercury and Mars.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1776, Phi Beta Kappa . . . the first scholastic fraternity in America . . . was organized.

In 1782, Martin Van Buren was born. He was the first U.S. president to be born a citizen.

In 1848, President Polk confirmed the discovery of gold in California, and the gold rush of '48 and '49 became inevitable.

In 1933, prohibition came to an end with Utah's ratification of the 21st amendment. This repealed the 18th, or prohibition, amendment.

In 1934, 66 persons were executed in Russia as a follow-up to "purge" trials. All of them were charged with "plotting" against the Stalin regime.

Thought for today: The American poet . . . Ralph Waldo Emerson said . . . "Nothing can bring you peace but yourself."

Basic Goal Of Gate Bridge Should Be Toll-Free Span

When directors of the Golden Gate Bridge District hired a $12,000-a-year public relations man, they certainly turned the publicity spot-light on themselves.

The situation has been the subject of a good many highly critical columns and editorials in Bay Area newspapers. Critics of the bridge have had a field day.

And a lot of plain ordinary people probably winced when they realized that it takes 48,000 people paying 25-cent tolls to pay the publicity man's $12,000 salary.

But it seems to us that there is a larger question not yet dealt with conclusively: What ought to be the guiding aims of the Golden Gate Bridge board?

A San Francisco paper the other day mentioned economy, opposition to petty empire building and dedication to the proposition that the bridge should be turned over to state management at the earliest possible date.

In our opinion those suggestions, good as they may be, do not strike at the heart of the matter.

It seems plain to us that the ultimate goal should be a debt-free toll-free bridge.

This means that when the debt is finally retired and tolls can be eliminated, the bridge must pass to state highway (or other public agency) for maintenance out of gas tax revenues.

We never held much with the idea that the tolls might be used, after debt retirement, for harbor development or airport development.

If the tolls from one debt-free Marin bridge are needed to aid in financing a necessary second crossing, that might be different.

In any event, we will stand on the idea that the ultimate goal ought to be a debt-free, toll-free Golden Gate Bridge.

Meanwhile, the bridge must be operated as efficiently as possible and maintained adequately with possible improvement where necessity dictates.

Since the people of the bridge district have nothing directly to say in the matter of choosing bridge directors, to whom do we look for leadership in establishing and persuing these goals?

In Marin County we must look to our Board of Supervisors who appoint the bridge directors and, when selecting men for appointment, have the opportunity of choosing those who are dedicated to achieving these ideal goals.

It ought to be obvious to all that the supervisors haven't done their jobs very effectively in this respect up to now. Let us hope this will be remedied in the days to come.

Buy, Use TB Seals

There were 45 newly reported cases of tuberculosis in Marin County last year, says the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Association.

As of now, there are 169 known TB cases in the county, 34 of them in Ross Terrace Hospital.

So you can see that although great strides have been made in the control of this disease, it still has a long ways to go before it is licked.

The Marin association, now 39 years old, operates the free chest X-ray service at Marin General Hospital, conducts school health programs, aids medical research projects, provides services to TB patients in the county, backs healthful legislation, and takes part in education services for doctors and nurses.

These services and others it performs are worthy of your support.

You can help by purchasing and using TB seals on all of your Christmas mailing. You probably already have received your seals in the mail. If you haven't mailed the envelope back with your contribution in it, do it now, will you?

Foundation Of Business Is Profit

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

It appears that an indictment of the philosophy of profit, rather than concern with any possibility of price fixing, is the real purpose of the drug investigations held in San Francisco. This aim also characterizes the activities of the Kefauver committee, and of the press in its oblique reporting of those events.

The key accusation to which pharmacy in general is subjected is that it makes a profit.

Because of the great popularity of socialistic philosophy in this country, frequently nurtured by the press, as witnessed in your kudos at the appointment of California's ridiculous "consumer counsel" last year, it is supposed to be embarrassing to admit that one seeks a profit in any endeavor. It is fashionable to pretend there is no such motive in business any more. This is particularly true of one associated with health or medicine, but it has been known to have been applied even to such tender areas as milline rates.

As a nation, we have embraced the distorted reasoning that because some profits have been known to result from immoral activity, all profits are evil.

This morbid thinking has affected, if not infected, even the business community to the extent that it is one of the most serious hazards to economic health. Management's own reluctance to admit a desire or need for profit is as serious an obstacle in the road to business success as are high taxes, wages, government restrictions and a host of other more familiar laments.

At best, our attitude about profits is apologetic. It is distressing and pitiful to find businessmen taking a defensive attitude about their profits.

The very foundation of a business is its profit-seeking goal. Eliminate that, and you will remove the basic fabric of our American free enterprise system. Shouldn't a businessman constantly remind himself that he must make a profit, and isn't he foolish to make any effort to hide this goal from a customer?

Profits are just as essential to the consumer's interests as they are to business. Business should demonstrate open pride, not embarrassment, that it is a profit-seeking, self-supporting, tax-paying, free enterprise.

There is no question that pharmacists, physicians, and many others, have serious obligations to society and humanity, but the notion that these conflict in any way with their efforts to achieve economic success is ridiculous.

Certainly, collusive price fixing, restraint of trade and customer gouging are undesirable practices and must be controlled, but they are the exception, rather than the rule among commercial and professional practices. To confuse them with making good healthy profits is dangerous.

Anyone who thinks a business will run without good profits is lacking in economic education. Any consumer who believes his interest will best be served by a non-profit institution is sadly mistaken. Any citizen who sees something evil in profits is an enemy of free enterprise.

What To Do About Spike Heels?

EDITOR,

GOP Mourning Bench Crowded

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The "Republican Mourning Bench" has really been overcrowded since the election and one hears only anguished cries and moans of "unfair," "fraud," "robbed," etc. The Democrats did not act in this manner when the Republicans won the election of 1952 and 1956.

Now come on, aren't you Republicans just a little bit ashamed of yourselves????? Who is letting down the good old U.S.A. now by their accusations of cheating levelled at every precinct in every state in the United States that was won by the Democrats.

The communist countries, that have been handled with such genteel methods in recent years, can only assume that we are indeed not united Look how you Republicans distrust we Democrats.

California's absentee ballots put Nixon in the lap of the Republicans, the final tally did not come as a result of a recount.

Friends Republicans, you have to admit you had all the newspapers and most of the money behind you in your recent campaign. You had a better chance, if this is any help, than we did; but too bad for you we won.

When I step into the voting booth and mark my ballot I believe my vote will be handled honestly and the results are the same all over the country.

Cheer up! Try again in 1964. Maybe in the meantime you can arrange it so nobody but Republicans can count ballots and handle the voting machines, etc., and then you won't harbor such unpleasant thoughts and call out such childish accusations if you lose that election too.

DO MORE, TALK LESS

Hiring men over 65 years of age is something practically everyone recommends. But too few take the trouble to put into practice what they preach.

One group doing something about it, however, is the New Jersey Highway Authority. It has started to employ men over 65 as part-time toll collectors on the Garden State Parkway.

The older workers are engaged to help during rush-hour traffic. They are guaranteed a minimum number of hours' work each month.

Make it a point to reduce noble principles to practical application. Avoid the all too common tendency to be long on talk and short on action regarding the problems that confront your community, country or world.

The smallest Christlike effort to get a job for an unemployed person, young or old; to raise the standards of government and education; or to encourage good literature is far more effective than any amount of fault-finding. Put your ideals to work.

"My mother and my brethren are they who hear the word of God, and act upon it." (Luke 8:21)

Help me, O Lord, to do more and to talk less.

Actress Grateful For Long Illness It Cured Her Of Success Fetish

Actress Joan Fontaine is. She thinks a long illness is the best way to cure anyone with a success fetish—and teach him true values.

"My illness led me to grow up at last," she said. "It was my diploma to life."

Looking as lovely as a primrose, the blonde film star radiated health and a hazel-eyed vitality as we lunched in the old-fashioned elegance of the Edwardian Room at the Plaza.

"I hate to talk like a pollyana about a thing that can be as devastating as illness," said Joan, "but it's the way I really feel.

"Everyone should be so lucky—to have a pause in your life for an appraisal, and to see clearly for the first time what life really has to offer.

"It's a great, great thing. All the minor worries people fret about, the problems that haunt most of us—success, financial security, personal popularity, growing older — all become so terribly unimportant.

"I wish my illness could have happened to me when I was 12. I wasted so much of my life.

"I accomplished a lot, but I didn't enjoy it."

Miss Fontaine has made 45 films, and thrice was nominated for academy awards. She won an Oscar in 1941 for her performance in "Suspicion." She had three husbands.

But she feels now that, like many stars, she let herself be trapped on the treadmill of Hollywood success, a treadmill of many lost values.

SHE ACTS as hostess on the CBS-TV monthly show, "The Breck Family Classics," and is looking for a Broadway role.

"I am in a fortunate position," she remarked. "I have saved my pennies. I am not afraid of the bill collector, or the wolf at the door.

"IT IS LOVELY to accomplish something in life. It is a delicious feeling.

"But the trick is not to keep wanting more. If you do, you are never satisfied."

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Editors and columnists around town were intrigued recently by a communication from a perfume company which said—in part, "The old-fashioned method of applying perfume just here and there is not the way to get the most out of the product. Perfume should be applied the way a general deploys his troops: in all strategic areas. Suggested spots: temples, wrists, crooks of knees. Applying fragrance to the legs is most important, since fragrance rises. If it's applied to the throat and temples, it doesn't have far to go—except to the ceiling—and who can smell it up there? Apply perfume always to the legs, and you'll find that you enjoy it as much as everyone else AND . . ."

The editor who showed me this revolutionary document added, "The first secretary who shows up in THIS office with perfumed legs is going to get it GOOD!"

"Children nowadays," observes Shirley MacLaine, "are practically at high school age before they discover that 'damn' and 'commercial' are two separate words!"

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRUCE COLEMAN

It's A Bus Of Wonder Across The Mountain Four Times Daily

A lot of wonderful little people go back and forth over The Mountain on a bus five days a week between Mill Valley and Muir Beach.

Here is how they look: they have bright eyes, wear yellow raincoats, funny hats, boots and some have fight scratches on their faces.

Here is how they talk: "Hey, Vic, Randy's poking me with a pencil." Or, "My name is Robert Tree Walker . . . but my real name's Charlie Walker. That's my brother, George." Or, "One time we almost ran over a deer!"

Tiburon's Vic Avilla takes his bus, the Mill Valley School District yellow vehicle No. 2, on four round trips per day. The trip averages one hour and 15 minutes. He's been driving the kids 18 years, worn out two buses.

WE BOARDED No. 2 at 2:05 p.m. after trying to get the late run at 3:15 p.m., but being told that would make the bus overloaded.

The bus went from Park School to Homestead School and picked up more youngsters, who got in quickly, some of them leaving their lunch pails and raincoats piled up on the floor beside the gearshift. There was a hum of noise. All passengers appeared friendly.

We climbed Edgewood Avenue. At Edgewood and Sequoia Valley Drive, Vic turned on the red flashing lights, stopped the bus and took Charlie and George Walker across the street to safety.

BY THE TIME we had reached Mountain Home and dropped Tiffany Vincent, we knew the bus was not ordinary. It was a floating bus. Swinging wide off Panoramic Highway down the Muir Beach turnoff, we knew the ride down the mountain would be long. Wisps of fog made us more uneasy.

Despite this, there were some people in the back seats we hadn't met, so we moved back. It was bumpy over the back wheels and ship-like, but we were soon caught up in the singing.

First it was a loud and bouncy "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town." Concluded, someone said, "Which one now?" Answer: "Sing it over!" Counter-answer: "No."

Then we went into "Silent Night," which was softer but scratchy.

Then "Jingle Bells." On this, one little guy laughed too many times at the words "laughing all the way—ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha."

"Ever get seasick on this bus?" we asked him. "No," he said, "ha, ha, ha, ha."

IN THE MIDST of the song-fest, bumps and weaves, we got up strength to look over the back seat. A two-pigtailed little girl was painstakingly drawing lines from number to number in a book, forming a girl. This amazing girl, oblivious to bus rumblings, was Maria Theresa Tella of Frank Waria Theresa Tella of Frank's Valley.

The three Lessigs—Richard, Jimmie and Georgette — got off at the Joe Santos Ranch road and it started to rain. Their sister, 5-year-old Anne Marie, a kindergartener, would come home on the late run from Alto.

Jamie Norton put on his sweater, raincoat and two stocking caps (one was his brother's) and got off at the last stop, Muir Beach Road at Shoreline Highway, with 10 colleagues, among these George and Bobbie Mendoca.

VIC SAID, "I've taken some of these kids' parents to school, Mrs. Mendoca for one. You've got to like kids in order to hang on so long."

Back through Green Gulch, over the mountain to Edna Maguire. It was pouring rain and the last load of the day was waiting and, for us, good old wet, solid land.

Here we met David Kiepe, Alto sixth grader of Muir Beach. When we mentioned the "weavey" trip, David admitted he used to take pills for the ride when he was in fifth grade. Now, in sixth, "I don't take them any more," he said.

We Need New Federal Laws To Deal With Crime Syndicates

WASHINGTON — Those 20 individuals, whose names are best known to the gangland elite and who, on a rainy day in November, 1957, were by some accidental magnet all simultaneously drawn from many parts of the United States, Cuba, and Italy, to visit the baronial mansion of a sick friend in Apalachin, N. Y.—are today busy about their work free from their recent and only mildly cumbersome entanglements with the law.

The law tried, but it failed. The underworld won.

These "delegates" to the sick bed of their colleague, one Joseph Barbara, never were convicted for any of the crimes they may have committed. They were convicted for conspiracy, that is, as the government prosecutors contended, to agree to lie about the purpose of their conference to which they so spontaneously arrived from so many distant points.

NOW, THE UNITED States Court of Appeals has raised a stern and impartial hand and has unanimously ruled no —no convictions, no crime proved, no proper case made against these gentlemen who have been set free to go back to their "businesses" and, on top of it all, the Justice Department is reprimanded for initiating the proceedings.

All right, let's say that the Court of Appeals is wise and right and truly faithful to the Constitutional guarantees which must be impartially administered in order to protect the innocent.

But let's not lose sight of what this reversal of these convictions really means. It means that the government of the United States is finding itself powerless to deal with the kind of organized crime —the crime syndicate—which is now flourishing with such power and evil in the big cities of the nation.

THIS RIGHT and necessary decision of the Court of Appeals must be looked upon as not the depressing end of a hopeless and helpless effort by the Justice Department.

It must be taken as the climactic proof that the government of the United States must strengthen its legal powers, better its investigating and prosecuting organization to deal with new techniques of crime.

I offer no quick package of changes in the law, but I do suggest one basic proposition: the instrument of government dealing with the crime syndicate must be greater in power and resources than the crime syndicate itself.

IT IS BEING grimly demonstrated that today the crime syndicate is more powerful and more resourceful than the state and local governments which have almost exclusive jurisdiction over such crime.

I am not especially fond of more and more federal government. But it is better to have more federal authority to check crime when crime is too big and far-reaching for the states to cope with.

This, it seems to me, is the meaning of the freed Apalachin "delegates" and that the next step is up to the new attorney general and Congress.

Treat 'Peter Pan' Children With Kindliness, And They'll Like You

About 7,000 of them are born in our country each year. They are endearing, lovable, tragic youngsters.

Usually the first thing you notice is their eyes. They seem to be farther apart than they should be and slanted, like the eyes of people in Mongolia. Their heads may have a slightly different shape than other children's. Their arms and legs may be a little shorter. Their minds don't develop normally; their I.Q.'s are low, and remain that way.

They are sweet and depend on their parents. They enjoy being with other children and aren't quarrelsome. To know them is to love them.

No one can tell what causes their condition. A recent theory is that their germ cells lack one of the chromosomes normal babies' germ cells contain. Whatever it is, the condition starts early in their prenatal life.

Peter Pan children can be born to any family. Mothers who are past 35 are a bit more apt to have them than women who are younger.

They don't resist disease as well as other children. Many of them die while they are young; only a few survive to adulthood. Some of them thrive when placed in state hospitals. Much depends on the homes they have come from. Much depends on the hospitals, too.

You should treat a Peter Pan child in your neighborhood just as you would any other little one who isn't quite able to be independent. Be friendly, helpful and happy.

You'll like him, and he'll like you.

READER'S FORUM

(Q) "Can Mongoloid children be cured by special diets and medicines?"

(A) They cannot. Science has not been able to find the answers to the riddles they present. Much research has been done but much more is needed.

Film On City Hall Riot To Be Shown By Legion Post

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Granite Marker Believed Taken From A Grave

The granite grave marker which was found alongside the road in Strawberry Thursday, had apparently been removed from a grave, an investigation revealed today.

Sheriff's deputies and the Marin County coroner said the marker had been "recently cemented to another object" and that there was crushed grass on the bottom, indicating it had been taken out of the ground.

The stone was turned over to the Marin Monument Co. in hopes the owner might be identified.

Kappa Feud Due Another Board Airing

George Kappa's long feud with Marin County and its Richardson Bay Master Plan is due for another airing at tomorrow's afternoon session of the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Decision is scheduled on the question of whether there should be county complaint to the U.S. Army Engineers against Kappas application for three years extension of his time to complete dredging and filling on the south side of Richardson Bay.

A Nov. 29 letter from public works director Marvin W. Brigham to the board said he had received public notice from the engineers of a Kappas application, apparently "in violation of the interim ordinance recently adopted by the board and also contrary to the master plan for Richardson Bay which was adopted by the board."

Brigham pointed out that objection, if any, must be made within 30 days after the Nov. 17 date of the notice and he called it to the board's attention "for such action as you deem appropriate."

Decision was postponed due to illness of Supervisor Vera Schultz of Mill Valley so this is one of several continued matters coming up.

Another, which the supervisors candidly hope will have settled itself, involves a question of whether members of a flying club may be expelled from the county airport near Novato because of their wish to conduct training operations in their own plane, an action deemed contrary to his contract rights by airport operator H. O. Tollefson. Last week the supervisors heard agreement was near so they continued without further effort to settle anything.

INCOME TAX FACTS

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

We have to live with taxes every day of our lives and if we want to pay only our share we must keep accurate records of our finances and so shape our daily lives to produce the lowest tax result.

Peter J. Wikel

Judge Learned Hand expressed it so well when he said, "Over and over again courts have said there is nothing sinister in so arranging one's affairs as to keep taxes as low as possible. Everyone does so, rich or poor; and all do right, for nobody owes any public duty to pay more than the law demands: taxes are enforced exactions, not voluntary contributions. To demand more in the name of morals is mere cant."

There may be some things that you should do now, before the end of 1960, that could make a big difference in the tax you will have to pay, or the refund that you will receive, in 1961. For instance, medical expenses present great opportunities for switching expense from one year to another.

Medical expenses are deductible to the extent they exceed 3 per cent of your adjusted gross income, but not more than $2,500 per personal exemption and not more than $5,000 on a separate return or more than $10,000 on a joint or head of household return. Exemptions for old age and blindness do not count.

If you or your spouse are over 65 years old the 3 per cent provision does not apply to you and if you or your spouse are over 65 years old and disabled, the maximum deduction is increased to $15,000 and if you are both over 65 years old and both disabled the maximum deduction is increased to $30,000 but not more than $15,000 per individual.

Now suppose that you have large unpaid medical expenses this year and will have even more in 1961. Do not pay any of these this year. Wait until 1961 and pay them all in that year. This way you will have the advantage of the full deduction instead of losing 3 per cent of your income this year as well as 3 per cent of your income for 1961. This works the other way too.

Suppose you have paid medical expense of over 3 per cent of your adjusted gross income and will have a deduction for 1960 and you still owe medical bills which you plan to pay in 1961. If you pay those bills before the end of the year they will be a deduction this year. You won't have to use them to make up 3 per cent of your adjusted gross income for 1961 before you can start deducting again. If you do not have funds readily available it might be wise to borrow the money.

Let's see how that would work. Suppose you borrow $1,000 from a bank and repay in 12 monthly installments. Your cost for such a loan would be about $70. Now suppose you take this $1,000 and pay deductible bills with it. If you are paying taxes at the lowest rate, you will save $200. Your net profit on the transaction will be about $130.

Remember, too, that any interest paid on borrowed money will become a deduction next year.

These columns are intended to help you in a general way, to give you the answers to the most often asked questions about income and deductions and to point out the tax saving possibilities that may be open to you. If you have a specific problem you should consult the accountant of your choice as early as possible.

Auto Sales Ahead Of Last Year; Compact Impact May Be Answer

MOTORCRAFT: Sales by most auto manufacturers producing both compacts and larger cars are held to be ahead of last year. However, no breakdown has been received showing which class is responsible for their over-all gain. . . . General appraisal of sales trends finds compacts now capturing 33 per cent of the U.S. market as against approximately 27 per cent last year, so this may be the answer. . . . Discontinuance of the De Soto line after 32 years has had one immediate close-out effect locally—Rossi Garage has sold what cars it had on hand, expects no more deliveries, will change its signs and settle down to pushing Plymouths and Valiants for Chrysler—and Larks for Studebaker.

SAN RAFAEL ARCHITECT Robert W. F. Severin bought the first 1961 Lincoln Continental off the floor from E. Bugna, Inc., a honey-beige four-door sedan and somewhat of a "honey" in price and other appurtenances. This is Severin's second Lincoln—Mrs. S. is hanging on to the last one—a 1948 convertible with almost 300,000 miles — for her own use, but wait until she sits behind the wheel of the new one. The wheels may be rotated.

TWO MARIN RESIDENTS, principals in the San Francisco insurance brokerage firm of Larke, Blue and Co., have merged their business with that of another San Francisco firm—Hyams and Mayers, Inc.

The new organization maintains a Los Angeles office and is believed to be the largest insurance brokerage firm offering complete insurance service outside of the downtown area of San Francisco.

KELLOGG EXPRESS and Draying Co., which is owned by Associated Freight Lines, is abandoning its Marin terminal quarters at Jordan and Lindaro Streets, San Rafael. Hereafter dispatching will be done out of the San Francisco office at 530 Brannan St. Marin County service will still be rendered phone calls to the local Kellogg number will be given an Enterprise toll-free number in the city to call.

While Kellogg is still operating under its own name, chances are that by the first of the year everything will be consolidated under Associated Freight Lines.

WE HEAR that Pioneer Enterprises, Inc.—formerly Marin Machine, Inc.—in Sausalito is running into growing problems. Look for possible expansion and movement further north in Marin within one to three months.

PHONETIC SALESMANSHIP. The following letter was said to have appeared on a department bulletin board:

"Deer boss:

"I seen this outfit wich they aint never bawt a dimes werth uv nuthin from us and I sole them a cupple hundred thowsand dollars uv guds. I am now goin to Chawgo."

Beneath it was an excerpt from a second letter dated two days later:

This office memo was appended by the company president:

"We ben spending to much time hear trying to spel instedd uv trying to sel. Lets wortch those sails. I want everybuddy shud reed these letters frum Gooch who is on the rode doing a grate job for us, and you shud go out and DO LIKE HE DONE!"

Purity Store To Close For Big Remodeling

A $250,000 remodeling job has been undertaken by the Mill Valley Purity Store and will necessitate a shutdown of sales operations from Jan. 14, after the end of the day, to 9 a.m. Jan. 25.

Involved are many new facilities, a new paint job inside and out, installation of a big new revolving sign on a 35-foot tower, and resurfacing of the parking lot at Camino Alto and East Blithedale Avenue.

Holes are to be cut in the roof and huge pilings will be driven just inside the wall line. Prestressed concrete T sections 90 feet long will rest on the pilings, spanning the entire length of the building.

The revolving "Purity" sign will be 22 feet wide and six feet in depth.

Features will include:

Installation of a service bakery and coffee bar, new grocery gondolas and wall shelving, a 22-foot air curtain dairy box, 40 feet of delicatessen cases, "Twin Island" frozen food cases 112 feet in length, a refurbishing of production department fixtures, and new check stands.

A customer service center is to include check-cashing service, a place to return empty bottles, facilities for purchase of money orders, packaged cigarettes, film service, and reception of payments for utility bills.

Returns To U.S.

Harry J. Dillon, Navy fireman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Dillon of 15 Windsor avenue, Sau Rafael, has returned to the United States aboard the destroyer Harry E. Hubbard after a six-month cruise with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Orchestra Plans Second Rehearsal

Mill Valley's orchestra for beginners, retired and semi-advanced adult players will meet for its second practice session tonight at 8 o'clock in the Edna Maguire School, director David Reed announces.

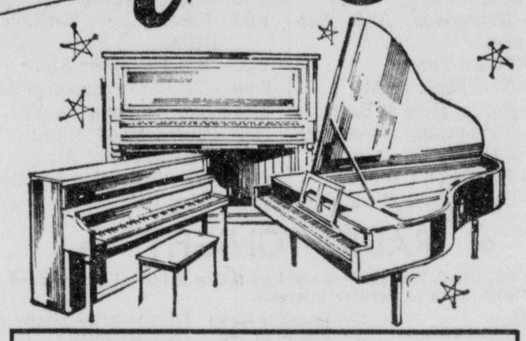

Mrs. Timothy Grul, unofficial chairman, said "the group of 25 southern Marin people who like to make music just for fun ranges from mighty poor to mighty good. It includes violinists — and we use the term loosely — clarinetists, flutists, saxophonists, trumpeters, baritones and an oboist without an oboe.

"We need cellists and a string bass to fill the chairs."
